GETTING CHILDREN READY FOR SCHOOL

The child who is ready to enter school should be fit for the best that education can bring him. The child should be free from all handicaps which may be prevented by intelligent care.

Too often when a child begins school, the teacher finds him handicapped because he has been neglected at home. Parents have failed to recognize that they are accountable and responsible for the proper development of their children.

Only a few weeks remain before the schools open to receive their youthful charges. This furnishes ample time for preparing the children for school.

You have undoubtedly purchased school clothes, but how about his health? He should be in the best possible condition to start the school year.

FRUIT CONDEMNED WITH TOO MUCH POISON SPRAY

Due to the fact that Oregon fruit is being condemned in Eastern and European market because of the present of fruit spray containing arsenic the state has taken steps to curb the selling of the fruit until it is wiped.

One-one hundredth of a grain of arsenic per pound of fruit is all that is allowed to get by on fruit sold. This inspection conforms with the Eastern and English requirements made after people had become ill from eating western fruit.

fruit grower the Oregon Agricultural college has agreed to make tests of fruit samples sent in through the county agent for $2.50 per pound. Whenever a farmer is not certain that his fruit will pass he is advised to have it tested before going to the expense of picking and packing.

Due to the absence of rain this season more of the late spray has stayed on the fruit than usual, according to County Agent Fletcher.

About Your Health

YOUR KNEES.

A perfect knee is a wonderfully constructed hinge, with its shock absorbers, its firm connecting bands, and its smooth, gliding "bearings." And, the knee-joint is a mighty ugly proposition when it is injured or diseased.

Knee injuries are very common, and even slight injury may result in serious damage. Over-use in heavy patients may result in diseased cartilages and roughened friction-surfaces which will take months or years to cure, even if cure be possible. The cartilages are often crowded out of place by pressure or strain, requiring surgical removal before relief may be had.

Even the knee-cap may be involved in inflammations about the joint; the "Synovial Membrane" lines the joint, and, when inflamed, becomes "synovitis", a most painful condition, and one always hard to cure. It is a serious matter when the synovial fluid escapes from its natural situation, and accumulates in a bag-like cavity, requiring tapping sometimes for relief of the severe pain.

Volumes could be written on the knee-joint and its diseases. I would like my readers to remember these points:

- (1) That all knee affections are serious, or capable of becoming so.
- (2) That rest and heat are among the first things thought of in successful treatment.
- (3) That massage in any form may be positively injurious.
- (4) That a skilled physician and surgeon should be consulted on the appearance of knee-symptoms.

Study Inoculated Legumes

Prof. W. V. Holverson, of the department of bacteriology of the Oregon Agricultural College, visited alfalfa plots in the county Wednesday to study fields where legumes have been inoculated with pure culture. Nearly all the experimental plots in the county have been so inoculated as well as some of the clover fields. The pure cultures were gotten from the college and the seed inoculated at the time of planting. This is said to assure successful growing of the legume crop.

Are You a Paradox?

A PARADOX, if I were required to define it, is a dolt who throws a Douglas shoe at his Big Ben, rolls off his Ostermoor onto a Congoleum rug, hops into his B. V.-D.'s, runs his Gillette quickly over his Mennen-lathered face, eats a hurried breakfast of Shredded Wheat and Postum, lights a Chesterfield on his way to the office and there, later in the day, dismisses an advertising solicitor with the blunt remark, "Advertising don't pay. It never sold me nothin'!"

If we are not doing your printing, somebody is to blame. Is it you or us?..
