Editor Springfield News:
 Please give me a little space in your paper relative to Dr. Kellom's sermon at Eugene last Monday night against Divine Healing.
 Mr. Kellom is a fine speaker, and a very brilliant man mentally, but I must say that I never heard the Bible twisted like he did.
 I have hired the Bell theatre, and will reply to Dr. Kellom on next Monday night, February 28, at 7:30 p. m.
 In my reply I will use verse of scripture on each and every point he tried to make.
 Good singing and some special songs. It's free, so come and hear it. You will at least enjoy the singing.
 Yours truly,
 A. A. ANDERSON

J. W. Neet, of West Springfield, received word a day or two ago that his son, Elmer Neet, and wife, lost all of their personal and household effects, except the clothing they had on, by the burning of the house in which they lived, at Cottage Grove, Monday night. Mr. Neet is a planer foreman at a sawmill there.

Mrs. Vina McLean has sold her home on E street, between First and Second, to W. P. Tyson. She is remodeling her residence property on Sixth street between B and C, and will occupy it soon. She is building a kitchen and a toilet and bath room in the rear of the house and a wood-house in the rear of that. The whole roof is being renewed. M. J. McKlin is in charge of the work. This is the first considerable improvement in the residence line we have noted in Springfield in 1923.
