Senorita Cuevas Speaks to Spanish Classes

Senorita Cuevas, instructress in the first and fourth year Spanish at the university, spoke to the Spanish classes last Thursday. Her parents were both Spaniards but Miss Cuevas was born in South America. She speaks with a marked foreign accent. The pupils seemed more interested in Spain than South America, so she told them of the Spanish universities she had visited. Everyone was greatly pleased with her address and hope they may have her speak to them again.

Lucile Fritz, who has been absent on account of serious illness, has returned to school.

Since Abbie and Adelaide have had their hair bobbed, the pupils of the school have had quite a bit to say. Some say that Adelaide looks the best and others that Abbie the best. The boys don't have any thing to say about it because they wonder what in the world is coming next.

Who will get Melvin's ring next?

Agnes wore it for a while, now Abbie has it.

Things we would like to know— Why Horace talks to himself so much?

What Ona had up her sleeve?

What Lola called Charley's car?

Who Alice T. was with Friday night?

What happened to the ancient history class Friday?

What kind of a set Esther L. is going to have in her ring?

Where three of the bookkeeping girls are to get horses to go horse-bark riding Sunday?

I wonder what's the matter with the seniors? They first wanted a long play, they got it; and then they didn't want it. They got a short play and still they said "I can't be in it." "I don't want to be in it." "I don't like it." I don't believe they really know what they want.

Dear little Mattie had been worrying so about the senior play that we soon will be without her. That's just like seniors anyway. "The dignified infants."

REPUBLICANS!

Shall Oregon continue to hold the pre-eminence that is now hers? Shall she forge ahead as a leader in the Republican party?

Answer "Yes"—Vote for Ralph E. Williams for Republican National Committeeman

In the presidential election of 1916 when there was dissension and division everywhere, Oregon was the only state west of the Missouri river to go Republican. Harmony!

Progressives and Republicans united in giving credit for this remarkable achievement to Ralph E. Williams, national committeeman since 1908.

In recognition of this and other services Ralph Williams was elected vice-chairman, the second highest honor within the power of the Republican National Committee to bestow. It is a position of influence to be reached only by years of faithful and intelligent service.

Ralph Williams is the first committeeman representative from any western state to be elected to the vice-chairmanship.

Ralph Williams is a veteran of the national organization. He stands at the head with the leaders. A new man would, of custom and necessity, stand at the foot with the followers.

Republican leaders, in Congress and out, are Ralph Williams' friends. This friendship means much to Oregon and to the Northwest. Without ostentation Ralph Williams enlists the aid of these leaders for the things the Northwest needs from the national government.
