CHURCH NEWS

Baptist Church

Geo. R. Varnay, Pastor.
Sunday school at 10 a. m. Our Sunday school is on the boom, new scholars every Sunday. The Sunday school commences 5 minutes before 10 with a music program by the superintendent and the children. If you want to hear them, be there on time. Program and music committee are busy preparing for Christmas. Our pastor preaches every Sunday morning and evening. His sermons are always fresh and inspiring. To hear him once means you will want to hear again. Good music by our choir. All are cordially invited.

Christian Church

Corner of 4th and A streets.
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11:00 o'clock. Evening services; Endeavor at 6:30, and preaching at 7:30.

Last Sunday we were especially favored in the musical line. The choir sang a fine anthem in the morning and Mr. Johnson of Eugene sang "Teach Me To Pray" as a solo in the evening. We have secured the services of Miss Ruth Scott to direct the choir, and we are confident that the musical part of the service shall be well taken care of from now on.

The Epworth league is preparing to make a new advance. The interest of the meetings is increasing, and the numbers have also increased. The cabinet are planning a social for the evening of Friday, Dec. 17.

There will be the regular services next Sunday. Everybody is invited.
