Help Make the New Year Healthier and Happier

TO EACH HIS SHARE

The message which Senator Harding sent to his running mate is indicative of a new policy in National administration. Said Senator Harding: "My heartiest congratulations over the great Republican victory to which your strength added so materially. You are expected to play a full part in the coming Republican administration." All through the campaign Mr. Harding indicated his intention not to try to make his a one-man administration, and following the election he has reiterated this idea. It is expected that Coolidge will be invited to participate in cabinet meetings and will be called into conference on other important occasions. In this manner Mr. Harding will be able to lighten his own burdens, and, moreover, the vice president will be kept in constant touch with public affairs so that he will be ready at any time to undertake any work that may be assigned him.

THE WEST IN THE CABINET

Geographically and from the standpoint of developing resources, the west is entitled to the portfolio of the Interior. Secretary Lane of the Wilson cabinet came from California and was always a champion of progressive policies in western matters. Subtle influences are at work to prevent the west from getting this place to which it is clearly entitled and switch it to the east. Big eastern interests desire to dominate in public lands, oil and mineral development, forestry and the exploitation of Alaska. Most of these influences are reactionary and represent what is left of conservation policies that would tie up the west for the future. In the case of Alaska red tape and dilatory department methods have kept American enterprise out of that territory and population declines. The west should not be deprived of the position of Secretary of the Interior and it should be filled by an efficient western statesman.

Congressman Mondell of Wyoming, Senator Fall of New Mexico, Governor Campbell of Arizona and Herbert Hoover are the type of men needed. We do not want our hydro-electric powers, reclamation, irrigation and forest, mineral and oil resources tied up forever.—Manufacturer.

Walla Walla, Valley Spectator.—"The country has passed through the greatest era of prosperity that the world has ever known, yet the people did little else but complain of high prices, the natural result of extreme prosperity. We are no doubt entering now upon an era of depressed prices, and before the end comes we will see or hear of mobs rioting and clamoring for a change of social and economic systems."

GOVERNMENT IN EARNEST ABOUT BABIES

The government has made studies of mothers and babies in both city and country. In 8 rural areas, representing 6 states, information was secured about the confinement care of the mothers of 2987 babies. It was found that only five cases received prenatal care approaching the minimum standard of "adequate" care outlined by the Child Welfare Conference held in Washington, D. C., in May, 1919; and in 80 per cent of the cases the mothers reported having no prenatal care whatever.

Of more than 22,000 city babies studied by the government, and representing every type of home in seven cities, more than three-fifths were born into families where the father's earnings were below the amount which was at that time the minimum for providing the bare necessities of existence. Only one in ten was in a family where the father's earnings reached a fair minimum for comfort.

Mothers and babies are the same in the country and in the city. They need the same care.

The government, through the provisions of the Sheppard-Towner bill, would help the farm woman and the city woman, whether the difficulty be ignorance, isolation, ill health, or low income, by educating her in maternal and infant hygiene, by sending out public health nurses, by providing health centers, and by going 50-50 with the states in the cost for this care.

That Awfully Good

Graham flour you have been bragging about is Springfield Graham flour.

The reason its so good is that we grind the whole grain in an old fashioned stone burr.

Most Graham is made by mixing low grade flour and bran together. Our's is different.

Ask your dealer for Springfield Graham.
