A Job—A Job
Judkins: "What's the matter with old Perkins? He looks like a whipped dog."
Sampson: "Didn't you hear. His wife disgraced him at the opera house the other night. When the cook got mad at the mistress and quit in the second act Mrs. Perkins jumped up and said she'd hire her."

Rats — kibosh — banana oil and bunk;
She'll get bobbed when ready, we saw her "wunk."

Addresses Mill Men
Scotty Aitken, safety engineer with the National Safety council stationed at Portland, spoke to mill employees at the Booth-Kelly mill Monday noon on "The Value of Human Life."
Mr. Aitken advocated caution in ones work, emphasizing the value of a human life. He used as an example, the case of Floyd Collins, who recently, died after being trapped in a sand cave. His predicament attracted nation wide notice, Mr. Aitken pointed out, showing the attention paid by the public to one individual.

Yosemite hails its kings of miles!

IT pays to get the miles out of "Red Crown" that the Standard Oil Company's years of gasoline-making experience have put in it. Red Crown is simply crowded with miles—see the records below that this year's trophy winners made in the big annual Los Angeles-Yosemite Economy Run. They prove it!

USE THE RED CROWN MILEAGE CARD AND START AN ECONOMY RUN OF YOUR OWN
The secret that the expert knows is in getting Red Crown's miles out. The new Red Crown Mileage Card—just out—makes it as simple as a-b-c to increase your mileage. It tells what to do for your car—your carburetor—and just how to DRIVE to get 15 to 30 miles extra per tankful with Red Crown. (Remember—for the biggest event of its kind in the West—they have chosen "Red Crown" exclusively for nine consecutive years. It'll pay you to follow suit!)

Start your own economy run today on Red Crown gasoline with the Red Crown Mileage Card—at your nearest Red Crown pump (red, white and blue)—the best buy in town—by MILES.

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER
for your party—for you at any time, our ice cream is the cream to eat. It is as good as can be made, pure and tasty. Let us serve you some to-day and learn of the difference in our ice cream and the other kind. All flavors.

EGGIMANN'S

either hot or cold
We have been serving potted beans, Boston style or Mexican either hot or cold. It has been a big success. Now we have added Spanish spaghetti in pints or potted. You'll like it. It is different.

general orders
People are now getting accustomed to ordering their meats prepared here, our ovens are large, our experience enables us to do the cooking right. Orders for any special dish, salads, meats, pastes, cakes etc., will be ready on time (give us a little time, you know.)
Home made bread is a good seller, there's a reason.
