

We the merchants and professional men of Springfield, extend to our customers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We wish to thank you for your patronage during the past, and hope to be able to serve you to the best of our ability in the new year. May health, happiness, and plenty be among your gifts to brighten not only the Christmas season, but every day of your life. To those people of Springfield who may not be listed among our customers, we also wish to extend the season's greetings together with a wish for happiness and prosperity in the future. :: ::
