PENDLETON ROUND-UP PROGRAM VERY GOOD

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 1—From the riding of bucking bulls, the first event to the wild horse race which closes each day's list of thrillers, the program for the 1921 Pendleton Round-Up, September 22, 23 and 24, is ready.

Of the twenty-five events, 18 of which are competitive, there is not one which will not hold the interest of the spectator when the big show begins on that Thursday in September. Following the riding of the bucking bulls comes the cowboys' pony race, then squaw race, cowgirls' standing race, stage coach race, cowgirls' relay race, Indian race, steer bulldogging, steer roping, cowboys' and cowgirls' grand mounted march, Indian parade, trick riding and roping, Indian war dances, Indian pony race, pony express race, cowgirls' bucking contest, Indian war bonnet race, quick change race, cowgirls' pony race, Indian pony relay race, cowboy's standing race, cowboys' bucking contest, cowboys' relay race and wild horse race following each other in quick succession. One of the secrets of the popularity of the show is the dispatch with which events are given. There is never a moment's delay in the Round-Up.

Prizes for this years show are the greatest ever offered. The largest prizes are for the steer-roping contest, the cowboys' bucking contest and the cowboys' and cowgirls' relay races, all for the championship of the world.

In the steer-roping, the champion will be awarded a $600 cash prize and a $350 prize saddle presented by the Pendleton Commercial Association.

In the relay races, the purse totals $1000 to be divided first $500, second $300 and third $200. The cowboys' bucking contest for the world's championship has a purse of $750, while the winner gets a $450 cash prize and the beautiful $500 Hamley saddle. The $100 Police Gazette belt will go to the all-around cowboy champion, while to the winner of the wild horse race Thursday and Friday will go a $75 saddle with a $100 saddle Saturday, as well as a silver mounted bridle and a silver bit presented to each day's winner by Pauline Fredrick, noted film star.

Who will reign as the queen of the Round-Up?

This is the question which confronts the Round-Up Association and which is to be decided within the next few days. From among the attractive girls of Pendleton is to be chosen one who will ride in the Round-Up parade. With her will be a retinue of six Umatilla county girls who will ride also. Queen and maids, the association plans, will wear cowgirls' costumes and other Pendleton women will also appear in the buckskin and sombreros of the west.

Lorenzo E. Dole was in town today to procure medical aid for his wife who has been quite sick at her home near Heceta. Mr. Dole recently received a jail sentence of four months from the federal court for setting forest fires in the Heceta district. Mr. Dole maintains his innocence and states that if the sentence is enforced it will be necessary to leave his wife alone at their home in the mountains near Heceta.

J. F. SMITH'S ESTATE

The will of J. F. Smith, lately deceased, was admitted to probate several days ago. Paul Hadley, a nephew of Mr. Smith, raised in their home, is named as executor. The estate is appraised at $30,000. The special bequests are as follows: to Paul Hadley, $5000; to Leslie L. Brattain, a niece, Mollie B. Scott, a niece, and Chas. L. Scott, her husband, each $500. These are relatives of Mrs. Smith. To Mabel Almosie, a niece's daughter, $1000. To the Eugene Lodge, A. F. & A. M., $500; the income to be devoted to the upkeep of a lot in the cemetery in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lemons, of Portland, spent the week-end in Springfield, visiting Mrs. Lemons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Winzenfeld, and other relatives, resident and visiting.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Lane County, Carrie M. La Vine, plaintiff, vs. William D. La Vine, defendant.

To William D. La Vine, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, within the time hereinafter set for you to do so or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, which is in substance as follows:

For a decree of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, for the care, custody and control of plaintiff's minor child, Edna Orcutt; for the right to resume plaintiff's former name of Carrie M. Allen, and for such other and further relief as to this Honorable Court may seem just and proper.

This summons is published in The Springfield News once a week for a period of six consecutive weeks pursuant to an order for the same, made by Hon. G. F. Skipworth, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lane County, Oregon, dated September 6, 1921, and you are required to appear and answer said complaint on or before the last day of said period of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, namely on or before the 20th day of October, 1921, or the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief herein before mentioned.

The date of the first publication of this summons is September 8, 1921. HOWARD M. BROWNELL, Attorney for plaintiff. Postoffice address, Eugene, Oregon. Date of first publication, Sept. 8, 1921. Date of last publication Oct. 20, 1921.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.
