

TOWN AND VICINITY

Street Commissioner Donaldson and his chief assistant have repaired the broken walks at the angles of the intersection of Mill and A streets. Complaint had been made to him that a man whose nerves were a little unsteady—who did not have his son legs, so to speak—was in danger of his life every time he attempted to navigate that crossing without a pilot.

A. A. Anderson had a good audience at the Bell theatre, Monday night, to hear his address in reply to some statements of Rev. Jesse Kellems, in his revival work in Eugene, regarding divine healing. The response to Mr. Anderson's propositions at the close, satisfied him that the audience was generally well pleased with his address. For other reasons, he thinks he will not take this matter up in debate again.

A jazz concert, the first of its kind in the season of 1923, was held along the banks of the Willamette river, about the head of the big bar, last Thursday evening. It was free. Perhaps this ought to go in the society column.

Miss Lucile Smith came up from Linslaw, where she is teaching, to spend the weekend with her father and her young friends here.

Several cases which the grand jury had passed up to the circuit court have been postponed for several days on account of the sickness of witnesses.

Steve Bowles was down from his Oakridge ranch two or three days in the middle of this week, for the first time since September.

L. C. Helmer moved his shoe repair shop, Monday, from the room west of The News, in the Stevens building, to the Beals building, in the rear of Ketel's drug store, lately occupied as a warehouse by the Farmers' Exchange.

Wm. Van Duyn, a long-time resident of Coburg, dropped dead on the street in that town Tuesday afternoon. Death was supposed to have resulted from heart disease. Mr. Van Duyn was about 80 years old. He was born in Wisconsin.

Mrs. H. E. Holverson entertained at dinner, Sunday, her three daughters and their families: Mrs. Endicott, who is here on her way to California; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roberts, of Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Herrick, of Eugene were guests of the afternoon.

The family of Dolph Davey have moved to the James Clark hop ranch near Goshen.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Lamberty, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis, drove up from Albany, and spent the day in Springfield with relatives, returning in the late afternoon to their home town.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, Dentist, Vitus building, Springfield, Oregon.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald and her sister, Mrs. Spencer, have returned from a two week visit in Portland and Washington, with relatives.

Mrs. Henry Nestle has been ill for several days, but is somewhat better.

Mrs. Jesse Nesbit left Sunday evening for Wendling on the train, to visit a few days with the family of Bert Nesbit.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, Dentist, Vitus building, Springfield, Oregon.

The Baptist church trustees have had a survey made preparatory to putting in a cement walk in the front of the church and parsonage on Second street. They may decide to have the walk on the north side of the church laid at this time also. The Ladies' Aid are having some cabinet work placed in the basement of the church this week. M. Buley is doing the work.

SOUND REASON SHOULD BE APPLIED TO THE TREATMENT OF RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is usually caused by uric acid or other poisons which enter the blood. It is therefore reasonable to treat from within. The mere rubbing of something on the skin cannot reach the source.

DR. HOBSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND overcomes rheumatism in the common sense way, that is, by removing the cause. It eliminates the poison from the blood and removes the deposits already existing in the joints and tissues.
