Quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist church next Wednesday evening. Dr. S. A. Danford, district superintendent, will preside.

They thought that they had trapped him—this man whom they hated and feared. But no. The flames of the burning vessel that roared at his back were no hotter than the flames of the wrath that surged within him as he crashed through the heavy oak panels of the cabin. "The Brute Master", at Hell, Saturday, December 24th.

We learn from the Oregonian's special Salem correspondence that Rev. J. W. Perkins is in charge of the information desk at the State house during the special session.

IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE

To seek happiness without giving is a futile quest.

Gift giving has become so well established that it is no longer a question of "Shall I Give", but it is solely a question of "What shall I Give?"

And our stock answers the question satisfactorily. We have a line of most suitable gifts and in the qualities wanted. Newness, beauty, usefulness, novelty etc., are some of the features of our goods which should appeal to every careful and discriminating buyer.

Bring your list to us.

There has been so much shopping in Eugene lately that most of the larger stores have employed special watchmen.

In Society

The Kensington Club met with Mrs. C. E. Swarts last Friday. A Christmas tree was the feature of the afternoon, from which each member received a present. Mrs. S. R. Dippel acted as Santa Claus. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served in keeping with the Christmas season. Mrs. C. A. Swarts was a guest of the club. Members present were Mesdames: Paul Basford, L. May, C. E. Wheaton, J. T. Moore, A. P. Morgan, S. R. Dippel, E. G. Sutton, J. E. Edwards, F. W. Roth, H. W. Whitney, Fred Bressler, Anna Knox, O. B. Kessey, Levi Neet, and Miss Edna Swarts. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Moore and Miss Morris on January 6.

Mrs. Carl Fisher, assisted by Mrs. F. B. Hamlin, were hostesses to the Needlecraft Club last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fisher in Eugene. The feature of the afternoon was the scheme for giving Christmas presents. Each one was given a string and which started in the hall, and was told to follow the string to the other end to obtain their present. The strings were woven about the house from upstairs to the basement. Another interesting game was the attempt of each guest, after being blindfolded, to pin the iron cross on Santa Claus in this game Mrs. W. H. Adrian was winner. Refreshments consisting of creamed crab on toast, French pastry, ice cream and coffee were served.

Invited guests were Mesdames: Glen Ward, Emma Ward, Copenhaver, and Arthur Ely, of Eugene. Members present were Mesdames:

N. W. Emery, A. F. McKenzie, W. H. Adrian, O. H. Jarrett, W. H. Poilard, T. D. Yarnes, Bob Drury, H. M. Stewart, Dan Crites, Herbert Walker, W. N. Long, W. H. Kileen, C. Olson, Martin Miller, S. R. Dippel and Miss Ella Boeson.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. O. H. Jarrett on January 5.

Misses Lucy and Myrtle Copenhaver, teachers in the Portland schools, are making a holiday visit with their mother and two sisters in Eugene.

HOW'S THIS?

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—cure Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh. We do not claim to cure any other disease.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a liquid, taken internally, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

All Druggists. Circulars free.
