JAZZ WAGON WRECK IN CLASH WITH AUTOMOBILE

"Bouncing Bertha," one of the infamous University of Oregon Campus Fords had her left fenders and running boards removed, her radiator smashed, and windshield broken in a clash with another Ford driven by Clifford Witt, of Leiber, last Thursday afternoon, a few miles out on the McKenzie highway.

Witt cut a corner, hitting the campus car before he noticed it. Side curtains obstructed his view. One fender, and the radiator of his car was smashed, and Witt was badly shaken in the crash. Both cars were towed into Springfield, where they were repaired.
