The Lane county court has authorized a concrete jail at Oakridge. The Southern Pacific will share in the expense.

Grove Orchard community near McMinnville has purchased a building which will be remodeled into a community hall.

Several roads near Albany were flooded by the high water last week and travel in nearly every direction from Albany was restricted.

With a desire to study floral questions and beautify Tillamook, a group of people interested in flowers have organized the Tillamook Floral club.

Two women and one man, students at Oregon Agricultural college, were dismissed by college authorities for alleged participation in liquor parties.

George O. Knowles was elected mayor of Cottage Grove to take the place vacated by J. H. Chambers, resigned, at a meeting of the city council.

Torakich Horinchi, Japanese, 43, was instantly killed near Perry when a rock which was being lifted by a derrick, split, half of it falling on his face.

Christian Ranley, 83, well known pioneer of Pendleton and an Indian fighter during the construction of the Union Pacific railroad, died at his home in Hood River.

Two million feet of logs were taken down the Siuslaw river by recent high water to the boom of the Siuslaw Boom company, near Cushman, where they will be stored until marketed.

Fruit trees in Lane county as a rule were not damaged as much by the recent freezing weather as during the zero weather in 1919, according to C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector.

With Ochooc creek, a tributary to Crooked river, at flood stage, the Ochooc reservoir is rapidly filling with water, giving assurance to Prineville farmers of a season of plentiful crops.

Plans for the annual strawberry carnival to be held in Roseburg during May this year have already been started by the Umpqua Chiefs, who staged a very successful festival last spring.

Dr. W. T. Pfy of the state board of health has begun a survey of Union county to discover the number of cases of goitre. It is claimed that Union county is one of the parts of the world where goitre is most prevalent.

Rising to 23 feet, the Willamette river at Albany set a new high mark for the winter. All through traffic was stopped except between Albany and Corvallis via the west side road, and between Albany and Portland.

If the senate passes the omnibus building bill, which has passed the house, there will be set aside out of the lump sum appropriation, $300,000 for a federal building at Astoria, and $120,000 for an extension of the building at Eugene.

On February 1 there was 10 feet of snow at the rim of Crater lake, 8 1/2 feet at Anna Spring camp, and the total precipitation for the previous month was 10.64 inches, according to the month's weather report received from the Crater national park ranger.

Jonathan Bourne, ex-United States senator from Oregon, will receive one-half of the estate, valued at more than $1,000,000, left by his sister, Miss Emily Howland Bourne. Miss Bourne died in March, 1922. Ex-senator Bourne resides in Washington, D. C.

Because women violators of Bend city ordinances are obviously taking advantage of leniency being shown them due to a lack of women's quarters in the local jail, Bend's women prisoners will likely be sent to the Crook county jail in Prineville hereafter.

The number of Pacific coast fir mills that have gone onto the 5-day week is now more than 100 and approximately 22,000 employees are affected by the shortened schedule. Slack demand and accumulation of stocks at mills were the reasons assigned for reducing output until weather in the east permits full employment of building labor.

Hay shortage resulted in a comparatively heavy loss of cattle in central Oregon this winter, reports reaching Bend indicate. It was estimated that 13 per cent of the cattle in the vicinity of Sisters had died. Heavy losses were reported from Fort Rock.

The public service commission has authorized short time publication of special intrastate railroad rates on seed wheat for reseeding purposes which has been made necessary as a result of the recent cold weather. The rates apply to those counties east of Hood River and south to Snake river.

After being deadlocked, 11 to one, for hanging for nearly 19 hours, the jurors at Klamath Falls who heard the case against Sim Pate, first of the gambling house murder suspects to face trial, compromised and returned a verdict of guilty of first degree murder but recommended life imprisonment.

One hundred and eighteen mills reporting to West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending January 31 manufactured 103,898,678 feet of lumber, sold $2,104,234 feet and shipped 98,636,646 feet. New business was 11 per cent below production. Shipments were 7 per cent above new business.

While no material damage to fall wheat will occur in Baker county on account of the recent severe winter weather, it is reported that deep freezing before snow fell will result in considerable damage to the alfalfa hay crop this year. In many instances growers will plow their alfalfa fields and reseed.

There were two fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ending February 5, according to a report issued by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were Mathias Lettenmaier, Oregon City, beaterman, and Hal Lofton, Silves, laborer. A total of 549 accidents was reported.

Damage estimated at $250,000 was entailed, thousands of head of sheep and cattle were drowned, houses and small buildings were swept away, a railroad bridge was washed out, and Vale was covered with three feet of water when the dam on Bully creek, 19 miles west of Vale, broke under the pressure of flood waters.

A west coast branch of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association will be established at Portland in recognition of the increasing importance of the lumber industry in the Pacific northwest. It was announced at the headquarters of the association in Washington, D. C. Harold F. Hubbs, for many years a resident of Portland, will direct the Portland branch.

Suit was begun in circuit court at Eugene by J. H. Hawley and S. W. Boyd of Cottage Grove against the county court and the sheriff to enjoin the collection of 1924 taxes as they stand on the rolls, which have just been completed, on the ground that the amount levied upon this year exceeds by more than 6 per cent the amount levied upon last year.

Three thousand signs to mark forest trails in 22 forests in Oregon and Washington were shipped by the forest service at Portland to meet the growing demand of tourists who are making the forests their summer playgrounds. The largest shipment went to the Diamond lake region, where 560 signs were wanted, and the next to the Mount Hood national forest, which took 320 signs.

A chance for some of the farmers who are in the hog business to replace former losses with profits is seen by Fred Bennion, Umatilla county agent, following receipt of the government's report of a shortage of hogs amounting to 12,000,000 in January, 1925, as compared with 1924. Low prices for hogs and high price of feeds have caused hog production in Umatilla county to be greatly curtailed during the last two years.

The California Oregon Power company has applied to the federal power commission for a preliminary permit for an installation on Clearwater river, a tributary of the North Umpqua river, and Nowich creek, a tributary of Clearwater river, 51 miles northeast of Roseburg, Douglas county. It is proposed to construct a dam about three miles above the mouth of the Clearwater, creating a storage reservoir extending about six miles upstream, to furnish storage and power in connection with the company's other developments on the North Umpqua.

Damage to winter wheat in eastern Oregon last month was considerably greater than at first estimated, reports indicate. Between 90 and 95 per cent of the wheat crop in Morrow county will have to be reseeded, according to advices from R. W. Case, Morrow county agent. New observations in Sherman, Gilliam and Wasco counties show early estimates far below actual figures. In Sherman county, 80 per cent of the grain is dead, according to D. E. Stephens, superintendent of the Moro experiment station. Between 30,000 and 24,000 acres will have to be reseeded in Wasco county, County Agent Daigh estimates.
