OFFICERS HELD IN "HI-JACKING" PROBE

"Failure to notify the district attorney after having knowledge of violation of the prohibitory liquor law" is the charge against Dr. L. W. Peete, justice of the peace, and Al Hayne, deputy sheriff and constable, of the Oakridge district, who, with three others, are under arrest. The others, charged with perjury, are Jack Wright and his son, Walter Wright, 17, and Harry Brown, pool hall proprietor.

The case grew out of an alleged "hi-jacking" episode at Oakridge on December 10 in which it is asserted that 40 gallons of liquor were obtained, Hayne, it is alleged, helped to take the liquor from the rum runner, but failed to notify the district attorney of this fact.

Horseshoes Popular.

The ancient and honorable game of horseshoes has broken into the world of sport activity at the Springfield high school. The game is not confined to the boys, and both boys and girls will stage an interclass match as soon as the weather permits.

Gets Grove Appointment.

Mrs. Alice McMiller of Springfield, who recently took the government civil service examination for postoffice clerkship, has been appointed auxiliary clerk at Cottage Grove postoffice.

He Wins the Prize.

The most absent-minded man has been found at last. A friend called on him the other night and talked for ten minutes. Suddenly he arose, picked up his visitor's hat and overcoat, begged the astonished man's pardon for talking so long and said good-bye. He left his own house and hasn't been seen or heard of since. Have you seen him wandering about?

Farmer Jones says that while congress is trying to relieve the farmer's burden how about making it easier for the farmer's wife?

"The Strain is the same Anyway"—says Mrs. Randall

"No matter how badly the house and garage need to be painted, the strain is the same on our family budget and the cost of putting it on is more than the paint itself. . . . So," says Mrs. Randall, "we won't use anything but the best paint. And that is Acme Quality." With a 40-year reputation for weather resistance and long wear, it's the paint preferred by painters, too. Because it makes their efforts more fruitful and their customers satisfied.

You, Too, Can Receive Cash Dividends

MEANS BUYING AN INCOME

Many people receive extra funds at the end of the year. A great deal of this money is promptly invested in income paying securities by those who plan prosperous futures for themselves and dependents.

Investment in growing well-managed public utility industries is now most popular throughout the United States. In these securities are found a high factor of safety, a satisfactory rate of return and ready marketability in case the holder wishes to convert into cash.

Investment in these companies—so largely responsible for national development and prosperity—is favored by banks, insurance companies and millions of conservative citizens.

A Sterling Utility Investment Right Here At Home

You do not have to look far afield to find a high-grade public utility investment. Investigate the merits of that offered by Mountain States Power Company—its quality or management—its record of consecutive dividend payments, without interruption, on the due date.
