EGGMANN'S VISITING AT MANY PLACES IN EAST

Mayor and Mrs. Charles F. Eggmann, who left some time ago for an extended trip through the east, have been visiting at Ossian, Indian, where they have been extensively entertained. Over 50 relatives attended a reunion at the home of mayor Eggmann's sister at that place. The mayor and his wife visited at Detroit, where they saw the big league baseball games and watched the work of Ty Cobb and Babe Ruth. They visited Mr. Eggmann's brother, who is a lawyer, at Ft. Wayne, Indian, and revisited all the old landmarks of the places where the mayor spent his boyhood. They are now on their way home via New Orleans and California, and expect to be here before October 14.

Shower for Miss Weddle.
Miss Elsie Weddle, bride-elect, was honor guest at a shower given last evening at the home of Mrs. Dan W. Crites with Mrs. Crites and Mrs. Carl Olson as hostesses. A two-course luncheon was served, and the guests catted and played "500." Miss Weddle was presented with a pastel, a gift of those present. Much fun was supplied by a shower bouquet of vegetables given to the bride-to-be, with small gifts fastened to each vegetable, such as an egg-beater, and the like. With each gift was a humorous verse.

Those present included, besides the guest of honor and the hostesses: Mrs. O. B. Kessey, Mrs. John F. Ketels, Mrs. Harry W. Whitney, Mrs.

Levi H. Neet, Mrs. Lida MacGowan, Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, and Miss Lottie Whittaker.
Reception for Pastor.
A reception was held last evening in the Methodist church for the new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. K. Moore, late of Klamath Falls, as well as for the new teachers and members of the church. Mrs. J. T. Moore was chairman of the entertainment committee.
