TWO ARRESTED ON MOONSHINE CHARGE

Two Springfield men—William Wetzel, 55, and his son, Ray Wetzel, 35—are in the Lane county jail charged with illegal manufacture of intoxicating liquors, and a complete booze-making outfit is in the custody of authorities as the result of a raid on the Wetzel residence on First street at 2 o'clock this morning.

The raid was conducted by Police Chief Jess Smitson and sheriff's officers. The still is the first to be captured within the city limits within the regime of the present local peace authorities, according to Justice of the Peace R. W. Smith, who signed warrants at midnight authorizing the search of the Wetzel residence.

Ray Wetzel was arrested by sheriff's officers at third and Main streets shortly before midnight, after he had allegedly sold a bottle of liquor to a representative of the sheriff's office. According to the officer to whom the sale was made, Wetzel took him in a car out in the country and pretended to obtain the liquor from a field.

After the arrest of the young Wetzel, the officers conducted the raid on the residence, surprising William Wetzel in his bed. A hole was found cut in the floor by the cook stove in the kitchen, and within the compartment beneath the officers found a considerable quantity of mash. A copper coil, tank and boiler, and three sacks of sugar also were confiscated.

The asserted bootleggers are in the county jail awaiting preliminary hearing.

DIXIE QUARTET TO BE HEARD ON NOVEMBER 17

Springfield residents will be given an opportunity on November 17 to hear the Dixie Jubilee Quartet, musical entertainers who will appear at the high school under the auspices of the school on that evening. Receipts will go toward assisting finances of the school.

There is always something about the music of colored singers and players which touches a responsive chord in the heart of every listener. They do the things they love so well. They sing the old folk songs of the South in their own inimitable way. There is nothing so full of genuine sweetness, so full of melody, as these old negro songs with all their simplicity, and it takes the real negro to sing them as they should be sung. The success of The Dixie Jubilee Quartet is due to the fact that they stick very largely to these plantation melodies for which their voices are so peculiarly adapted. However, while the folk-lore songs are favored the program is interspersed with many humorous and popular selections.

The versatility of the company is remarkable and makes an intensely interesting and varied program possible. There is not a dull moment anywhere. Mr. Morris, the first tenor, is a cartoonist of rare ability. Always sees the funny side of everything and puts it in his original rapid drawings. The unexpected is liable to happen any time on his easel. Mr. Starks, second tenor, shows his versatility by playing the violin and saxophone. The personnel includes a brilliant pianist whose repertoire ranges from the gems of grand opera on down to modern popular numbers. Frequent references is often made by the press to Mr. Stewart as "The Black Paderewski." Mr. Bennette is a complete master of the banjo-guitar and ukulele and in his instrumental solos and duet numbers will make your feet mark time in spite of yourself. No music lover should miss this great worthwhile concert, a master effort by four real artists.

Queen Marie Drops In!

No sooner had she entered the front door than her eyes fell on our Toiletary Dept. and the gesticulations eyebrow gymnastics and language filled the room with pleasing sounds and movements!

Finally she calmed down and focusing her tongue on the English language, asked if it was true that this was the most interesting drug store in this County! Bowing modestly I acknowledged that this was the general opinion and asked if there was anything in particular she'd like to take home as a souvenir of her visit.

After a great deal of brow wrinkling she said finally she'd like an ounce vial of this SERVICE she'd heard we had in such fine quality.

After wrapping this up carefully in a special velvet and gold container, I presented it to her and with deep low bows, prettily rendered, Queen Marie vanished as suddenly as she had arrived.

And Lane County folks get samples of this service EVERY day! Free!

Dust Gathers On the Royal Cuticle!
Dust, grime, dirt is no respecter of persons. A King, a Queen, even a princess has to either wash or CAUSE to be washed—their FACES! And just as the Queen said to us—"There's NOTHING nicer I've ever seen than these Miller Rubber Sponges you sell here for 40c!" She bought four of them!

The Queen Promised to Write Often!
But not until I had shown her these new Sheaffer Fountain Pens. After she'd tried a couple she picked out the $7.50 one for herself and the $5 one for the King! She said she never even HEARD of a pen as marvelous as this one. (Ain't it great to live in the U. S. and be used to luxuries like these?)
