

LEGION AUXILIARY HAS NEW LIST OF OFFICERS

Election of officers and final preparations for the organization's veteran's benefit Christmas work were important features of a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, held Monday evening.

Mrs. M. B. Huntly was re-elected president. Other officers chosen were Mrs. C. A. Swartz, vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Maxey, secretary; Mrs. Bernice an Valzah, historian; Miss Pearl Snook, treasurer; Mrs. I. N. Endicott, chaplain. The executive committee is composed of Mrs. Van Zah, chairman, and Mrs. F. B. Hamlin, Mrs. Endicott, and Mrs. Jack Larson.

These officers will be installed at the meeting to be held January 4.

Mrs. Huntly reported on the success of the preparation by the auxiliary of a "Christmas cheer box" to be sent to the Veterans hospital at Portland. Local merchants donated material for the box, and also gave material to be made into hot water bottle covers, rugs, cigarettes, tobacco, razors, tobacco pouches, slippers, waste paper baskets, and home made candy are a few of the things to be sent to Portland from here by the auxiliary.

Success was also met with solicited in funds to be used for the support of the local auxiliary's orphan girl, Dorothy Bailey, of Portland.

Mrs. J. W. McInturff, secretary of the state department, is expected to visit the local unit some time during January. Plans for her entertainment are being made.
