

THE RAILROADS: ITS YOUR MOVE

The Strike Club is Lowered; Freight Reduction Comes Next

The heads of the five great railroad labor unions which had ordered a strike called it off two or three days before it was to take effect.

The strike leaders, in receding from a position which had simply become untenable, had to find some excuse for doing so.

The government had all preparations aimed to meet the strike with injunctions, and treat the movement as a conspiracy.

Public sentiment was against the strike, as an unlawful proceeding and an unwarranted invasion of the rights of the public.

SPRINGFIELD LOSES CHURCH CAMP GROUND

The commission appointed by the annual conference (Methodist) to decide upon a site for a conference camp ground met in Portland last week to consider the matter.

The people of the Springfield church consider the matter as virtually settled, so far as their aspirations are concerned.

The work of setting the poles for the new trolley line between 3rd street and Springfield Junction is mostly done.

TOWN AND VICINITY

The tree-planting feature of the Armistice Day celebration will occur in the morning.

She changed admirers as often as she changed her gown.

Try our sodas, they are sodalicious at Eggmann's.

Dr. E. Koster has a new Willys-Knight car.

Fresh salmon for sale. Will be in town Tuesdays and Fridays to deliver.

Mr. Coffin finished his work on the school census last Saturday.

Want a taxi, phone 2. The taxi that always gets there.

The snapping lash of her whip bit deep into the tawny hide of a snorting lion, and the beast was broken.

The trees about the high school grounds have been trimmed up to a good height.

H. C. Wheeler, of Pleasant Hill, had a hog valued at $20 killed by hunters a few days ago.

Springfield Hospital, located on F street between 8th and 9th.

Geo. I. Dean had forethought enough to plan to safely house his woodshed and fixtures on Hallow E'en night.

The wreck of a man staggered to his death in the swirling blackmaw of the river.

Miss Edna Duryee sustained an operation for acute appendicitis, at the Springfield hospital, last Thursday.

THE SEASON'S BASEBALL HERO

John Rawlins, whom the baseball fans credit with having made the winning play in the deciding game of the world series.

SPRINGFIELD STILL THE CHEAPEST PLACE

The 4L bulletin publishes each month comparative tables, showing the average actual cost of food per day for a family of five persons.

Portland is among the cheapest of the towns reported.

MEETING TO FURTHER GAUGE MANUFACTURE

A meeting held in Steven's hall last night was taken up with a discussion of the merits of the Corsaw gas gauge.

CARNIVAL A LOSER ON ITS SEASON HERE

Scott's Greater Shows, the street carnival, as stated last week, were hindered about getting here.

As a common thing, carnival companies simply manage an aggregation of smaller shows under contract.

gaged with the News—the youngest child of his oldest sister.

PROGRESS OF BIG FILL AT McVEY'S POINT

At the overhead crossing work, at McVey's Point, the channel where the permanent highway is to be, south of the bridge, has been cut out.

The filling is now proceeding on the north side, from the bridge onward, and will probably continue there until the permanent roadbed on that side is completed.

McKENZIE BRIDGE PIONEER IS DEAD

George Frissell died at Mercy hospital, Eugene, Saturday, October 29, aged 71.

SPRINGFIELD MILL HAS PROSPEROUS MONTH

The Springfield Mill and Grain Co. has just finished doing the largest volume of business it has experienced during its existence in any one month.

Since the firm is now selling its Noxall brands of flour and commercial feeds along with the famous Northwest hard wheat flour in all parts of the Willamette valley.

PREPARING POTATO CROP FOR MARKET

B. O. Smith, who lives a little west of Natron, though a comparatively young man is becoming one of the leading potato raisers of this region.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

During the past year every community has had impressed on it the fact that operating industries and steady payrolls meant prosperity for all.

Lorane people want the branch of the Crow-Hadleville road improved immediately.

Beard—National City bank report shows improvement in the business situation; gradual restoration of the industrial equilibrium which is necessary to permanent prosperity noted.

A number of new houses are going up at Dallas.

Scio—12 acre prune orchard netted $1700.

Vale has a new $100,000 bank, with stock fully subscribed.

Forest Grove—Pacific university working for $500,000 endowment.

Nyssa has shipped 150 carloads of apples.

Oregon City woolen mills to build auxiliary factory in Portland.

Corvallis—O. A. C. enters poultry at Suffolk, England, fair.

Jefferson—Filbert crops producing as high as $600 to $1000 per acre.

Portland banks loan $1,000,000 to grain growers to move wheat.

Three additional Japanese ships leading grain at Oregon ports.

Monmouth—Odd Fellows to erect new lodge building here.

Medford—Gold Ridge mine turns out $1500 brick.

Joseph Herald purchased by O. G. Crawford of Hepner.

Eugene—Contract let for grading 17 miles McKenzie highway.

Contract let for construction of Brandy Bar-Reedsport road.

Noti—Elmira Lumber Co. to build a large sawmill near here.

Silverton Tribune installing larger printing press and folder.

United Presbyterians to raise $1,000,000 college endowment fund in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Oregon receives $102,489.51, Washington $77,180.59, of the national forest fund.

West St. Helens firm to build a big warehouse north of the depot.

Stanfield—$1,000,000 bond issue planned for market roads.

Industries Wanted in Oregon

Baker—Plant to utilize waste brick lumber products, brick kiln plant, wool scouring plant.

Beaverton—Cannery for dehydrating plant, wicker furniture factory, jewelry store, men's clothing store.

Clatskanie—Food products, box factory, fruit cannery, loganberry juice factory.

Enterprise—Sawmill, box factory, woolen mill, cheese factory.

Estacada—Box factory.

Freewater—Canning and drying plant.

Grants Pass—Opportunities for dairying industry on new irrigation system of 12,250 acres.

Harrisburg—Brick and tile works.

Hermiston—Laundry and cheese factory.

Joseph—Woolen mill.

Junction City—Laundry, La Pine—Creamery, box shock factory, brick kiln.

North Bend—Department store tannery, wood products factory, ash and door factory.

Redmond—Brick yard, shoe store, Reedsport—Hardwood mill, pulp mill, soft wood mill, cheese factory.

Roseburg—Sawmill, box factory, Toledo—Paper mill, cheese factory, fish cannery, fruit and vegetable cannery.

Umatilla—Hydroelectric power plant, bank, hardware store, Vernonia—Sawmill, bakery.

Springfield—Cannery.

GAUGE FACTORY STARTS PRODUCTION

A large lot of material needed for the completion of the Corsaw gas gauges has arrived.

To Contributors

The greater part of the 200 units have been subscribed for, but there is a large number to be disposed of.

It becomes necessary now for us to order more material; and as it comes from the east, and it will require from 75 to 85 days to bring it, we must hurry it up.

NEW SIDEWALK WEST OF BRIDGE

Injury to Woman Hastens Action on Dangerous Piece of Road

Two weeks ago, the News published an article concerning the dangerous condition of the stretch of road between the Willamette bridge and the crossing beyond.

A day or two later Howard M. Brownell, of Eugene, acting as an attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Collins, came over to investigate the walk and inquire into its history.

CLEANUP SQUADRON TO BE HERE NOV. 18

Ex-service men of Springfield and vicinity who have service claims of any kind against the government are to be given an opportunity to present their claims to direct government representatives when the Oregon cleanup squad of the United States Veteran's bureau, which is covering the state personally, to reach veterans who have claims, will be in Springfield November 18.

A C. Kinley, advance agent of the cleanup squad was in Springfield Tuesday evening to confer with local legion officials and with Miss Azile Howard, executive secretary of the Red Cross chapter in Eugene, relative to the coming visit of the squad.

A physician is included in the personnel of the squad for medical examination of claimants. In emergency cases he is authorized to order immediate hospitalization.

Men should bring their discharge certificates, or certified copies of same and any other papers which may have a connection with their claim.

Cliff Wood, who was here a year ago last July clearing up insurance applications for the Legion, is now a member of this squad and will meet with us the evening of November 18 at the W. O. W. hall.

Geo. A. Derflinger, of Eugene, died at McMinville, Oregon, Tuesday Oct. 26, aged 60.

The whipping claws of an infuriated lion brought death to a veteran of the arena but his daughter took the whip and lashed her beast around the ring.

