

TOWN AND VICINITY

Smith In—B. O. Smith of Natron was a business visitor here Tuesday.

McBee In—C. H. McBee of Lowell was a Springfield visitor Friday.

Natron Man Here—Grant Roberts of Natron paid Springfield a business visit Tuesday.

Thurston Man Here—George Platt of Thurston was among out-of-town visitors here Monday.

Winberry Man Here—V. L. Hucka, of Winberry spent a part of Tuesday in Springfield.

Here From Noti—Mrs. Hattie Berens of Noti spent Saturday in Springfield.

Fritts In Town—W. E. Fritts of Motor Route B. was a Springfield visitor Friday.

Here From Wendling—Mrs. Mary Greer of Wendling spent a part of Friday visiting in Springfield.

Greens Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green of Marcola were out-of-town visitors in Springfield Monday.

Here From Grove—Mrs. Carl Estep of Cottage Grove paid Springfield a business visit Monday.

Returns to Idaho—Mrs. E. J. Amen, who has been visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Amanda Miller, returned Wednesday to her home at Emmett, Idaho.

Goes to Portland—Reuben W. Smith justice of the peace, is in Portland this week visiting his daughter and family. He is expected back to his office Monday.

Move To Country—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Starr are moving to Motor Route B, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Carney In—Mr. and Mrs. Carney braved mud and high water to transact business in Springfield Tuesday.

Return From Honeymoon—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Shannon have returned following their honeymoon trip and are at home to their friends here.

Visit Collins Home—The E. W. Collins residence was visited Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parrish and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Peery and daughter, all of Noti.

Walterville people Here—Mrs. Harry Jackson of Walterville was a business visitor in Springfield Monday.

Mrs. Bain Home—Mrs. V. D. Bain was brought to her home here Tuesday from the Pacific Christian hospital. Both she and her baby daughter, Ruth Pauline, are reported doing well.

To Visit Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart and son, Morris, on Saturday are leaving for Portland where they will visit their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Sausser and family.

Bridge Plan Up
The Springfield bridge plan will be presented to the highway commission at its meeting next week by State Engineer McCulloch. It is understood the engineer was here early this week to look over the site for the new structure. State draftsmen are said to have the blueprints nearly ready.

Visits in Portland—Milford Allen spent the week-end in Portland.

Are Ill—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Donaldson are reported seriously ill at their Springfield residence.

Recovering from Flu—F. L. Beard is recovering from an attack of the influenza.

Gossier on Vacation—Walter Gossier, assistant in the postoffice, is taking a short vacation.

Here From Walterville—Steve Bowles of Walterville was a business visitor here yesterday.

Ralph Laird In—Ralph Laird of Pleasant Hill visited Springfield on business this morning.

Allen Here—C. W. Allen of Vida was a business visitor here Wednesday.

John McKendie Here—John McKendie of Oakridge was a Springfield visitor yesterday.

is Operated On—Doris Girard underwent a minor operation at the Pacific Christian hospital recently.

Here From Walterville—Mrs. Walter Carter of Walterville spent part of Wednesday in Springfield.

Eastons Visit—Among out-of-town visitors here yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Easton and family of Walterville.

Leaves for Spokane—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patterson left yesterday for their home in Spokane. Mr. Patterson has been employed for some time as a welder for the Eugene water board on the new pipe line here.

Returns from Hospital—Mrs. Tom Goddard, who recently underwent an operation at the Pacific Christian hospital, on Wednesday as removed to the residence of her mother-in-law, Mrs. S. M. Goddard.

visiting in Portland—J. Boutin, who is spending the winter with his daughters, Mrs. Harry Stewart of Springfield and Mrs. Ethel Miller and Mrs. C. F. Fisher of Eugene, is visiting in Portland with his brother, Frank Boutin.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

The Woolen mills, publicity plans, and other items of interest will be on the discussion program at a meeting of the Springfield chamber of commerce, to be held Friday night, according to President H. J. Cox.

The chamber executive urges all members to be present. The session will open at 7:30 o'clock in the Commercial bank building headquarters.

Woodcraft Initiates Five
Five candidates were initiated by the Neighbors of Woodcraft at last night's meeting. They were Mrs. James Laxton, Mrs. Nellie Pyne, Miss Lela Griffith, Miss Billie Berg and Miss Edith Hurd. Iona Byrne was elected a new member.

The following had part in a program: Allen Sneed, Bobbie Adams, E. J. June Yarnell, Virgil Cyr, Bobbie Rodenbaugh, Mrs. McGill, Ida Adams, Mrs. Kizer, June Berg, Leota Rodenbaugh, Harlan Duncan, Nellie Hildebrand, and others.

Needlecraft Meeting
The Needlecraft club met last week at the residence of Mrs. O. H. Jarrett, spending the afternoon in sewing and conversation. Two piano solos were played by Miss Margaret Jarrett, and at the close of the meeting a luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. E. May on the first Thursday in March.

Guard Has Inspection
March 10 is the date for the annual federal inspection of the Springfield headquarters company, 182 infantry, Oregon National Guard. Regular army officers will conduct the inspection, the first to be held since the organization of the local unit.

In preparation for the event, Major W. G. White of Eugene and Capt. Vincent Diaz of Salem conducted an inspection here last week. The local Guardsmen carried it off well, it is reported.

The payroll was received last Thursday, totaling more than $400.

Marriage Licenses Issued
During the past week County Clerk R. S. Bryson has issued marriage licenses to the following: Glenn Snook and Edith Selma Benson, both of Eugene; Edith Bothwell and Zella Creson, both of Noti; Norman Emery, Marcola, and Grace Powell, Victor, Montana; Floyd Peters Cottage Grove and Lucille Isaacson, Eugene; George Adams, Chehalis, and Stella Adams, Medford.

FOR RENT

I have some good furnished and unfurnished houses and apartments for $12.00 up to $25.00.

W. M. VASBY, Phone 73-J, 312 Main.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

Henry W. Young, publisher of the Coquille Valley Sentinel at Coquille, is dead, aged 79.

Six alleged young auto thieves were arrested in Medford and Ashland and are in the county jail.

Oregon City has passed an ordinance by which all dogs must be kept from public places, unless led by a leash.

Four hundred and eighty-two students are enrolled in the various departments of Willamette university at Salem.

The Dufur school is closed because of the influenza epidemic. Out of 64 pupils enrolled 37 are suffering from the malady.

L. Albert of Portland was elected president of the Oregon Bottlers' association at its 15th annual convention in Salem.

Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, head of Morningside hospital in Portland and donor to the city of four important statues, died in Glendale, Cal.

The next annual forest fire conference will be held in Portland in 1928. It was decided at the meeting of the conference in Tacoma.

The Bandon high school debating teams won the Coos county championship when both negative and affirmative orators scored victories.

Seymour Jones, for many years a rancher of Marion county, has been appointed state market agent to succeed C. H. Spence, who resigned.

Three principals, ten teachers and a large number of children were absent from the city schools of Eugene because of illness from influenza and colds.

Chinese pheasants and Hungarian partridges weathered the severely cold weather in eastern Oregon recently in much better condition than was at first thought.

Linn county has received a draft on the treasurer of the United States for $198,346.47, its share of the Oregon & California land grant refund recently authorized.

Influenza rapidly is becoming epidemic in the state, 350 cases being reported by Dr. Frederick D. Stricker, secretary of the state board of health, for the past week.

Construction work on Medford's new $75,000 city hall, which is to be completed by next July for use as a temporary courthouse for the next five years, has been begun.

Award of the annual Union Pacific system scholarship of $100 to Stanley Neuroser, 16-year-old Clatsop county schoolboy, was announced by G. W. Roberts, agent for the line.

The Harrisburg city water has been found in a recent official analysis to contain but two bacteria to the cubic centimeter or as nearly a perfect grade as water may ever show.

Seventy-two persons, of whom 47 were immediate relatives, attended the family reunion and observance of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sutton at Port Orford.

Thomas McCormick Jr. of Keno is near death and Aaron Moore, groceryman of the same town, is under arrest on an open charge as the result of a shooting affray on the main street of the town.

A scarcity of logs, due to inability to operate its camps in the deep snow, caused the sawmill of the Willamette Valley Lumber company at Dallas to suspend operations until weather conditions improve.

The state board of education at a special meeting at Salem voted to sign contracts with the publishers for textbooks adopted at the last annual meeting of the state textbook commission held last November.

The Dalles will furnish an improved site for the eastern Oregon tuberculosis hospital and a macadam connecting road, it was decided in a special city election. A $15,000 bond issue for this purpose carried, 773 to 118.

A coyote carcass sent from Izee, Grant county, to the United States biological survey office in Portland, has been examined by William Levin, laboratorician for the state board of health, and found to be affected by rabies.

A group of Salem and Woodburn men has made application to the national forest service for the lease of Terwilliger hot springs on the south fork of the McKenzie river, seven miles above its confluence with the main stream.

The Hood River valley lost two of its oldest apple trees when Charles Mercall used the axe on an old Gravenstein and a Russet Red. The trees were part of the Home Orchard planted by M. B. Foster, pioneer of the Balmont district, 66 years ago.

Save on your Groceries

Just a word to our many Customers and Friends

We have just been open for business two weeks to day and wish to say that we are more than satisfied with the business we have had.

So many of our customers have remarked on the low price we are selling groceries and feed for and the strictly high grade Merchandise we handle.

Here are just a few of our regular prices (not Specials).

Corvallis No. 1 Creamery Butter	49c	Corn Flakes and Post	10c
Fresh Eggs (Guaranteed)	25c	Toasties Pkg.	10c
Coos Bay Cheese (Nothing Better), Lb.	30c	4 lbs. Paid Lard	72c
5 Lbs. Brick	$1.45	5 lbs. Paid Lard	$1.52
Canned Milk (any kind)	10c	10 Bars Crystal White Soap	.37c
2 cans Peas No. 2	25c	12 Oz. Canvas Gloves	25c
2 cans Corn No. 2	25c	2 pairs	1.40
Campbell Soups (all kinds)	9c	49 Lbs. Del Monte Hard
6 Large Boxes Matches	21c	Wheat Flour Sk.	$1.93
3 lbs. Box Soda Crackers	39c	100 lbs Good Potatoes	$1.85

Remember if you want to buy your groceries and feed at the lowest possible price see us.

We handle the Sperry line of feed which will stand the highest test either in Poultry or Dairy Products.

A. R. Sneed GROCERIES AND FEED

We Deliver

Phone 79

J.C. PENNEY Co.

942 Willamette St., Eugene, Oregon.

Colorful Displays For Springtime

There is no season when a visit to a store is attended with such abundance of enjoyment and satisfaction as in February when the new style ideas for the bright Spring days are beginning to occupy the center of attraction.

You will find this particularly true of a visit to this Store at this time. The sunshine and warmth of Spring in the offing are brilliantly reflected in the colorful displays this Store is presenting.

The displays are being added to with nearly every coming express. A cordial invitation is extended to you to inspect our new displays whether you buy or not.

J.C. Penney Co.

TO-MORROWS

that never come

How many hundreds of dollars have you let slip through our fingers without real value received in the past year—always with the thought that "tomorrow I will save some?" If they were in a savings account today you would have a better opinion of life and stand a better chance to be a success.

Don't put it off for another "tomorrow." Come into this bank today and put a dollar or more in a savings account. You will be surprised how quickly you can get a thousand dollars. Do today what you have put off for hundreds of tomorrows that have never come.

Protected by Electric Burglarly Alarm System
A GOOD BANK IN A GOOD COUNTRY

Commercial State Bank
Springfield, Oregon

Baby Beef

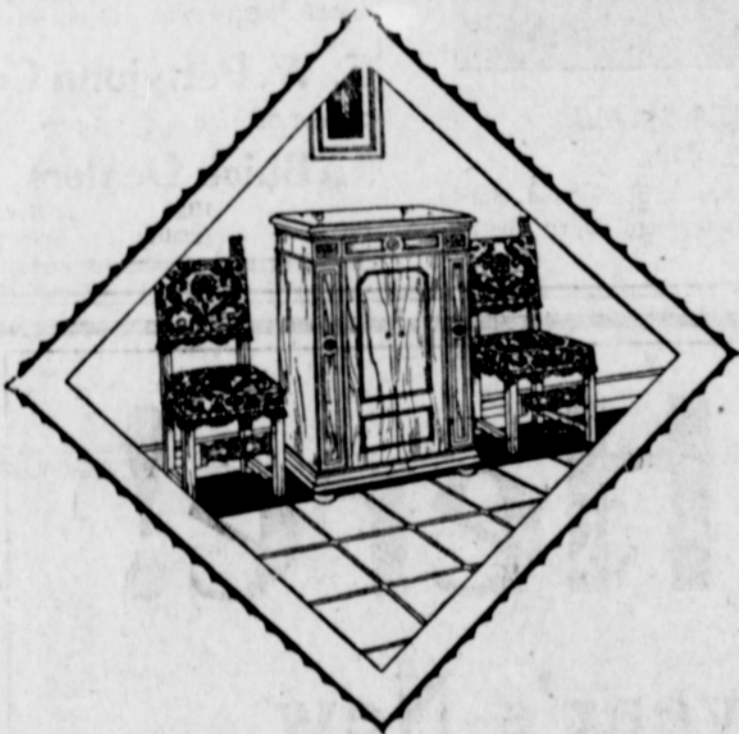

Milk Fed A Real Treat

A nice tender roast or a juicy steak from this meat will make your dinner a complete success.

The Smelt run is now at its Best. The price is low. Buy now.

INDEPENDENT MEAT CO.

4th and Main Phone 63 Springfield, Ore.

You should have this most companionable, most versatile of entertainers... for your home

THIS marvelous instrument achieves the almost impossible. You can shut your eyes and see a great symphony orchestra... be at a cabaret table hearing smart dance music... or listen to a crack military band, passing beneath your window. Come in—let us demonstrate—soon.

WETHERBEE-POWERS, Eugene, Oregon

The New Orthophonic

Victrola