Nominee's Former Pastor Still Boosting Man Who Will Be Leader and Not Dictator.

FINDS IN SENATOR NO TRACE OF RADICALISM

Declares Justice, Kindliness and Mercy Stand Out as Foremost Characteristics of Republican Candidate.

Included among the Minnesota Republicans working faithfully and industriously in behalf of Senator Harding, is Rev. D. B. Martin, of Winnebago, Minn., formerly pastor of the Marion, Ohio, Baptist Church and Senator Harding's pastor. The other day Rev. Martin was asked just why he is so enthusiastic about Senator Harding, and this is what he said:

"It is a peculiar pleasure for me to continue the work which I began twenty-five years ago. It was my privilege to stand on the side lines and boost for Senator Harding when he received his first nomination for public office. When he was a candidate for the senate I was visiting in Ohio and had the pleasure of boosting for him. It is, therefore, a peculiar pleasure to join with this bunch of Minnesota boosters in seeking to put Senator Harding over, in the greatest gift within the power of the people. Being a clergyman, I have been constantly asked by my friends at the college commencement in Michigan, in Chicago and in Minnesota why I am such a persistent booster for Mr. Harding, and I have been asked to state in this presence my reasons for doing so. These are three:

"The first pertains to certain elements of his character. I will give you these as I received them while I was pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, of which Mr. Harding is a member. I asked him and a group of other men to make some Sunday evening addresses. I do not remember much that Senator Harding said at that time, but I do remember very distinctly the words with which he closed his address and which have stood all these years as outstanding elements of his character to me. He closed the address by a quotation from the Prophets, in which he said, 'And what doth the Lord thy God require of thee but to do justly and love mercy and walk humbly with thy God.' Justice, mercy, kindness and humility have in all these years stood as foremost characteristics of Mr. Harding's life—characteristics which are always attractive and make a man's life worth while.

"The second reason is because I believe that there is focused in him the best traditions, ideals and purposes of the great Republican party and so peculiarly fit him to be their leader in this great crisis of the nation's life. I use the word 'leader' advisedly, for it is leadership that we are needing and not arbitrary, dictatorial, autocratic rule. We have had enough of that. If a boss is desired there would be no need for making any change, for the boss that we have is the bossiest.

"The third reason is because I find in him no trace of radicalism. To me radicalism is the greatest danger that we have to face. Our interests are too diverse to admit of anything of that character. We have our agricultural group with its interests. We have the labor group with its interests. We have our financial interests. We have that other great group known as the public, that has always been made the 'goat,' with its interests. All of these are of vital interest to the common weal and I believe that Senator Harding is broad enough and sympathetic enough so that the interests of each will be blended in the common interest of all, and all will be perfectly safe under his leadership."

"READ THAT, MR. COX" AND MR. COX DID READ.

A little incident connected with candidate Cox's recent campaign visit to New York indicates that the Democratic nominee is striving to forget certain indiscreet editorials which appeared in his newspaper, the Dayton News, before the owner of the paper aspired to the Presidency.

As the Democratic nominee was leaving the Hotel Commodore after luncheon a commercial traveler forced his way through the throng of curious spectators and thrust into Mr. Cox's hand an editorial clipping which proved to be his denunciation of the commercial travelers of the United States. "Read that, Mr. Cox," commanded the traveling man. The Democratic candidate unfolded the frayed column of newspaper matter, glanced at the heading, scanned the first paragraph, flushed scarlet to the ears and crumpling the offensive and offending editorial in his fist mumbled something which none of those near him at the time would repeat and hurried to his waiting automobile.

In 1904 one of Mr. Cox's newspapers denounced the army of traveling salesmen as "unmitigated bores." What would he say now that he desires their votes?—South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

The Lap of Fortune

Ben Franklin said: "To be thrown on one's own resources is to be cast in the very lap of fortune."

Ben was a pretty wise old chap and in the above paragraph, in the language of the street, he "said a mouthful." In other words a case of sink or swim teaches one to SWIM or sink. In financial affairs, it means work and save in order to succeed. The dollars you earn are the ones you value and will keep. Are you struggling along on your own resources? Then you are the party we are anxious to help. We admire your pluck. Open an account with our Bank. We will stand by you.
