

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

The public school at Dexter has been closed on account of scarlet fever.

Construction work has been started on the new terminal grounds of the Southern Pacific company at Eugene.

The total number of children of school age in Lane county at the time the recent school census was taken is 14,309.

A Pickwick stage on the way from Yreka to Roseburg struck and killed a big buck deer in the canyon south of Canyonville.

Mrs. Stella Magladry, wife of J. S. Magladry, state senator, died at Eugene after an illness of a few weeks from pneumonia.

Corn sweepstakes at the annual Marion-Polk county corn show which was held at Salem were awarded to the city of Woodburn.

C. H. Dye was elected president of the Willamette valley Chautauqua association at a meeting of the board of directors held at Oregon City.

Despondent over financial troubles and continued ill-health, Howard L. Ward, who resides about five miles south of Roseburg, shot himself.

Fifty carloads of canned fruits and vegetables were shipped by the Eugene Fruit Growers' association last month, according to J. O. Holt, manager.

Five candidates seek the office of district attorney of Polk county to succeed Joseph Helgeson, who has been appointed deputy United States district attorney.

Frank C. Clark of Medford was reappointed by Governor Pierce as a member of the state board of architects' examiners. His commission dates from May 20, 1925.

The salary of the Tillamook county dairy and food commissioner, now $175 a month, was ordered by the county court to be reduced to $1 a month beginning December 1.

One of the largest wildcats ever seen in Klamath county was accidentally killed on the Ashland-Klamath highway when it was run down by an autoist from Corvallis.

E. H. Lister, state traffic officer, with headquarters in Eugene, was injured when his motorcycle and an automobile collided on the Pacific highway at West Springfield.

Wire entanglements, which have been under construction at the Oregon state penitentiary for the past few weeks, are completed. The wires are located on top of the prison walls.

M. G. Nease of Portland has filed suit in circuit court at Eugene against the county court, seeking judgment of $24,343.61 alleged due for cruising 100,000 acres of timber in Lane county.

Timber valued at $879 was destroyed or damaged in the Cascade national forest by fire this year, according to a report on the fires in the forest prepared by Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor.

One hundred and four mills reporting to West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending November 14 manufactured 99,989,931 feet of lumber, sold 108,766,554 feet and shipped 75,495,032 feet.

Two hundred ten direct inquiries for agricultural information on Oregon were received during the first two weeks of November by the land settlement department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

A resolution favoring the proposed extension of the state normal course for public school teachers from two to four years was unanimously adopted by the Polk county W. C. T. U. in convention at Independence.

Only 54 votes were cast in Medford's school district election on the question of approving the annual budget and raising the school tax of the city more than 6 per cent above that of 1924, and every vote was favorable.

Dave Arthur, member of a prominent Baker county family of mining operators, was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of G. C. Tucker in a fight in the Mother Lode mine September 1.

R. J. Ferguson of Portland was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary by Judge Eakin at Astoria when he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of R. C. Graham.

Angling for trout of 10 inches in length or more in all streams of the state, which has heretofore been permitted during the regular closed season from November 30 to April 15, will be prohibited this year above the portions of streams not actually affected by tides, under a new law enacted by the last session of the legislature.

State traffic officers operating under T. A. Rafferty, chief inspector for the state motor vehicle division, have started a systematic enforcement of the so-called automobile lighting law enacted at the 1925 session of the legislature.

Pupils passing into any grade above the fourth grade of the public schools of Roseburg must be able to write the words of "America," the first and last stanzas of "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the "oath of allegiance," the school board has ruled.

Any attempt to consolidate the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college, as has been suggested by newspapers in different parts of the state, will have the opposition of Governor Pierce, according to a statement made by him at Salem.

The cases of Tom Murray, Ellsworth Kelley and James Willos, convicts, who are under death sentence for the murder of John Sweeney, guard, during a break at the Oregon state penitentiary on August 12, will be appealed to the state supreme court.

The state highway commission, in its suit against R. L. Stewart in the circuit court was ordered by a jury verdict to pay $1019 to the defendant as proper compensation for 11 acres of ground condemned by the state and county for the Baker-Unity state highway.

Mrs. Mary P. Cushing, 93, eastern Oregon's oldest woman pioneer, both in age and length of residence, died at the home of a son, William H. Cushing, on the Columbia highway, three miles from The Dalles. Mrs. Cushing had been a resident of Wasco county since 1853.

Klamath Falls now has a population of at least 10,000, according to an estimate of Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, following completion of the school census for the city. The census shows an increase of 1730 over last year, with a total of 2490 persons of school age.

The firm of Lee and Son of Baker recently made a sale of 80,000 pounds of wool to Boston interests, the shipment going east by rail. The price was not announced but the total consideration was believed to be a little less than $40,000. About 150,000 pounds of wool remain in Baker warehouses unsold, as growers are expecting higher prices.

Conveniently located in Eugene maintains two up-to-date Beauty shops, namely: The Eugene Beauty Spot located in the Eugene Hotel, Phone 2000 and the Marinello shop in the McDonald Theater Bldg., Phone 647-J.

They practice Cosmetic Therapy in all its branches and Professor Marcel's system of Permanent Waving. These are two of the best equipped and well managed beauty shops in this section and is under the management of Mrs. B. Piper Bell, who employs only experienced operators.

They carry a complete line of hair goods, transformations, switches, natural bobs, curls and a large line of preparations. This well-known profession has developed in the past few years from a trade to an art of science. This day and age of specialists has found the art of beauty culture advancing with rapid strides.

B. Piper Bell Cosmetician

This shop is well equipped with all the latest approved devices for expeditious business. Their work comprises all the advanced methods such as manicuring facial work, permanent waving, marcel waving, hair dyeing new shingle bob, and hair work of all descriptions. To be accurate at the work, years of study must be given to the construction of the skin, supplemented with years of practical experience. Mrs. Bell obtained her business education under an able and well-known beauty school. This training and knowledge obtained by years of practical experience has built for them the well-merited patronage received. This beauty parlor has proven to be a great convenience to the people of this section generally as it renders a metropolitan service.

The management and assistants and their desire to please makes these beauty parlors most worthy of mention and we wish to compliment them in this edition for their success acquired in their special field of endeavor.

Rainier Coal Company

Located in Eugene at 15 East 7th are extensive coal dealers, featuring the famous Rock Springs and Utah Coal and Gasco Briquets. Its superiority is demonstrated by being hot, clean, sootless and clinkerless and will carry you through the winter in comfort.

It is a well-known fact that there is no one institution in the community that has met with greater favor with the public than this well known establishment. By reason of the fact that the management has had wide experience in every feature of this business, this establishment has continued to witness the increase in the number of patrons.

This company is known throughout this section as one of the leaders in this business. The volume of business, the experience of years as a prominent firm in this line, the practical knowledge that has won for them the recognition of the country at large and the patronage of thousands all add to the progress and prosperity of the community in which their establishment is located.

This section is indeed fortunate to have such a progressive firm to serve it in fuel and everything in their line; it adds in no little way to the progress and prosperity of the community. If you want anything in this line, telephone them, call at their establishment, and when you have decided what you need you can depend on it that this well known firm will see you get it.

With the business acumen and foresight which has won such popularity and patronage for the company in the past, the management has anticipated the needs and demands of the people of this section of the state and is far surpassing even the largest expectations. This firm still specializes in rendering individual service to every patron. Courteous and efficient to a marked degree the manager has surrounded himself with employees thoroughly conversant with every feature of the business, and as a result, work moves along at a most rapid and satisfactory manner.

Osburn Hotel

Admirably located in Eugene at 8th and Pearl St., is one of the finest hotels in this section of Oregon. They maintain one of the most modern and up-to-date dining rooms that is meeting with public approval because of the service rendered, is growing in popularity all the time. It is thoroughly modern and up-to-date, and operated at reasonable rates.

There is no greater necessity than the modern hotel. With the ever-increasing number of men, who, because of their business, are forced to make hotels their home, the modern hotel proprietor has realized that the public has learned much from these, as to what constitutes a really efficient hotel. Every community that can boast of such a hotel is sure of much recognition over all the surrounding country.

We are glad to refer our readers to the Osburn Hotel and point to it as a modern and up-to-the minute hotel, that is increasing in popularity all the time. The management takes special pains to see that the service of the entire staff of helpers is as nearly perfect as it is possible to make it.

All the rooms are comfortable furnished, with plenty of ventilation and with either bath or hot and cold water.

This is the most popular cafe of this section, and the ever-growing and large patronage it receives is to the fact that it is clean and sanitary throughout—serves at all times the most palatable foods and receives its patronage from the city and surrounding territory as well as from the traveling public.

Both local and transient trade has earned that this is a place where the demand is more than satisfied in obtaining food. Courtesy is another outstanding feature of this cafe, as it seems to be a pleasure for them to serve the public.

The cafe business is a great business within itself, and does not end with the serving of food on the table, but extends to the kitchen and other places that are only frequented by the manager and his assistants, where all silverware is polished and dishes sterilized.

It is a pleasure to have such a clean and modern cafe as this to refer the stranger and local people to as really good eating places are not common. At this cafe the food is prepared in such a manner that the thought at once comes "this is a good place to eat."

The service is excellent and you will be more than pleased if you give it a trial the next time you are in Eugene.

The rates of this hotel which is run on the European plan are very reasonable and the service compares favorably with the best hotels in the country whose rates are very much higher. It is in every respect a modern high-grade hotel and we refer it to our readers without hesitation.

Eugene Clearing House Association

COMPOSED OF UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK AND EUGENE LOAN AND SAVINGS BANK

Completes a modern banking institution that is under the able direction of financiers who have conducted its affairs in accordance with the great cardinal laws governing banking and finance and has been a most important factor in the upbuilding of this section of Oregon.

Time is necessary for the creation of tradition. In these institutions the practices, precepts and experience of years from the tradition which inspires the conduct of their staffs.

There has been no crystallization of experience to hamper progress but rather the building of a background which gives guidance and freedom in meeting new situations.

Tradition calls these banks to constructive service to business, to the upbuilding and protection of the forces of production and trade. It permeates the organization, gives vigor to the personality, influences the policy and fires the spirit—all to contribute to the extra measure of banking service normal to these institutions.

Hoffman Hotel

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Conveniently located in Eugene at 9th and Willamette St., is one of the most metropolitan hotels in Eugene containing clean, modern rooms at reasonable prices.

In this comprehensive review of our progress we deem it quite appropriate to mention as the pride of the home people and strives to infuse its service the comforts of home and the comforts and the convenience the traveling public must have. Its reputation of being particular in its appearance, its appointments and the care of its guests and the stranger in Eugene possesses an advantage in referring to his hotel as The Hoffman.

The structure is a massive building containing guest rooms replete with all modern accessories and provided with every requisite for the most exacting guests. There is a spirit of real hospitality and a homelike atmosphere of comfort and contentment. Unobtrusively, quietly, considerately, you are served by a family of capable employees and executives working harmoniously together, year in and year out with just one objective—the good will and satisfaction of the guest.

Thus in this broad and comprehensive review of our progress, telling as it does of the outstanding and most worthy institutions of our community we would not call a Booster's Edit on complete without the mention of this hotel which speaks for the community in general as does any hotel speak for a community in the eyes of a stranger as he enters the city.

There is no more public spirited citizens in the community than the management of this well-known establishment. We are pleased to commend them and give them in this review the prominent position that their progress and reliable policies have merited. We assure our readers that at this hotel they will receive the best treatment.

Sherman & Clay Co.

EVERYTHING IN MUSIC

Centrally located in Eugene at 74 East 9th Ave., is the popular music house that is furnishing this section of Oregon with everything musical.

They are extensive dealers in nationally known lines of Pianos including the Steinway, Duo-Art, Steinert, Sohmer, Weber, Steck, Kurtzman, Krausner, Aldrich and Brambach and also carry a stock of used Pianos that may be secured at reasonable prices.

This is also the home of the famous Victrola in the various models and also carry a choice selection of the latest Victor Records. All the above instruments can be placed in your homes on convenient terms arranged in their credit department.

By reason of the wide range of quality and price it is very difficult for the uninitiated these days to select a piano and get full value for their money unless they are dealing with someone in whom they have confidence. For this reason there is a general satisfaction in doing business with this well-known music house.

During the time that they have been in business they have merited a reputation for fair and straightforward dealing. They know the piano and music instrument values and customers know that when they make a price, that it denotes real and true value. This insures the customer of getting an instrument worth while and their policy of one price a ndeay payments guarantees you full value for your money. Whether you wish to purchase at this time or not, come in, they will be pleased to show you their pianos or players Hear them, then compare—

(Paid Advertisement)

then judge for yourself.

They operate an institution that adds much to the efficiency of the community as a trading center and in this review we are pleased to point with pride to the great success they are making, and insure our readers that this establishment they will always receive a square deal. The proprietor is to be highly commended, upon the valued service rendered the people.

It adds to the country's progress and expansion to have in its midst such firms as this, to which we refer our readers.

Working on Fireplace—Ezra Pelletier of Eugene is in Springfield this week building this fireplace in the D. W. McKinnon house in Willamette Heights.

Inspector Goes North—Abe Lindo, who has been inspecting lumber at the local Booth-Kelly mill for the Nicolai Door Manufacturing company of Portland, left for that city Saturday. M. C. Peterson, inspector for the Texas and New Orleans railroad, arrived Saturday.

Beautiful and Rich

Most of us would be satisfied with either, but little Patricia Mounbatten, shown here with her mother, Lady Mounbatten, has both. Reputed to be the richest baby in the world, the future heiress of the $100,000,000 estate of her great grandfather, Sir Ernest Cassell.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF POLK. RAYMOND M'RLAET and L. M. WATSON, Co-partners, Plaintiffs, vs. Elizabeth Gray, John S. Gray, Jr., Narrat C. Holcomb, Dr. William Wallace Gray and Mayme Gray, Defendants. Also the unknown heirs of Isaac Gray, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein in Defendants.

SUMMONS FOR PUBLICATION
To Dr. William Wallace Gray and Mina Gray, wife of Dr. William Wallace Gray; John S. Gray; and Elizabeth Taylor, widow; the unknown heirs of Isaac Gray, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, Defendants:

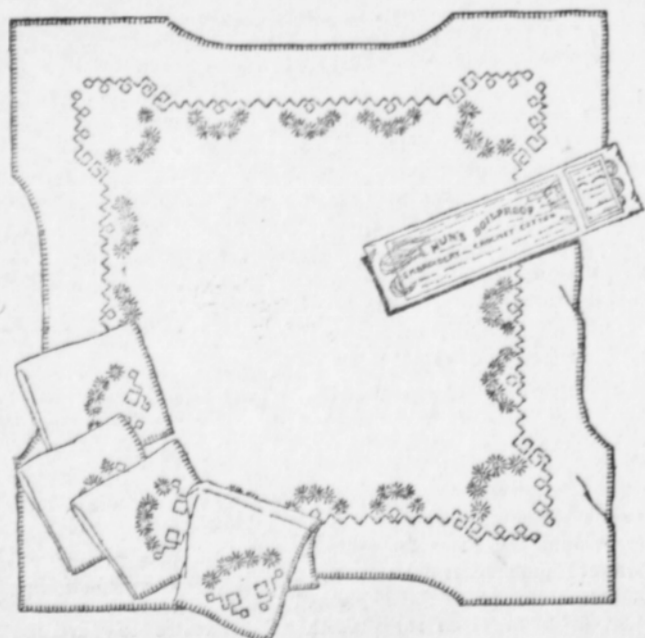

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons and if you fail so to appear and answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: For a decree of the Court adjudging and decreeing that the plaintiffs are the owners in fee simple of the premises described in the complaint herein, and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the Northeast corner of Lot Two (2), fractional Block Twenty (20), in that part of the city of Eugene which was originally donated to Lane County by Charles Mulligan; running thence South 100 feet; thence West 80 feet; thence North 100 feet to the South line of 11th Avenue East; thence East along said South line 80 feet to the place of beginning, being situated in the City of Eugene, County of Lane, State of Oregon.

As against the said defendants and each of them, and that the said defendants have not, nor have either of them, any right, title or interest whatsoever in and to the said premises or any part thereof, and that the plaintiff's title in and to the said premises be forever quieted and set at rest as against the claims of the said defendants and either or any of them, and for general relief.

This summons is published once each week for six successive weeks in the Springfield News, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in Lane County, Oregon, by order of the Hon. G. E. Shipworth, Judge of the above entitled Court, which order bears date the 23 day of November, 1925, and the date of the first publication of this Summons is November 26th, 1925.

POTTER & FOSTER,
Attorney for Plaintiffs, Residence and Postoffice Address, Eugene, Oregon. N26 D 3 10 17 24 31 J 7

This Stamped Tea-Cloth and $1.00 Napkins with NUN'S BOILPROOF Floss

The Cloth is a yard square and the Napkins—four of them—are twelve inches. This price includes famous NUN'S BOILPROOF Floss for working.

Frances Art and Baby Shop

632 Willamette Street
Eugene, Oregon