

"ABRAHAM LINCOLN" TO BE SHOWN AT REX

"Abraham Lincoln," the picture which has been the sensation of the movie world, is announced this week as a First National picture, to be shown at the Rex Theatre in Eugene, beginning Monday of next week.

"Abraham Lincoln," was more than two years in the making, and at times as many as 2,500 people appear in the cast. It deals with the life of Lincoln from his birth, through his boyhood, the presidency and the strife of the Civil War, depicts the surrender of Lee and shows life in Washington after the war and finally his assassination.

The production has been hailed as an artistic and dramatic sensation by the national press and is conceded generally to be one of the most important pictures ever brought to the screen.

First National decision to distribute "Abraham Lincoln" is in keeping with its policy to handle productions of only the highest grade, according to Richard Rowland, production manager.

George Billings, considered to be a perfect likeness to the famous national hero, plays the title role, and Ruth Clifford is seen as Anne Rutledge. Nell Craig is Mrs. Lincoln. These are the principal figures in the remarkably fine cast. "Abraham Lincoln" was directed by Phil Rosen. Frances Marlon wrote the scenario and supervised the editing.

A special atmospheric prolog, "Southern Memories," featuring Hugh Winder and the American Male Quartet, in vocal selections with a special stage setting, will be presented twice each night at 7:30 and 9:20 p. m.

IBANEZ STORIES ALL BIG HITS IN PICTURE FORM

Few authors' works have been so consistently successful as those of Vicente Ibanez, Spain's foremost novelist.

"The Four Horsemen," "Blood and Sand," and "Enemies of Women," are but three of his colorful romances which have been transferred to the screen. The first practically "made" Rudolph Valentino; the second, a love-epic of the Spanish toreador brought the same star into pictures in the kind of role that has made him world-famous; the last was one of the most colorful productions the screen has ever seen.

And now Ibanez has written a story especially for the screen!

"Argentine Love," an Allen Dwan production for Paramount featuring Bebe Daniels and Ricardo Cortez which comes to the Bell Theatre Sunday, combines all the bright spots of all the previous Ibanez screen plays.
