James Laxton left last Friday, by auto, for Los Angeles, California, for an indefinite stay. Mr. Laxton recently returned from a trip to Honolulu and California, and he says while he doesn't care much for the Islands, he considers southern California a paradise, especially in the winter. He was accompanied on his trip this time by W. C. Martin, a tailor who came here from Texas about a year ago, and conducted a cleaning and pressing establishment for a time in the Fry-Rankin building. Mr. Martin is looking for a location and Mr. Laxton is very much interested in the oil wells about Los Angeles. A card was received Monday by Mr. Laxton's son Walter, saying they had reached Red Bluffs Saturday, and expected to drive into San Francisco the following day.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald and sister, Mrs. Spencer, are spending a couple of weeks visiting relatives in Portland and other points north.

Mrs. H. L. Travers, of Portland, is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Ada McPherson, having arrived last Friday. Mrs. Travers is also disposing of some real estate in Eugene while here.

Wayne Walker, of Oakridge, was here over the week end with relatives, returning home on Monday's train. While down he bargained for one of the new Star cars to be delivered on May 1st.

FOR RENT—An unfurnished house. Apply at News. tfo
