Cause for Depression.

The boy working on our shoes was solemnly silent.
"Smatter, Rastus?"
"Nuffin' much. But I was jus' thinkin'."
"What about?"
"Well, Fred Douglas is done gone, and Paul Laurence Dunbar's done gone, an' Bookah Washington's daid, an' I ain' feelin' none too good mahself!"

A Popular Method.

"How in the world can I ever break into the poetry market and get the critics to notice me?"
"Get a job driving a garbage wagon. Then some day when the reeking is especially good, go to a magazine office and hand in some of your best verse. You will at once become known as 'The Garbage Man Poet,' your verses will be twice as good as if you had written them on bond linen at a mahogany desk, and your success and notoriety will be assured."

TESTED COWS BEST

The eight cow testing associations of Oregon tested 4636 cows in October, reports E. B. Fitts, U. S. and O. A. C. extension dairy field man in charge. These cows produced more than 25 per cent better than the average cow of Oregon. The average yield of the association cows was 467 pounds of milk and 25.07 pounds of fat.

HERE IS EVIDENCE

Seattle, Wash., May 4th, 1920.
The Electric Medicated Inhalatorium:
Gentlemen:—In response to yours, asking me my opinion of the beneficial qualities of the Electro Medicated Inhalatorium treatments, I wish to say that after carefully observing the action of the Treatment it is absolutely wonderful in its results in many diseases which are hard to overcome through the general line of treatments that I have heretofore used, among the diseases in which I have noted excellent results I may mention—Rheumatism, Asthma, Gout, Catarrh, bad condition of the Throat and Lungs, resulting from Influenza, in fact I may say that its use in general and the effects are quick and decided and relief is experienced immediately. Out of twenty-seven patients whom I have observed closely it did not fail in any of them. I have practiced medicine for 26 years and in my opinion it is the best all-round treatment I ever saw, and as a benefit to humanity its value cannot be equaled and to back this statement up, will say I am using it and intend to do so as long as I can, and devote my entire time to it in Seattle.
You may think I am quite enthusiastic about it, but when I see anything that is good and have proven it so, I am not afraid to say so and will back up anything I say, and will prove it to anyone who will take the trouble to come to my office.
I wish you all the success that possible and hope to see this a National benefit instead of a local one. You may use this letter as you see fit, with best regards, I remain,
Yours truly,
DR. F. N. FREER.

The Inhalatorium is not a foe to the work of the physician and surgeon. His is a noble and indispensable work. But the Inhalatorium is an aid to his work of relieving pain and healing disease; and, in many instances, it will do the work, when medicines are of no avail. In almost every case of lung or bronchial trouble, it's wonders are great, and the patient soon responds to the treatment when everything else has failed. In rheumatism it is doing grand work, as it works on and with the blood. If you have pure blood, you are not so apt to catch any disease that may be in your path.

The ELECTRO MEDICATED INHALATORIUM is located at 969 Wilamette street, Eugene, Oregon.

Just As Dead

"Why do you turn out for every road hog that comes along?" said the missus rather crossly. "The right of way is ours, isn't it?"
"Oh, undoubtedly!" answered he, calmly. "As for our turning out, the reason is plainly suggested in this epitaph which appeared in a newspaper recently:
"Here lies the body of William Jay Who died maintaining his right of way;
He was right, dead right, as he sped along,
But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong."—Boston Transcript

Now He Knows

She—"Well, dear, I shall have to do the cooking now. Cook left without warning this afternoon."
He—"Not exactly without warning. She told me this morning I had better bring some indigestion pills home with me tonight; but I didn't quite understand what she meant."—Answers.
