

Community News

By Special Correspondents

UPPER WILLAMETTE

County Agent O. S. Fletcher and wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Laird Sunday, May 10.

Myrna Jean Laird, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laird had her tonsils and adenoids removed Monday, May 4.

The Pleasant Hill Sunday school voted on Sunday, May 10, to present Mary Harden with a gift of $20 in appreciation for her services the past several years.

Several ranches have changed hands at Pleasant Hill in the past few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Olson have purchased a portion of the Manning ranch.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arnold of Trent was burned to the ground last week Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markham of Dexter are the parents of a baby boy born at Springfield Saturday, May 9.

The Pleasant Hill public school won second prize in the relic display held in the Armory May 9.

THURSTON NOTES

Mrs. Mary Campbell who has spent the past five weeks in Springfield returned to her home here Saturday evening.

Jack Harbert and Melvin Buell left last Monday for Merdith where they expect to be employed.

There was no preaching service last Sunday as Rev. Lou Mick had an automobile accident after he left Eugene and was unable to get here.

The grade school closed last Friday but the teacher, Miss Veda Gray is reviewing 6, 7 and 8 grades this week preparing them for the State exams which will be held Thursday and Friday.

day of this week. Mrs. Fred Russell and daughter Maude motored to Monmouth last Saturday to attend the May day exercises and spent the week-end with Margaret Russell who is attending Normal there.

The County Sunday school convention will be held here next Saturday afternoon and Sunday there will be a dinner Sunday and all day service.

Perry Price attended the May day exercises in Monmouth Saturday. The Ladies Aid met at the church last Thursday. They made and hung sash curtains. Some of the men put up the blinds, they also oiled the floor.

Sues for Divorce

Dora J. Neilson has filed a complaint in circuit court for divorce from Glen S. Neilson. The couple were married in December, 1919. She claims the husband kept company with other women. Alimony of $75 a month is sought in the complaint.

"James, as I passed the servants' hall today I saw you kiss one of the maids."

"Yes, madam, when would that have been, madam?"

"About four o'clock."

"O, yes madam, that would have been Jane, madam."—Columbia Journal.

The terrible death toll resulting shows that the Reds at least have lost none of their efficiency.

"Gabby" Hartnett of the Chicago Cubs hit a home-run 2 day for first six days of the season—and is piling up a lead in circuit counts which will be hard for the mighty Ruth to overcome when he gets back into the game.

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

The tenth annual convention of the Oregon Music Teachers' association was held in Portland.

The 18th annual convention of the Oregon Retail Jewelers' association convened in Salem Monday.

Opening of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway company's new station was celebrated at Astoria.

Eatacanda will hold a special election May 29 to decide the question of the annexation of more territory.

Voters of Cascade Locks voted unanimously to authorize a $20,000 bond issue for a high school building.

Dates for the sixth annual session of the Pendleton summer normal school will be from June 22 until July 24.

Eugene's postoffice receipts for April amounted to $10,574.06, an increase of about 15 per cent over April, 1924.

The annual session of group 2, Oregon Bankers' association, has been set for May 22, afternoon and evening, at Woodburn.

Joseph B. Hill, well known resident of Lane county, died suddenly at his home near Eugene, where he was born 65 years ago.

Dr. Carl Doney, president of Willamette university, arrived at Salem Saturday after spending a year in the east recuperating from illness.

A two-day state convocation of the De Molay order convened in Medford Friday with approximately 200 delegates and other members present.

Oregon has one of the lowest infant death rates in the United States, according to Dr. Frederick D. Stricker, secretary of the state board of health.

In an effort to lessen the number of deaths by drowning each summer, the Klamath Falls American Legion post voted to purchase a pulmotor for the city.

After having been shut down since December 18 as the result of a fire, the plant of the Portland Vegetable Oil Mills company has resumed operations.

Oregon Trunk surveyors who will lay out two proposed lines from Bend to Klamath Falls arrived in Bend Saturday and left immediately for the interior.

F. H. McGowan, 65, picked up from the highway by a stage near Deer Island, where he was found apparently ill, died shortly after being taken to Rainier.

Work has again been started on the Cohen mine near Gold Hill. In the '70s this mine was a large gold producer, but has been inactive for some years.

Work on the 17.3-mile stretch of The Dalles-California highway from Sand creek north, which is being built by C. Nyberg, will be completed by September 1.

Bankers from the eight northwestern counties of Oregon gathered in Astoria Friday for the annual spring meeting of group 1 of the Oregon Bankers' association.

The Hood River Apple Growers' association was notified that an average of $4.25 a box had been received for a carload of fancy Newtown apples sold in New York city at auction.

R. H. Greff, at present employed on the Wenatchee national forest in Washington, has been assigned to the Cascade national forest as superintendent of road and trail construction.

W. L. Gilchrist of Albany was cut in several places about the face and hands near Nalsey when a China peasant flew into the windshield of Mr. Gilchrist's car with such force as to shatter the glass.

Walter Ford, 9, La Grande school boy, was dangerously injured as the result of boys playing with a pistol. He was shot through the neck and lost much blood before medical attention was obtained.

State highway officials of Oregon will meet with those of 10 other western states at San Francisco Friday to designate the interstate roads in those states to be uniformly marked as United States highways.

Ten were killed in traffic accidents in Portland during the first four months of 1925, an increase of three over the corresponding period in 1924, according to an announcement made at police headquarters.

A total of 34,112 applications for cash bonus and loans have been received since the creation of the soldiers' relief act in 1921, according to an announcement made at Salem by George A. White, adjutant-general.

The old house in which Homer Davenport, famous cartoonist, lived in Silverton for many years is to be torn down or moved to some other location to provide ground space for a new state armory to be erected this year.

Slashings can be burned up to May 15 without obtaining a permit, according to an announcement made at the state forestry department. After May 15 it will be necessary to obtain permits from the state forester or his agents.

K. L. Hall of Eugene, who has the contract to grade nearly three miles of the Eugene-Florence highway in the Blachly section, is establishing his construction camp just west of Blachly, and expects to begin grading work this week.

Portland telephone service was paralyzed and almost 15,000 telephones were put out of commission as a result of a fire which broke out in the basement of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company's main exchange.

Either drowned or killed by the shock of falling in the cold water, Lois Shaver, 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaver of Pinehurst, near Bend, was found in a small irrigation ditch near her parents' home.

Edward E. Brodie of Oregon City, United States minister to Siam, has abandoned his proposed tour of Europe and will return from his post at Bangkok directly to Seattle, arriving June 21, according to a letter received from him.

Will J. Roberts, principal of the West Side high school at Ontario, has been selected by the land settlement committee of the chamber of commerce to manage an Oregon bureau at Green River, Wyo., during the coming tourist season.

Purchase of Lipman, Wolfe & Co., pioneer department store of Portland, was completed when an option held on the property by the National Department Stores, Inc., of New York, was exercised. The deal involved about $2,000,000.

An American Legion controversy over a political appointment will hold up indefinitely the proposal to establish a national guard company in Klamath Falls, according to word received from George A. White, adjutant-general of Oregon.

April brought four fatalities as the result of automobile accidents, four deaths in a fire, two suicides, one murder, one drowning and one death from alcoholism, according to the monthly report of Dr. Earl Smith, Multnomah county coroner.

The state printing board has fixed the price of the 1925 session laws at $2.40. This includes postage necessary to send the publication to any part of Oregon. The session laws contain 550 pages, 50 pages less than the laws for 1923 session of the legislature.

An order will be made soon closing Salt creek, Fall creek and Winberry creek districts in the Cascade national forest to camping after June 1, according to Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor of the forest. The same ruling was made last year on account of fire hazards.

Thomas Twest, civil war veteran and Bend pioneer, has been named as a member of President Coolidge's honorary bodyguard in connection with the anniversary of the first Norwegian settlement in America, which will be observed at Minneapolis the first week in June.

Six million feet of pine timber on 640 acres of land owned by the Yarns Land & Cattle company was sold to Prentice Pickett, Klamath logging contractor, for approximately $10,000. The timber is located in the Yamhill country between the Sprague and Williamson rivers.

Articles of incorporation of the Canby Canal company were filed in the county clerk's office at Oregon City with capital stock of $100,000. It is the intention of the firm to irrigate the land lying between a point five miles east of Canby to Canby comprising some 3000 acres.

Oregon pensions have been granted by the pension office as follows: A. Lee Morelock, Portland, $18; Hortense J. Gott, Portland, $30; Lizzie Randall, The Dalles, $30; William E. Reed, Roseburg, $15; Susan Driscoll, Roseburg, $12; Levi Knorr, Terrobonne, $15; William O'Mara, Sutherlin, $12.

Letters complimenting the officers of the state and showing the relative standings of the counties in connection with prohibition law enforcement prosecutions and the counties' proportion of fines collected from January 1 to April 9, 1925, were sent by William A. Levens, state prohibition director.

Application for water rights on the North Santiam river filed by Robert Simpson of Salem will be protested by Salem authorities. The city officers charge that the filings made by Mr. Simpson, if approved by the state engineer, would interfere with water rights previously acquired by the municipality.

By reason of the proximity of Brownsville to the Sweet Home district, now under quarantine by reason of rabies among dogs and other animals, school district No. 52-74 at Brownsville along with four other nearby districts, was placed under quarantine by P. T. Tweed, county veterinarian.

First Christian Church, Corner 4th and A street, S. E. Childers, Minister. Bible school at 9:45. S. C. Moshier, Supt. 13 classes in our Bible school in which one do you belong. Morning worship at 11 o'clock, subject "Lesson from Paul's Conversion." Evening service at 8 o'clock, Subject "Why the Word Needs a Savior." Special music at each service. Invitation to all.

FOR SALE—Carbon paper in large sheets, 26x39 inches, suitable for making tracings. The News Office.

NOTICE OF FINAL HEARING. Notice is hereby given that Louise E. Baker has filed in court her final account as administratrix of the estate of David M. Baker, deceased, and that the court has set 10 o'clock A. M. of Saturday, June 13, 1925, as the time when at the court house in the city of Eugene, Oregon, as the time when said account will be taken up by the county court for examination and allowance. All persons interested therein may appear at said time and be heard in reference thereto. S. D. Allen, Attorney for Estate. Louise E. Baker, Administratrix. M-14-21-28-J-11.

SPECIAL PRICE on plate work. Dr. N. W. Emery, dentist, Sutton Bldg.

Clubhouse Salad! A Saturday Special

Remember every Wednesday is Raisin Day. Try our Raisin Bread.

We Specialize in Picnic Lunches Open Sundays

HUNTLY DELICATESSEN

Main Street Between 4th and 5th

ED SEZ:

A Car that isn't equipped locks like a man in his B. V. D's! ATTENTION!

Ford, Star and Chevrolet Owners

Finest two bar, spring back type, full nickel, with curved ends, (can't hook) bumpers or half rear bumpers if preferred. Factory list price, $31.00 pair. Our price $29.50 pair installed—and FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

A guaranteed car-life Automatic Windshield Cleaner or a set of glass side wings installed with every order of twenty dollars or more.

OUR BUMPERS fit your particular car. They don't rattle or come loose. They don't rust with very little attention. Insurance agents will give you 12 1/2% discount per pair.

When you don't let us equip your car you loose real money. Seeing is believing. Come in and see for yourself. The finest cars in Lane county were equipped by

STEWART'S

AUTOMOBILE EQUIPMENT SPECIALISTS 948—Oak Street—948 OPEN EVENINGS

No place can you get the quality and price of Trunk Rack we give you.

How do your floors look?

Are they bright and clean and new-looking? Are they sanitary and easy to keep clean? If not, one or two coats of Acme Quality Floor Paint will quickly put them into their best condition. Acme Quality beautifies and protects. It prevents scuffing and new ACME QUALITY FLOOR PAINT.

Wright & Son Paint Furniture Hardware

By reason of the proximity of Brownsville to the Sweet Home district, now under quarantine by reason of rabies among dogs and other animals, school district No. 52-74 at Brownsville along with four other nearby districts, was placed under quarantine by P. T. Tweed, county veterinarian.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR LANE COUNTY

J. W. BAKER, Plaintiff, vs. SAMUEL MCMURDO, Defendant.

To Samuel McMurdo the above named defendant. In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified that J. W. Baker, the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 1917 issued on the 16th day of November, 1920 by the Tax Collector of the County of Lane, State of Oregon, for the amount of $11.52 the same being the amount then due and delinquent for taxes for the year 1917 together with penalty, interest and costs thereon upon the real property assessed to you, of which you are the owner as appears of record situated in said county and state, and particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit: The East 52 1/2 feet of lots 1, 2 and 3, Block 24, Gross Addition to Eugene, Lane County, Oregon.

You are further notified that said J. W. Baker has paid taxes on said premises for prior or subsequent years, with the rate of interest on said amounts as follows:

Table with columns: Year's Tax, Date Paid, Tax Receipt No., Amount, Rate of Interest. Rows include years 1918, 1919, 1920-1-H, 1920-2-H, 1921-1-H, 1921-2-H, 1922-1-H, 1922-2-H, 1923-1-H, 1923-2-H, 1924.

Said Samuel McMurdo as the owner of the legal title of the above described property as the same appears of record, and each of the other persons above named are hereby further notified that J. W. Baker will apply to the Circuit Court of the County and State aforesaid for a decree foreclosing the lien against the property above described, and mentioned in said certificate. And you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend this action or pay the amount due as above shown, together with costs and accrued interest, and in case of your failure to do so, a decree will be rendered foreclosing the lien of said taxes and costs against the land and premises above named.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable G. F. Skipworth, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane, and said order was made and dated this 12th day of May, 1925 and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 14th day of May, 1925 and the date of the last publication July 16, 1925.

All process and returns in this proceeding may be served upon the undersigned residing within the State of Oregon at the address hereafter mentioned. C. N. JOHNSON, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Room 10 United States National Bank Address Bank Bldg., Eugene, Oregon. M-14-21-28-J-11-18-25-Ju-2-9-16.