TOWN AND VICINITY

The breaches in the pavement made in connecting the street car line at Third street have been closed up. The railroad track has been newly planked between the rails and planks have been laid inside the rails of the street car track; and both tracks have been treated with a surfacing of asphalt and fine crushed rock.

spent half of a two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Holverson, and other relatives.

Benjie Endicott, of Vancouver, Washington, arrived last night for a visit with his granddaughter, Mrs. Holverson.

Jack London presents the mystery of a man conscious of facts which will free him from suspicion, yet unaware that he is conscious of them. See "The Star Rover" at the Bell Theatre next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold, of Shedd, and their daughter, Viola, drove up last Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Del Hinson, and their new granddaughter, Miss Viola will remain with Mrs. Hinson for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, members of an excursion party now touring the Pacific coast, spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Rebhan. Mr. Brown is a cousin of Mrs. Rebhan. The tour is made under the auspices of a realty board in Chicago, of which Mr. Brown is a member. The object is to look up various kinds of business locations for eastern inquiries.

W. O. W. meets every Tuesday evening at W. O. W. hall.

Dr. Rebhan expects his new home to be so far completed that he and Mrs. Rebhan can occupy it by the 20th or soon after. There has seemed to be rather a close race between his house and Lawrence May's; but the doctor's house seems to be like the Canadian's dog. A friend answered his inquiry about his dog: "Yes' seed a dog an' a b'ar goin' over the hill. The dog wer' a leetle ahead."

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Stevens, who have been living at Marcola, since the first of the year, moved their household goods up last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennerly, of Leaburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Al Montgomery.

Mrs. Harry Stewart's uncle, Mr. Frank Boutin has been looking after his timber interests at Coos Bay. He and his family plans on touring the West in his car this fall.

Dr. S. Ralph Dipple, dentist, Springfield, Oregon.

Virgil Casteel's house, on South G street, has lately been reroofed.

Otto Whittenberger, who recently bought the Daniel Spencer tract, in the rear of the Glenwood schoolhouse is building a new house on the site of the old one.

The improvements on the Hansen camp, across the river, are not going forward very rapidly. The store building, near the highway, which was commenced something like a month ago, is not finished yet. It is reported that Mr. Hansen has been hindered by the difficulty of making satisfactory terms for electric lighting. The number of campers has not yet been very large.

W. O. W. meets every Tuesday evening at W. O. W. hall.

A. F. Neet is building a considerable addition to the north side of his residence, on the northwest corner of 8th and B streets.

F. M. Bench commenced last week the building of a dwelling for himself and family in the north side of C street, between Sixth and Seventh. He is doing the work himself. He was tired of paying rent. The house will be a story and a half, with six rooms below and two above. It will have a concrete foundation.

Will Rogers in "A Poor Relation," is an equal to The Kid. This picture will be at the Bell Theatre next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lorah enjoyed a few days of camping and fishing at Pokey Springs last week. They went up Thursday and returned Sunday.

A band of gypsies, in two automobiles halted in the south part of town, Monday, and ranged about town for a few hours. "Beggars on horseback" are old-fashioned and out of date.

Above a summary of Junction City's needs, in the Times of last week, appeared these headlines: "What Junction City needs; a square deal and other things." That is what Springfield needs too, especially the "other things".

The Eugene Business college will continue in session through the summer without vacation.

Rev. Gordon Griffin preached at the Baptist church both morning and evening last Sunday. He is to preach there next Sunday evening.

A surface of small crushed rock is being laid on the grade on both sides of the overhead bridge at McVey's Point. It will be rolled and left in shape for a year or two. The railing on the grade is of 8x8 posts, planted four feet in the ground and four feet above, with two 2x8 rails.

Before the forenoon sermon at the Methodist church last Sunday, nine young persons were baptized by affusion. These and four others were then received into the church. The sermon was in part an address to those who had been received.

Merl Lee, who lives with his parents near the Glenwood schoolhouse, sustained a severe injury to his left eye something like two weeks ago. He was drawing a cotter key with a pair of pliers, in overhauling a truck, and the pliers slipped and struck the eye. The doctor required him to keep the good eye covered for six days, to give the injured eye time to

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull, and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these Tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Nature's Most Wonderful Laboratory and Out-of-Door Paradise

The wildest geysers in the world, dancing amid thousands of boiling springs, their basins arrayed in gorgeous colors like gigantic flowers.

Here, too, are hills of sparkling crystals, hills of sulphur, hills of glass, mountains of every style of architecture, icy or frosted, mountains boiled soft like potatoes and colored like a sunset sky.—John Muir, the great naturalist
