

THE SPRINGFIELD NEWS

Published Every Thursday at Springfield, Lane County, Oregon, by
FREELAND & HENDERSON

Entered at the Postoffice at Springfield, Oregon, as Second-class Matter, February 24, 1903.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One Year .....	$1.50	Three Months .....	.50c
Six Months .....	.75c	Single Copy .....	5c
One Year, When paid in Advance .....	$1.25

The first installment of a two-number story, written by a high school student, was handed in at the News office yesterday, with other high school matter for publication. Upon due consideration, we felt that the obligation of the News to the community required us to withhold it from publication for the present. Any patron of the school may examine it; and if the judgements of those who see it generally differ from ours, we will waive our scruples. It is a story of the slums, and is entitled "Jerry".

By agreement between the speaker of the house and those having charge of the bill, it is expected that the new soldiers' bonus bill will be brought before the house of representatives today under a suspension of the rules. Under this procedure, a two-thirds vote will be required to pass it. The prospect of the passage of the bill seems good. After that, the senate, and then the president.

Former Governor and former Senator Chamberlain publishes a denial of the report that he expects to be a candidate for governor of Oregon. He is a member of the federal shipping board, and thinks he can serve Oregon and the country better there.

A convention of the State Hotel association, a body of about 100 men, was held in Portland this week, and drafted a constitutional amendment, to be submitted to the voters this fall, providing for the appointment of members of the public service commission by the governor, instead of election by the people.

Last week we advertised for spring poetry. The poem printed elsewhere in this issue, the work of a Springfield poetess, was the prompt reply, received Monday morning. Do not say that advertising in The News does not bring results. That call brought the poetry. Whether it will bring the spring or not this note is written too far in advance of the hour of going to press to predict. Three hours is far enough ahead to risk a reputation on a prediction on Oregon weather.

A train carrying 1100 soldiers from the American army of occupation on the Rhine left Coblenz last Saturday, on the homeward journey. There are now something over 2000 American soldiers left in Germany. The president has issued an order that this remnant shall be recalled, in detachments, before July 1st. Apart from all questions of international policy, every true American will be glad when the last one of them has been landed on American soil. And every one of us would be glad to know that the time will never come again when American soldiers shall be called to go abroad on such an errand.

The validity of the Oregon capital punishment law was brought before the state supreme court on an application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Elvie D. Kerby, one of the men convicted of the murder of sheriff Taylor, of Umatilla county. The contention was that the legislature exceeded its authority in submitting to the people a proposal for restoration of the law after it had been abolished by a vote of the people. The supreme court, on Tuesday, rendered a decision sustaining the validity of the law. The execution of seven or eight condemned men, including Dr. Brumfield and the murderers of Taylor, had been suspended until this case was passed upon by the court. This means that they will hang.

FAX REDUCTION PROGRAM

A convention of tax reduction clubs of the state, after a stormy session in Portland this week adopted a program recommending the repeal of the millage tax for the support of the state educational institutions, and opposing the following measures:

- The paying of more than $5000 to any official of the state government.
- The educating at state ex-

THE PRESCRIPTION AND THE PATIENT

When your physician writes a prescription for you or some member of your family, he has his patient's welfare in mind. The value of the medicine which is to be given does not depend upon the price, but upon the good which it will accomplish.

Your physician's wishes and the patient's welfare will both be conserved if we do the compounding. Pure ingredients and scientific methods insure right results.

We guarantee purity, accuracy and reasonable prices
Let us fill your next Prescription

Phone 31

pense of men studying law or medicine.

Any further bond issues.
Appropriation of state money for armories, or of more than $25,000 for the national guard.
Appropriation of state money for the support of the Pacific Livestock exposition.

Appropriation of state money for the Northwest Tourists association.
Appropriation of state money for the commercial fish commission.

The paying of bounty for the killing of predatory animals.
The convention favored the cabinet form of government for the state, the heads of departments to be appointed by the governor, to be subject to removal by him or recall by the people.

WORK'S TRIBUTE TO HAYS

The new postmaster general, Hubert Work, formerly first assistant, pays a high tribute to his predecessor, through the daily Postal Bulletin, which is circulated among the post-offices. We make these extracts:

"The impression his personality has made on the morale of the postal employees has been unprecedented, and it has been altogether for good."

"Humanizing the service" was merely the voicing of a wish, and the kindness which is in all of us to some degree, responded to it. It was the impulse of a kind heart, an expression of that intangible thing called the common touch which makes the whole world akin; and the letter is now put in the box and not thrown at the door."

"Nature has endowed him with the intuition of a woman, the initiative of the inventor, the heart of a wholesome boy and the judgement of a man—traits that have endeared him to all of us who served under him."

"Mr. Hays set up new ideals for a postal service. They have been approved by the American people, and, as his successor in office, it will be my purpose to give substance to his vision."

WANTED, A CANDIDATE

As the campaign of 1922 gets under way a perplexity confronts the Democratic party. Not only must Democracy demonstrate to the country that it has the vitality to recover from the

In Society

The Chrysanthemum club met last week, March 15, with Mrs. J. J. Bryan. Not much sewing, but a great deal of visiting whittled the time away.

The decorations were all in green, in honor of St. Patrick. Small shamrocks were used as place cards, and the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Henry Adrian.

Club members present: Meadamer, F. A. De Pue, T. L. Lucky, of Eugene, J. E. Stewart, J. A. Seavey, A. J. Perkins, Kenneth Ables and the hostess. Guests: Mesdames Henry Adrian, Grace Roberts, Henry Korf, Clark Wheaton and Riley Snodgrass.

A number of friends of Dr. and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel gathered at the home of Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Saturday evening, and went in a body to the former's home, to surprise Mrs. Dippel, the occasion being her birthday. Cards and conversation were the pastimes until a late hour, when a delicious community lunch was served set back of 1920, but it must find in the elections next November a standard bearer of presidential size for 1924. Its White House hopes largely rest upon the rise to prominence this year of some strong man in a doubtful state who may demonstrate the qualities of leadership and a vote-getting ability in a successful gubernatorial campaign. The two democratic presidents since the civil war—Cleveland and Wilson—found their political opportunities in state capitals, not in Washington.

Of the 25 men who have been president of the United States, no less than eighteen came into party leadership through service in congress, and of these, Andrew Jackson, William Henry Harrison, John Tyler, Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan and Andrew Johnson served in both the house and the senate. James Madison, James K. Polk, Millard Fillmore, Abraham Lincoln, Rutherford B. Garfield and William McKinley were graduates of that great school of political experience, the house of representatives, while James Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Martin Van Buren, Benjamin Harrison and Warren G. Harding were senators before being president. John Quincy Adams served a long period in the house after leaving the presidency and Garfield enjoyed the distinction of being a representative in congress, senator-elect and president-elect at the same time.

Of the ten presidents who did not come up from the political ranks through congress, George Washington, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson went directly into the executive service upon the establishment of the present government. Zachary Taylor and Ulysses S. Grant were soldiers and Theodore Roosevelt a soldier-statesman-governor, a unique figure. William H. Taft gained his reputation in the cabinet. Great significance attaches to the large proportion of presidents who won their spurs in the legislative branch.

It is not in either senate or house, as at present constituted, however, that the democratic party in all probability will look for a national candidate two years hence. Democratic leadership in the house is virtually wholly Southern. No especial political availability distinguishes any figure in the senate. For this reason the politicians of this party will search the horizon in those pivotal states which elect governors this year in which the democracy may have a fighting chance to win. The lists of such states is not large. Fortune may attend the rising of the star of some new candidate for congress.

YOU ALWAYS HAVE TO PAY

Whether you get your business education at some regular institution, or through the school of experience and hard knocks, you have to pay for it. The latter is mighty expensive both as to time and money, often being at the sacrifice of health and happiness.

All the time that you are learning in this way you are working under a great handicap, and often you have to pass up splendid opportunities because of the lack of the necessary business education. Our school year is divided into four terms of three months each. Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter.

Invest in a two cent stamp, or buy a postal card; ask for our catalog; read it over and then—ENROLL.

Eugene Business College
A. E. ROBERT, President
EUGENE OREGON

Don't Forget Now

That it always pays to say NOXALL when ordering Poultry or dairy feeds from your dealer.

NOXALL feeds are scientifically mixed feeds, formulated to bring the best results for local conditions—they are pure feeds.

NOXALL feeds have got to bring results—they are made that way.

At Your Dealer

SPRINGFIELD MILL AND GRAIN COMPANY

by the ladies. After the lunch things were cleared away, rugs were rolled back, and to the music of a one-piece orchestra the guests tripped the light fantastic.

Those who helped Mrs. Dippel celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Seavey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paine, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Elza Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. DePue, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Roberts and Messrs. Mark Peery, Welby Stevens and Gas Washburne.

The Needlecraft club met on Thursday of last week with Mrs. Carl Olsen. The decorations were in green, in honor of St. Patrick's day. There was a luncheon served at the end of the afternoon, and the green color scheme was carried out here also, the cake being adorned with shamrocks.

The members present were: Mesdames Carl Fischer, M. Martin, H. E. Walker, T. D. Yarnes, R. L. Drury, O. H. Jarrett, W. H. Adrian, W. H. Pollard, W. F. Walker, R. P. Mortensen, Wm. Killeen and S. R. Dippel. Mrs. Harry Whitney was the guest of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Pollard, on April 5.

Among those attending the Ladies of Elks club, at Eugene, Wednesday afternoon, were Mesdames A. J. Perkins, J. E. Stewart, J. E. Cross, Ben Skinner, Riley Snodgrass and J. J. Bryan.

The Kensington needle club was very pleasantly entertained on March 10 by Mrs. Paul Basford. Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Neet and Mrs. Basford delightfully entertained the club with several selections on the piano. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Levi Neet. Mrs. L. E. Basford was the guest of the club. Members present were: Mesdames, Levi Neet, Henry Korf, John Edwards, Elza Sutton, M. C. Bressler, L. May, Anna Knox, O. B. Kessey, C. E. Wheaton, A. J. Morgan, Harry Whitney, Miss Swarts and the hostess.

The club will meet Friday, March 24 with Mrs. Harry Whitney.

There was a very pleasant meeting of the Priscilla club at the home of Mrs. N. L. Howard last Friday afternoon. The hostess' mother, Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. I. Casteel were guests of the club.

The following members were present: Mesdames A. J. Morgan, L. E. Basford, I. D. Larimer, T. V. Henderson, Paul Basford, Wm. Donaldson, Riley Snodgrass, J. H. Seavey, John Tomseth, James Withrow, and H. B. Freeland.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Plans are under way to complete the St. Helens-Pittsburg market road. Reedsport—Winchester Bay Lumber company is extending their logging railroad.

Dallas.—The stock is all subscribed for the $25,000 cannery.

Pilot Rock is getting a double modern fireproof business building.

PIE SOCIAL

METHODIST CHURCH

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

SUPPORT YOUR BASKETBALL TEAM

The Pneumonia Month

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. Children take it willingly.

$20 a Pound for California Rooster

Miss Marie Arfsten saw "Mike," a white leghorn rooster, at the cockerel show in Petaluma, Calif., and she decided then and there she must have him for her poultry ranch. So she bid up to $182.50 and got him, top price for nine pounds of fowl meat.

Butter Wrappers

Printed on Saturday for only $1 per 100

To those who wish to subscribe to The News for one year we make an offer of $1 for Saturday only

THE SPRINGFIELD NEWS, Phone 2

FORD AUTHORIZED SERVICE

Get our prices on repair work. Competent mechanics and complete shop equipment, prepared to repair any make of automobile.

We service any make of battery

We sell GOODYEAR, U. S., PENNSYLVANIA, GOODRICH and LEE TIRES. Get our prices. We can save you money.

Springfield Garage

Phone 11

4th & Main