CHURCH WEDDING

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the Methodist church in this city Saturday, June 25, when Miss Altha L. Shaub, of Creswell, was united in marriage with Ralph W. Jack, of Springfield. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with mock orange blossoms and pink and white roses, and the path of the march was marked off with white streamers with rosettes of pink rosebuds.

Promptly at 10:00 a. m. the pianist, Miss Florence Shaub, sister of the bride, struck the first notes of the wedding march, the "Grande Marche Nuptiale," by L. Renk, and the bride and groom, preceded by the bridesman and bridesmaid, Mr. Geo. W. Taylor and Miss Rhoda Jack, sister of the groom, came slowly down the aisle to the altar, where they were met by the officiating minister, the Rev. Thos. D. Yarnes, pastor of the church. After a brief, but impressive ceremony, the wedding party passed from the room, to wait the greetings of the assembled guests, a company of about thirty near relatives and invited friends.

The bride was attractively gowned in beautiful white, and carried a shower bouquet of cream sweet peas and ferns. The bridesmaid was tastefully dressed in pink, and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas and ferns.

Immediately after the wedding, the families of the two contracting parties drove out to the country home of the groom's parents, where a reception was held, and a delicious two-course luncheon served on their staid lawn.

The happy pair were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful wedding gifts, but more precious than these, even, are the sincere wishes for happiness, and the deep and lasting interest in them on the part of those who know them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack took the train at Eugene for their new home near Corvallis, where Mr. Jack has a position on the state game farm.

On last Thursday evening the Rebekahs held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. June Korf for Mrs. Alice Kester Lorah, a faithful member. It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Lorah.

Just as Mrs. Hinson, the Noble Grand, gave Mrs. Lorah our best wishes, a beautiful pink and green parasol descended from the ceiling loaded with gifts, and Mrs. Lorah was asked to lighten its burden. The gifts were both useful and ornamental with no duplications. An "overflow" of gifts were placed on the library table. Much merriment was caused by all insisting that Mrs. Lorah read the card attached to each gift.

As there were so many present eligible to be married, the bride hastily made up a bouquet and threw it from the stairway and it was miraculously caught by Mrs. Mary Magill, who leaves it to the Rebekahs to find her a husband.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee were served.

All the decorations were in pink and green, Rebekah colors. All went home wishing our Alice a long and happy married life.

Those present besides the guest of honor were: Mesdames Vina McLean, Mary Magill, Bertha Keefer, Helen Donaldson, Cora Hinsen, Ida Larson, Mamie Richmond, Bertie Walker, Jennie Barnard, Anna Glendenning, Emily Dority, Kizer, Lansbury, Pearl Walker, Nellie Richmond, Mary Edwards, June Korf, Stella Finley, Ohlson, Effie McKinney, Irma Parker, Misses Edna Swarts, Jessie Walker, Besse Bench and Mrs. Meda Catching.

The Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wheaton last Friday. A most pleasant afternoon was spent, chatting over the needlework and listening to some beautiful selections on the victrola.

Sweet peas, roses and Canterbury bells formed the decorations.

In the late afternoon, the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Members present were: Mesdames J. W. Coffin, O. B. Kessey, H. A. Korf, L. May, J. T. Moore, C. E. Swarts, H. W. Whitney, W. F. Walker, S. R. Dippel, M. M. Peery, and Misses Edna Swarts and Margaret Morris and hostess.

The guest list for the afternoon included Mrs. Anna Glendenning, Mrs. Edessa Cox, Mrs. A. P. McKinney and Miss Lulu Gile.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Whitney, on July 8.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Ship and sail under the Stars and Stripes to all parts of the world

THERE was a long period when it was not true, but today it is proudly true once more—trade and passenger routes are so established that you can ship your goods, or you can sail, to any part of the world under the Stars and Stripes.

The program of routes is being carried out with an eye to the future as well as present needs of American exporters and importers and all American prosperity. See that the ships you use are owned and operated by American citizens or by the U.S. Shipping Board.

"In Every Respect" says the Good Judge

You get more genuine chewing satisfaction from the Real Tobacco Chew than you ever got from the ordinary kind.

The good tobacco taste lasts so long—a small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much longer than a big chew of the old kind. That's why it costs less to use.

Any man who has used both kinds will tell you that.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.
