LIONS AND LIONESSES TO ATTEND STATE MEET

"Bring a big delegation of Lions and Lionesses to the dinner Friday night," is the way in which District Governor Frank Neer of Lions International ended a telegram which he sent to the local Lions club this week about the State Lions convention to be held in Corvallis Friday and Saturday of this week.

Probably a dozen local Lions and their wives will make the trip to Corvallis to attend the big convention. F. R. Hamlin and W. C. McLagan are the official delegates from the local luncheon club.

Governor Neer declared in his telegram that he was particularly anxious to make the state convention this year an unqualified success.

TOURISTS CAUGHT IN SNOWSTORM IN HILLS

Those who negotiated the McKenzie Pass on Sunday afternoon encountered a snow storm which, while hindering traffic, was not severe enough to cause more than discomfort to the many motorists who were in the summit country at that time.

Among Springfield people who were caught in the storm were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chase and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pengra and family, and Mrs. John Avitt and son, who composed a party that went to Bend Saturday, returning Sunday. Another local party in the mountains at the time was composed of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Flanery and family, Miss Carrie Flanery of Corvallis and Erna Webster, who made the trip to Bend and back on a single day.

Making the trip to Bend Saturday, returning the same day, were Mayor and Mrs. G. G. Bushman and daughter, Mrs. Graham Smith.

Many other local people were visitors to the summit and other places on the McKenzie highway during the week end.

Plan Quarterly Conference.

The second quarterly conference of the year is to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church tonight at 7:15 o'clock, with Dr. S. L. Chaney, district superintendent, in charge. Reports of church finance, membership, and activity, will be made by officials and heads of various departments.

Is Visitor Here—V. H. Seavey of Mohawk was a Springfield visitor Monday.

Here from Waltherville—Mrs. George Platt of Waltherville was here on Friday of last week.

Here from Thurston—Charles Grant of Thurston was here on business Saturday.

Kenneth Gossler Hurt. While working on the Southern Pacific's new railroad bridge construction here Monday, Kenneth Gossler was painfully injured when the hose on an air pressure hammer became disattached and blew sand and dirt into his face and arm. The sharp particles of sand were blown into the flesh, some penetrating to such a depth that a physician's knife was used in removing them. Provided infection does not set in in any of the wounds, no serious consequences are expected.
