Return From Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gosler returned from their honeymoon in Southern Oregon Wednesday evening.

He never appears as a favorite in the fashionable show, but he's welcome to watch the blowout if he pays for a ticket to go—

We stand him along with the yappers that stay outside of the ring, but—in spite of his comic whiskers—he's the salt of the earth, by jing!

He's never an artful trickster that feathers his nest with men—but knows how to feed the porkers that fatten inside his pen. We couldn't exactly call him a king in the social deck, but he knows how to grow potatoes that we can't do without, by heck!

While the law provides special favors for sons of the gifted class, there aint no statutes provided for the feller that mows the grass—but, so long as he finds contentment in whiskers an' crouched backs—and so long as he feeds the "people" he can tend to himself, by jacks!
