SEAVEY SEDAN NEARLY PLUNGES INTO THE RIVER
 While driving on to the ferry crossing the Willamette to their farm, Mrs. John Seavey narrowly escaped a serious accident last week. The car went too far forward and the front wheels dropped off the ferry into the water. Mrs. Seavey had the presence of mind to quickly apply the emergency brakes which held the car from slipping into the river, which is said to be over twelve feet deep at that place. Mrs. Seavey's children had alighted to cross the ferry. As the car is a closed one, the drop might have resulted fatally.

The Lap of Fortune

Ben Franklin said: "To be thrown on one's own resources is to be cast in the very lap of fortune."

Ben was a pretty wise old chap and in the above paragraph, in the language of the street, he "said a mouthful." In other words a case of sink or swim teaches one to SWIM or sink. In financial affairs, it means work and save in order to succeed. The dollars you earn are the ones you value and will keep. Are you struggling along on your own resources? Then you are the party we are anxious to help. We admire your pluck. Open an account with our Bank. We will stand by you.
