turns from the tourist business will have outstripped the returns from our other important industries, except our major industries of lumber, field agriculture and transportation. "My conviction is that the money spent by the tourist is distributed more generally and more evenly through the channels of trade than the returns from any of our other basic industries."

Are Your Valuable Papers Safe?

Most every man has a little collection of documents which money could not buy or replace. No matter how well they may be hidden from thieves or prowlers, how well are they hidden from fire?

The modern vaults of the safe deposit department of the First National are as perfectly equipped for safety as is possible to make them—and the price is surprisingly small.
