Local Chamber of Commerce informed on Stand Taken in Unomer Case

A letter has been received by the leaders of the local Chamber of Commerce indicating that the public service committee is in favor of the proposal for the establishment of a local board of trade. The committee has taken no definite stand as to the desirability of the measure, as it is to be submitted to the public service commission in due time.

Coronet

Cinderella, paid the electric company $8.50

The company made a final statement that the payment had been received, and that the account is closed.

In the matter of the petition for the incorporation of a local board of trade, the company has been informed that the petition has been filed.

Next Parent Teacher Meeting is Dec. 22

The next regular meeting of the Parent Teacher Association will be held on Friday, December 22, in the evening. All parents are invited to attend and participate in the discussion of the important matters of the school.

High School Gives Three ACT Comedy

"When a Man's Young," a sparkling act comedy of three acts, was presented at the high school on Saturday evening. The play was directed by Mr. E. M. Bowre, the head of the drama department, and was produced by a local company of actors.

Springfield Newsroom

The newsroom of the Springfield Newsroom was cleaned and rearranged this week. The new arrangement provides more space for the reporters and editors, and is generally considered an improvement over the old setup.

Catholic Chapel Dedication

A special meeting of the local chamber of commerce was held for the purpose of dedicating the new Catholic Chapel. The dedication was held on Thursday, December 14, and was attended by a large number of local dignitaries and business men.

Local Tots Will Have Real Xmas

A big "bonnet-and-floral" theme will be given to the children of the local tots this Christmas. The theme will be "The Three Wise Men." The tots will be given presents in the form of gifts and cards, and will be entertained by the members of the local chapter of the Salvation Army.

Three Big Plays to Be Held During Week

The plays program at the local theater is one of the best ever presented in the city of Springfield, and is eagerly awaited by the local theater goers. The three big plays to be presented this week are: "The Three Wise Men," "The Three Little Pigs," and "The Three Little Hares." The plays will be given at the local theater on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, respectively.