Brief Digest of an Act Passed by Last Special Session

Providing for the supervision and regulation of the transportation of persons and property for compensation over any public highway by motor vehicles.

The new automotive legislation is interpreted as affecting all corporations, persons or companies owning, controlling, operating or managing any motor vehicle used in the business of transportation of persons or property for compensation over the public highways of the state, except on being made to such vehicles as operate exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town.

The public service commission, in its administration of the act, is authorized to supervise and regulate such features as rates, services and facilities from the standpoint of their reasonableness, safety and adequacy and to exercise jurisdiction in such matters affecting the relationship of such companies with the passenger and shipping public.

All companies or individuals subject to the act and engaged in the operation of this class of public transportation must first obtain from the commission a certificate or permit setting forth the terms and conditions covering such operations, also to file a surety bond or liability insurance and good faith undertaking. The maximum license fee is fixed at ten dollars per vehicle.

The necessary application blanks, including a request for pertinent data, accompanied by copies of the law, are furnished by the public service commission promptly upon request. The county clerks and county judges of the various counties have been supplied with copies of the new law for the information of the general public.

The commission requests the cooperation of the automotive industry and the general public in the introduction of and compliance with the new law in matter and spirit.

"DEKE" and "Emmie" Visit New H. S.

Joe Deak, student body president of old H. S., visited school Monday. Following the introduction in which Mr. Roth said Joe had drawn pictures of him on every door in the old building, "Deke" spilled one of his old time "hash lectures". After he had dished out all the hash he could think of he shifted his burden to Emma Travis, also a former member of S. H. S. She expressed her surprise at the number of new students and said she found it difficult to find her way about the new building.

Who Was the Surprise on?

A surprise party was planned by some of the High school students for Ivan Cowart at his home last Saturday. Ivan was not at home when the guests arrived, but Mrs. Cowart said she expected him any moment. They waited an hour or so and as Ivan had not yet returned they went ahead and had the party without him. When the guests left shortly after twelve o'clock Ivan had not made his appearance. "Where is my wandering boy tonight?"

Miss Parker returns to Springfield

The High school students were delightfully entertained by a few special numbers Monday afternoon. Miss Eunice Parker gave a few vocal selections.

She said she had expected to wander through the old halls of knowledge once more. You can imagine her surprise and delight at seeing the new High school building.

Who's the Poet.

Mary had a little lamb
But now that lamb is dead
But Mary takes him to school,
Between two hunks of bread.

The sophomores are going to have a masquerade party before very long. If excitement and interest can make anything successful this event should be a great success.

Springfield High school students are going to sit on the floor after this by the looks of things. They are moving the seats down to the auditorium.

Miss Meers was hoping the Christmas spirit would affect the sophomores and make them better, but she, we came back Monday, alas, her "see we" must surely be "strayed" far, they did forget for the worse.

General science class had a visitor Monday. Miss Williamson was very interested.

School by the abundance. If it ever ends we'll quit. But something very interesting happened today, we didn't have any Spanish.

Margaret Russell is spending most of her time talking to Ralph Cline, probably to make a news note for the "Tattler". It succeeded.

After the Christmas vacation the students have come back stuffed with candy, sweets and good times—in fact so stuffed that all knowledge and studiousness had been crowded out.

Mr. Roth, beware! Get your switches ready. Bernice Jacobsen has returned to school. We fear that young lady will resume her lawless ways, and wonder if tonalitis was the real reason for her absence. Perhaps she stayed out for fear her continued misbehavior would exclude her from Santa's list of good little girls.

This morning when the docks were being taken out of the sophomore room, part of the Sopha came into the freshman room. While they were there the room was presided over by a special teacher to keep down the noise.

Harry: "Do you know why I like to come to school?"

Hansel: "No."

Harry: "Just so I can be with you." Everybody was peacefully settled eating their lunch when Adelaide Greel entered the room and said, "Well you have all the chairs, guess I'll sit on the table."

Marlam: "If you do you will be an old maid."

Adelaide: "Oh! Don't worry, kid." We have noticed quite a change in Gerald since the new Vamp started to school.

Some of us met Clarence Powell going home this morning and we know why Audrey McPherson went to sleep in English class.

Science teacher: "Myrtle, what is thunder?"

Myrtle: "The lightning scares the clouds and makes them bump together and that is what makes the noise."

Belmont R: "Altee, why do you close your eyes when you shake your head?"

Altee M: "I have to to keep them from falling out."

We students were all very much surprised to see Winnie Long in such a very happy mood this morning. The mystery had been solved. George arrived last night.

Alice: "I hear you and Elmer fell out."

Charline: "Yes, we went canoeing and he insisted on paddling me."

Edna Davis had been trying to corner Ralph Cline since December 16, but it seems that Miss Greel keeps close watch.

Carl Lewis turned into a real ladies man. When any one asks where Carl is they answer, "he is where ever there is a bunch of girls."

Bright Junior: "Say, what type-writer has the same name as your neck?"

Freshman: "I don't know, why?"

B. J.: "Underwood."

Three seniors have become quite aged for we hear of them coming up from town Tuesday with candy canes.

"Father, what are ancestors?"

Asked Kenneth Roth.

"Well, my son, I am one of yours, and your grandfather is another."

"Then why do people brag about them so much?"

Folly Driscoll always asks Dot Ditto for the mail from Myrtle Point. We wonder why.

Tom Brattain was seen standing on the corner of 4th and C for one hour Monday evening waiting for.....? We wonder who?

"Do your specs magnify, grandma?" asked Helvin Deane.

"Yes liddle; why do you ask?"

"Will you please take them off while you cut my piece of cake?"

Who wrote this crazy thing?

Dear Miss Tattler—

I am a little girl eleven years and I am in love with Ivan Cowart. He is a great, big, noble gentleman, and I think he likes me too. Shall I accept his love or not? Mamma objects to him, so we have planned to elope, would this be wise?

Little Anxious 11.

Miss Eunice Parker of Portland was a caller at the J. J. Bryan home Monday. Miss Parker formerly lived in Springfield.
