C. O. Wilson, the superintendent of the wood-treating plant, was called to Detroit, Oregon, last Saturday, by a telegram from his wife. Her father, W. H. Riddell had been prostrated by a stroke of paralysis. He died that day. He was nearly 74 years old.

J. W. Baker came up from North Bend Tuesday. He is manager of a large laundry there, with about 30 employees. The proprietor noticed that the work was falling on him and suggested that he take a few days vacation. He will probably go back the first of next week.

Starting Sunday, March 25th, I will have high class Rhode Island White baby chicks for sale. M. Buley S. 2nd, Springfield, Oregon.

John Malosh and Fred Barnard have been at work the past two days screening the windows of the gymnasium on the side towards the playground.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, Dentist, Vitus building, Springfield, Oregon.

Mrs. Laura Hughes, of Brownsville, eldest daughter of Mrs. B. Beckett, of this city, dropped in at the Beckett home Tuesday evening, on her way to Mabel. Her son, Robert Hughes, who has been in the employ of the Coast Range Lumber company, at Mabel, for several years, suffered severe injuries about the face, about a month ago, by the unexpected explosion of a charge of dynamite. His mother was notified that he was about to undergo an operation for appendicitis, and she was going to Mabel to care for his children.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kanaki, Sunday the 8th.

LEPLEY-HOLVERSON

Wilbur J. Lepley and Mrs. Hannah E. Holverson were married Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. A. G. Sater.

When Mr. Lepley came back from California, the last time, he told us he was coming to be near his mother as much as possible, and at her special request; and all his friends were praising him for this fine example of filial devotion. But whether mother or wife is the object, such an exhibition of affection is always beautiful and inspiring.

Another couple of Springfield's young people were married on Sunday April 15, the bride being Miss Crystal Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Templeton, of Brownsville, at whose home the ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Tinkham, of Corvallis. The groom was Ivan Male, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Male, of Springfield. Miss Templeton was a teacher for two years in the Lincoln school, but this year was attending the Normal at Monmouth, having finished her term there in March. The young couple have started house-keeping in the Seavey apartments over the Bell theatre, where they will be at home to their many friends.

The members of the Methodist choir, with two others, companions of members, thirteen in all, went out in autos to the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. McElhane, Tuesday evening, for a social time; planned and carried out as a surprise. The original idea was a celebration of Mrs. McElhane's birthday, but it was not carried out until several days after the birthday was past. Music and conversation were the principal features of the occasion.

Mrs. Hazel Stewart was the charming hostess for the Chrysanthemum Club last Wednesday afternoon. The coming of springtime made itself felt by the large bowls of snapdragons and sweet peas which were in profusion about the rooms. At the close of a delightful afternoon, a dainty two-course luncheon was served. The

MAN GIVES WIFE GLYCERINE MIXTURE

She had stomach trouble for years. After giving her simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, her husband says: "My wife feels fine now and has gained weight. It is wonderful stomach medicine." Adler-ka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing foul matter which poisoned stomach and which you never thought was in your system. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or chronic constipation. Guards against appendicitis. The impurities it brings out will surprise you. Flanery's Drug Store, Springfield, Oregon.

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and told him to use it freely." says C. P. Rayder, Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment; I want it in the house all the time for it cured me."

Preventative Medicine

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. Pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or attack of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the cold hangs on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.

more gasoline mileage with Zerolene

Few motorists would willingly pay fancy prices for oil if they knew what we know about Zerolene, which sells for about half the price of many other oils.

Zerolene, made from selected Naphthenic-Base Crude and vacuum-distilled by our exclusive process, stands up better and gives better, continuous lubrication than any oil we have seen and tested or been able to produce.

One of the best proofs of this is, that a car lubricated with Zerolene averages 5% better in gasoline mileage than a car lubricated with other oils, as shown by repeated laboratory tests. Even more important, Zerolene will run a car from 25% to 50% farther before carbon-removing operations are required.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less. Consult our Correct Lubrication Chart to determine the correct oil for your car.
