UPPER WILLAMETTE

Mrs. Belle W. ... and son, Elbert, ... George Kelsey, and Mrs. Belle Schoop returned Friday from a weeks tour in Washington, while gone they attended the conference of the International Bible Students association held at Bellingham, Washington. They made the trip from Pleasant Hill to Tacoma in one day.

The Pleasant Hill Girls' Cooking club, under Mrs. Jesse Phelps, and the Sewing club under Mrs. M. E. Hays, gave demonstration and display at the Pleasant Hill public school house Friday, September 11. Several of the mothers were present. The two clubs gave a short program consisting of the Community Pledge in unison, singing the club songs and giving the club motto. Roberta Lawson, Emma Olson and Ruth Emery gave the sewing demonstrations showing the turning of a hem, making a French seam and different kinds of stitches. The cooking club demonstration team consisting of Roberta Lawson, Lucille Jordan and Lucetta Boughman gave the rules and ways of measuring. The display of home made bread and the sewing received much praise.

THURSTON NOTES

Hop picking at the J. W. Seavey yard ended last Sunday and several families from here who picked there have returned to their homes.

Perry Price motored down from McKenzie bridge last Friday. He went to Corvallis Saturday to make plans to attend the O. A. C. this winter. Mr. Price, Herbert Taylor and Jay Grant are contemplating to batch together.

Lawrence Baxter and Jack Harberl who have spent the summer, in the mountains as fire wardens, spent the week-end with home folks.

Howard Baughman has gone to Eugene to stay with his mother and attend school there.

Margaret Russel began teaching school at Leaburg last Monday.

Mrs. Alberta Weaver and children have moved to Leaburg where she is employed as one of the teachers. Margaret Campbell is keeping house for her.

Mrs. Lillas Gosler and family moved last week to the Robley ranch near Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Barnett, who have farmed Frank Taylor's ranch the past year, have moved back to the Barnett ranch. Mr. Ziegler and family expect to move to the Taylor ranch this week.

P. R. Edmiston, who has been ill for some time, is in a very critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baugh and family motored to Junction City last Sunday.

Miss Hazel Edmiston has gone to Norton's where she is employed to teach the school there.

Our neighborhood was greatly shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Ernest Conley, who passed away at the Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene last week. Mr. Conley was raised and spent most of his life here and has the heart felt sympathy of the entire neighborhood in his sorrow.
