She was asked if she approved of make-up and bobbed hair. "I don't object to cosmetics when they are used in moderation. Personally, I have never used anything but powder. The skin is healthier and prettier when it has its own natural glow, as it will have if it is given half a chance. As for bobbed hair—I approve of it for those to whom it is becoming."

"Do you like dancing?" Her eyes sparkled—"I adore it. When not overdone, I think it is a healthy exercise. No, she replied to the next question, "I don't like the Charleston, it is tiring."
