UPPER WILLAMETTE

Chicken thieving has become more than a joke at Pleasant Hill and the farmers are becoming much alarmed. Ernest Schrenk, Cecil Wheeler and Leta Wheeler have all lost heavily in the past ten days. The thieves seem to be after the chickens for meat as the light weight ones are left behind.

In honor of her 13th birthday Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer entertained a number of the neighbors children for their daughter, Edna, at their home at Enterprise Sunday afternoon, February 22. Outdoor games were played until rain drove the young folks in the house where refreshments were served.

Mrs. Andy Olson who underwent an operation at the Goshen hospital Friday February 13 was able to return to her home at Pleasant Hill Sunday, February 21.

Under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor of the Pleasant Hill church Mr. and Mrs. Riddle of Eugene will give a concert at the Christian church Saturday night February 28. As Mr. and Mrs. Riddle are accomplished musicians and Mr. Riddle is very accomplished in giving readings a good program is anticipated.

Mrs. Swift of Portland visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Swift at Pleasant Hill.

Twelve little folks gathered at the home of Mrs. Belle Wimmer Monday afternoon, February 23 to celebrate the birthday of her son Elbert, who was seven years old Sunday February 22. Games were played in doors until refreshments with a lighted birthday cake were served. Those present were: Leland Morris, Robert Phelps, Maxine Baughman, Max Baughman, Wayne James, Florence and Lucile Jordan, Bonnie Jeanne Tinker and Elbert Wimmer.

Mary Harden, Arthur Lindley and Guy Mathews were chosen to represent the Pleasant Hill high school at the educational exposition held at Corvallis last week. Accompanied by Arlo Gilbert, an instructor in the high school, they left Friday afternoon.

Herbert Harden of Portland was at Pleasant Hill Sunday visiting his mother Mrs. Dora Harden and his two children Mary and Paul.

Farmers Union News

DORENA LOCAL NO. 190

The Farmers Union members held an open meeting Tuesday evening with about thirty-five present.

Ralph Laird, county President gave some very interesting suggestions on conducting farmer union meetings and how to hold the interest of the members. He also acted as chairman of the meeting as the president was absent.

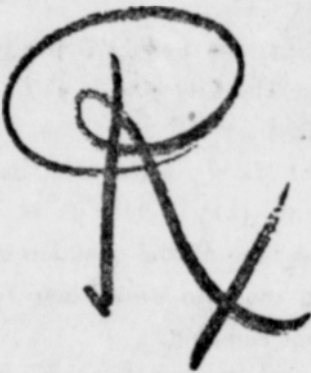

Mr. Jackman, an O. A. C. specialist also gave many helpful suggestions concerning the work in the meetings and on farming, followed by O. E. Fletcher, county agent, who outlined the work which the farmer unionists and county agents are trying to carry out this year, especially on horticulture, alfalfa raising, stock raising, and methods of treating grain.

Those present enjoyed the speaking very much and wish we could have Mr. Jackman, Mr. Laird and Mr. Fletcher here more often to wake up the community.

After the meeting a lunch of coffee, cake and sandwiches were served by the ladies.

Most everyone in the community attended the funeral of Uncle Miles Pitcher held at the Chapel at Cottage Grove last Sunday. He was one of the oldest pioneers on the river, being 81 years old. He was also a civil war veteran and has lived in and
