

UPPER WILLAMETTE

Mr. and Mrs. Win Thompson and son, Clifford, are moving from Pleasant Hill to their ranch west of Eugene.

The young people of the Christian Endeavor society gave a surprise party on Clifford Thompson Wednesday night, September 2. The young folks met at Wheelers and went in a body to the Thompson home.

Mrs. Belle Wimmer and son, Elbert, and her grandmother, Mrs. Schoap, returned from Kason springs last week.

Mrs. Morton Binstow was called to Springfield Tuesday to be at the bedside of her father J. W. Marksham, who was stricken with paralysis Monday, August 31, and was critically ill.

C. F. Hyde motored to Marshfield with Frank Kinney and family to spend Labor day week-end.

Rev. David Eugene Olson of Eugene gave a sermon on Evolution at the Christian church at Pleasant Hill Sunday, September 5. Several outsiders attended the services.

The Curtis family have the whooping cough. A very heavy rain storm accompanied by lightning and thunder turned the streets, barnyards and lanes into rivers and pools Monday afternoon.

After looking quite brown during the summer the trial patches of alfalfa at Pleasant Hill are looking very green and showing good growth.

Old Resident Passes. L. J. Cornelius, aged 79, died at the Goshen hospital Monday, September 7 at 3 p. m.

Mr. J. W. Markham, who had two strokes of apoplexy Monday, August 31, was stricken again Monday, September 7. He is in a very critical condition.

OBITUARY

Orville B. Kessey. Death has "wrapped in the dreamless drapery of sleep" the founder of our institution and its president, Orville B. Kessey and we the officers and directors as business associates and friends for more than a decade wish to pay this as our brief tribute of respect and esteem.

It has been our good fortune in a business and social way to know Mr. Kessey intimately and to appreciate those rare qualities that made him particularly fitted, as few men are, for the business of his choice.

He was a man with a strong personality, generous, fair, honest and impartial with the courage always to voice his convictions. He was a man gifted with that rare intuition who knew men a few men do, always ready with worth while advice, aid or encouragement for those who sought his counsel.

Mr. Kessey was truly loyal to the best interests of the community and a directing force in its advancement. In his death we have lost a worth while friend, co-worker and advisor.

Peace to his memory, peace sweet peace.
