PLEASANT HILL

Very attractive cards picturing a young girl and young man and a diamond ring have been received from Flagstaff, Arizona, by many friends of Miss Elta Bristow announcing her engagement to Charles Parnell Mason. Miss Bristow is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bristow of Pleasant Hill. She is a graduate of the Pleasant Hill high school and the State Normal school and has been a very successful teacher in the Pleasant Hill schools until last fall when she accepted a position in the schools of Flagstaff, Arizona. The wedding will take place some time next June.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Linton are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy born Friday, February 22. Mr. and Mrs. Linton now have five boys and two girls.

Mrs. W. L. Bristow of Pleasant Hill entertained Mrs. Herman Knutson, Mrs. R. J. English and Mrs. Hyde for the day Thursday, February 21. An elaborate dinner was served at noon and the afternoon spent in making quilts for Miss Elta Bristow, a summer bride-to-be. Friday Mrs. Bristow had as her guests Mrs. Truman Robb and Mrs. Edwards of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanchett of Albany were at Pleasant Hill Saturday visiting their niece, Miss Bertha Manning.

Miss Anna Latten of Pleasant Hill attended the program and pie social at Cloverdale Saturday night.

Mrs. Robert Mooney and infant son having been dismissed from the Goshen hospital have returned to their home in Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh and family, who have been living on the Tilton ranch since last spring, moved to Eugene the past week. Mr. Walsh has accepted a position with the highway commission.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hills and family and Mrs. Tilton and son Earl have moved on the Tilton place at Pleasant Hill. Mrs. Hills is a daughter of Mrs. Tilton.

Pleasant Hill High School Notes
The students of the Pleasant Hill high school Tuesday, February 19, completed their campaign for getting subscriptions to the Country Gentleman, the Spark Plugs beating the Barney Googles 61 to 53, the total number of subscriptions secured being 114 which brings the students $57. Cora Olson of Edenvale won first prize and Mildred Morningstar of Enterprise the second prize for the most subscriptions secured by the girls. Joe Walker and Berry Mauney of Trent won first and second prizes among the boys. The prizes were fountain pens. As the Spark Plugs won the race it is the duty of the Barney Googles to entertain them. This will be done by a hard time party Friday, February 29. The following students went from the Pleasant Hill high school Thursday to Corvallis to attend the high school conference held Friday and Saturday: Chester Wheeler, Kay Olsen, Lawrence Dilley, Eugene Knowles and Orval Gulley.

The freshmen of the Pleasant Hill high school are planning on giving a reception to the upper classmen and sophomores in the early part of March. This is in return for the reception given to them by the upper classmen in the fall.

The Goshen Dramatic club which is meeting with much success staged a very entertaining comedy Friday evening, "Oh, Doctor." The cast of characters were:

- Doc Quack ..... Howard Merriam
- Sam Green ..... Oren Carmony
- Birmingham Brown ..... Herman Delp
- Atlanta White ..... Mac Edmondson
- Hannibal Gray ..... Carl Lowry
- Arabelle Snow ..... Charles Cox
- Norfolk Black ..... David Calvert

Hannah Squash ..... Glen Walker
Music furnished by the Moxley orchestra was much enjoyed by those present.

The pupils of Cloverdale public school gave an interesting and entertaining program Saturday, February 23, followed by a pie social. The proceeds of the social will be put toward paying for the playshed at the school. The following children entered the boys beat the high school girls at a game of baseball Friday afternoon by a score of 19 to 7.

The following children entered the public school at Pleasant Hill Monday, February 25: Roberta Lawson, Rubina Lawson, Jessie Lawson, Virgil Hills and Vida Hills.
