PAGE FOUR

DREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for

Our Readers.

The school at Rogue River has been closed on account of infantile paralysis.

The Metolius market road in Deschutes county is now complete. It extends from Sisters to the Jefferson county line.

C. L. Starr of Portland was reappointed by Governor Patterson a member of the board of regents of state pormal schools.

Cottage Grove is developing into a shipping point for pears. A larger part of the pears are brought from Lorane, 10 miles, by truck.

The Gilliam county fair was held last week at Condon, with a record attendance and good exhibits. The town was decorated for the occasion.

The prune harvest is now under full swing in Polk county. The orchards are very spotted, some running to a full crop and others to practically nothing.

The First State Bank of Seaside failed to open its doors for business last Thursday, a notice being posted that the banking house is closed for reorganization.

The four-day annual Wallowa county fair was held last week, the only county fair now held in eastern Oregon, with other counties, particularly Union, participating.

A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rue of Silverton has been christened Lindaline. She was born at the moment Lindbergh was circling over Silverton recently.

For the first time in many years Jackson county will have no displays at the state fair at Salem, because the county court failed this year to make the usual appropriation.

Newt Downs, 55, a pioneer resident of the Powwatka district near Wallowa, was killed instantly when struck on the head by a falling limb while cutting timber on Bear creek.

A contract for the construction of the highway bridge over Deer creek. in Roseburg, was let recently by the city council to the firm of Samuel & Neff of Salem, for $$7,239.47.

Gusty wind storms which prevailed over mid-Columbia orchard districts last week took a heavy toll of winter pears. In some instances the wind felled 30 per cent of the fruit.

Five hundred North Bend citizens are petitioning the Coos county court to continue night ferry service across Coos bay on the Roosevelt highway between North Bend and Glasgow.

Killing a big black bear and wounding, probably fatally, a huge cougar, were thrills reported by a party of archers who have returned from a hunting trip in the north Umpqua dis-

Blasting by contractors on the Roosevelt highway near Winchester bay last week disturbed the water mains leading from Clear lake and shut off the Reedsport water supply for a day. Governor Patterson has issued a letter urging observance of "American Indian day," which falls on the last Friday in September. The letter was issued at the request of the American Indian association.

Registration on the opening day of Albany college's 60th year indicates a freshman class of about 60 members, the largest in the institution's history, and an increased enrollment in the three upper classes.

Blister rust, which blights and kills lumbia river into white pine territory in Oregon, defeating the restrictions, United States forest service.

The Salem public schools opened last week with a registration of 4064. ate an atmosphere of this kind? The enrollment on the opening day last year was 3973. School officials said the enrollment for 1928 would exceed 4500 before October 1. At the special congressional election to be held in Multnomah county October 18, this year, 92,589 qualified voters will be permitted to vote, according to the compilation of duly registered voters prepared recently.

Experiments on the east side places of Mrs. Friday and son and W. E. Sherman at Hood River have demonstrated that codling moth may be controlled with dust spray and that the fruit may be packed and shipped without the necessity of hydrochloric acid baths.

A German cannon and a breastplate armor have been presented to the Willamette university museum at Salem by Charles J. Lisle, son of the curator. The cannon was captured at Montfaucon during the war. The breastplate armor is one of the only two of its kind in the state.

Oregon's 66th annual fair, which Wilson, secretary of the fair board and general manager of the event.

hills and hundreds of quartz claim notices scattered through thousands the nucleus of a new town coming in- Doesn't that conjure up a picture that to existence in the past few days at Windy Point, on the McKenzie Pass highway, west of Sisters.

Judge George W. Riddle, 87, commandant at the Oregon State Soldiers' home at Roseburg, died unexpectedly from a heart attack last week. Judge Riddle, formerly county judge of Douglas county and who represented his county in three legislative sessions, was an Indian war veteran and a ploneer of 1851. The town of Riddle was named for his family.

Establishment of a state analytical aboratory for determining and controlling the purity of drugs was an nounced in Corvallis by representatives of the Oregon board of pharmacy. The laboratory is now being housed in the pharmacy building to enable the director to have the advantage of scientific libraries and equipment belonging to the college. The Indian spectacle at the Pendle ton Round-Up this year surpassed anything in former years, think many old timers. Actual count showed that there were 1540 Indians camped on the grounds. This number included members of the three reservation tribes there, Cayuse, Umatilla and nounced that it would enlarge by 50 Walla Walla, and Nez Perce and Yakima and Toppenish area Indians. Five thousand male deer were killed in Oregon during the first 10 days of the 1927 deer hunting season, according to carefully considered estimates made at the state game commission office. It was said that this almost certainly is the largest number of deer ever killed in the state during that many years.

THE SPRINGFIELD NEWS

In Confidence

TWO GIRL QUESTIO NS-TWO ANSWERS Dear Miss Flo:every grown man and woman would

I read your recent article about hus like to have in his memory gallery? bands and wives who are continually And isn't it an ideal that every mother quarreling, and it reminded me so and father should leave to their chilmuch of my own home life that I dren ?! wanted to write to you about it. It seems to me that you neglected to Dear Miss Flo:--- mention the most vital point in the matter-and that, is the effect such a home life has on the children. . I am a girl of twenty-one, and my whole life has been full of bitterness that has been caused by the constant wrangling, abuse and disrespect of my parents. .. I .wouldn't .dare. bring .a white pine trees, has crossed the Co- friend home with me for fear of betraying this terrible state of affairs. I wonder if parents wouldn't stop their quarantines and embargoes of the constant bickering if they gould be made to realize the grave injustice they do their children when they cre-A. W.

. . . . There is no doubt about it-parrental quarrels strike at the root of a child's happiness as nothing else ever does, and the children are the real victims in these family fights. For it is they who stumble from the domestic scene of battle with shattered nerves, bitter disillusions, lost ideals, and cyndical opinions of life in general.

All of us have known children who have taken to the streets almost as soon as they could walk to escape homes that were full of bickering and discord. If you make inquiry of the officers that come in contact with runaway boys and girls they will tell you that family guarrels are responsible in the greatest number of cases for wayward girls and hoodlum boys. They found life at home too thoroughly unpleasant to stick it out. One of the worst features of the guarreling parents is the belittling of themselves in the eyes of the young. It results in a complete loss of pride in and opened its gates for a full week at respect for the parents, and you do Salem Monday, saw the greatest exhi- the child the most incalculable damage bition of the state's agricultural that can be done. For no greater wealth and potentialities ever dis- influence for good comes within a played, according to Mrs. Ella Schultz child's scope than the mutual respect of mother and father. And if it isn't present when the child is at its most With scores of prospectors in the impressionable age, one of the greatest beauties of life is lost forever.

One of the finest tributes to parents of acres of timber, central Oregon's fell from the lips of the daughter of greatest mining excitement in over a a great statesman. "I never heard a quarter of a century has resulted in raised voice in my home." she said.

says he loves me but who is twice my age. Do you think I could be happy at yesterday's meeting. with him? B. D.

. . . .

It seldom works out successfully, of the Pacific northwest is operated B. D. You wouldn't have the same with higher standards and shorter interests as the older man, and after hours than obtain in the south, and the glamour has worn off you'll be that the south is competing with the enjoy the same things you do. Any-have had your share of the good things that belong to youth.

By FLO

LUMBER WORKERS IN SOUTH WORK LONGER

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Sept. 22-(Specall)-The lumber industry of the outh and that of other parts of the minimum wage scales of the organi-United States which are now working ration. nine and ten hours per shift should be placed on a parity with the eighthour lumber industry of the Pacific tions; and the recent tendency of sevnorthwest, according to a resolution eral non-member sawmills to operate passed by unanimous vote of the 4L more than eight hours per shift came I am a girl eighteen, and have been district boards of the western pine in for discussion. The eight-hour disgoing around quite a bit with fellows producing districts, in session here cussion brought out the resolution my own age or just a little older. yesterday. The boards are composed asking the governing board of the 4L Recently, however, I met a man who of equal numbers of employes and to work for eight hour legislation for employers. Eighty-four were present

> Discussion of the resolution brought out the facts that the lumber industry glad to have younger friends-who northwest in the same markets. Mayor Natwick welcomed the visiway, you shouldn't think of love for tors in the name of the city and told Pyne, is visiting at her home. He will several years yet-you have plenty of of the close industrial harmony and time for that in later years-after you good conditions that have prevailed Mrs. Durwood Thompson of Gladstone W. C. Ruegnitz, Portland, 4L presi- will be week-end visitors at the Pyne dent, reported that the organization home had continued to progress in the past aix months despite uncertain conditions that have affected the industry generally.

No change was made in present

Extension of wood uses; 4L group in-urance; 4L mutual benefit associathe entire industry. The governing body of the 4L, the board of directors, will hold its eighteenth semi-annual meeting November 14 in Portland. The next district meeting, that of the Puget Sound country, will be held in Tacoma, October 11.

Visit from North-Charles Jordan of Portland, a brother of Mrs. E. E. return north Sunday evoning. Mr. and

S. G. MOSHIER, S. S. Superin-

0 tendent.

COME AND RALLY With Us

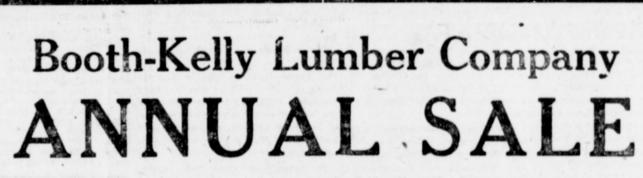

Sunday, October 2nd, at 9:45

Rally Day and Homecoming At the Christian Church, Springfield

Special Music for Sunday School and Church Services

Church Services

Morning Theme 11:00 A. M. "Story of Mark Carmel" S. EARL CHILDERS

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 29, 1927

The Berry Growers Packing company at Gresham is making arrangements for the canning of 100 to 150 tons of prunes, says the weekly bulletin of Seymour Jones, state market agent.

With many of the departments enlarged and several new ones added, the 16th annual exhibition of the Coos and Curry County Fair association was held at Myrtle Point last week.

The Western Lumber company of Marshfield, manufacturing white cedar veneer and other products, anper cent its operations and manufacturing.

A lion, belonging to the Honest Bill circus, which showed at Port Orford last week, bit off the left arm of Oris Fromm, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fromm of Brushes Creek, near Port Orford.

Portland set a new low record for fire losses since November, 1921, when length of time. This is the best deer the losses for August were $7879.17, hunting season Oregon has had in despite the fact that the month set a record of its own in continuous hot weather.

the Hill lines into Coos bay from Eugene will be made shortly. The information says the work will be started in the spring, and circulators desources. According to the gossip, the and cross the bay at Marshfield.

The commercial fishing season at ing from the enormous catches the big nine-tunnel structure on the brought in, the run of silversides and J. H. Booth farm, near Myrtle Creek, chinooks, as well as steelheads, will far exceed last year and several years The drier was full of fruit. The loss previous.

A norticultural freak was discovered S. A. Nye ranch at Talent, consisting were found on the one branch of the vetch raisers are pooling their crop tree only.

There were five fatalities due to industrial accidents in Oregon during

A report is current in Marshfield the week ending September 22, acthat announcement of extension of cording to the report of the state industrial accident commission. The victims were Frank Spaetig, Mohler, chainman; Horace I. Lapham, Carlton, wood cutter; Orville H. Gaines, Portclare the word comes from authentic! land, meterman; Frank B. Sagaberd, Marshfield, boat operator, and Howroad will come into the Coos bay area ard Clark, Coquille, wood cutter. In from the northeast, down Coos river all 911 accidents were reported to the commission during the week.

The first prune drier fire in Doug-Waldport began Tuesday, and, judg- las county this season occurred when was burned to the ground last week. will be about $7000.

Ranchers in the Coquille valley who by N. S. Bennett of Medford on the harvest purple vetch this fall are in some cases realizing the equivalent of of several "sport" Bartlett pears of a $120 an acre. It is common to find rich golden russet. All the russets an acre running 1500 pounds. The which is expected to be about 30 tons

We will start our annual clean-up Lumber Sale at our Springfield mill on Monday, October 3rd.

Get your list ready and come early if you expect to get in on the real bargains. Many of these items offered will be cleaned up during the first few days but there will be plenty of good building material left for any ordinary use.

We are Offering the Following:

	Per M.
40,000 ft. 2x4 R·L Sized @	$ 8.00
40,000 ft. 1x8 Shiplap	8.00
10,000 ft. 1x10 and 1x12 Shiplap	8.00
5,000 ft. 1x4 Common SIS	7.00
10,000 ft. 1x6 " "	7.50
10,000 ft. 1x8 " "	8.00
8,000 ft. 1x12 " "	7.50
10,000 ft. 4x6-12' Sized	9.00
10,000 ft. 2x6 R. L. "	11.00
5,000 ft. 2x8, " "	11.00
2,000 ft. 2x10 " "	11.00
10,000 ft. 2x12 " "	11.00
30,000 ft. 1x6 Com. SIS	10.00
20,000 ft. 1x8 " - "	10.00
10.000 ft. 1x12 " " "	11.00
10,000 ft. 1x8 " Shiplap	10.00
5,000 ft. 1x10 " "	10.00
5,000 ft. 2x6 T. & G. Silo Stock	25.00*
10,000 ft. 2x6 Decking T. & G.	15.00

1	Per M.
15,000 ft. 3/4x3 F. G. Flooring @	$15.00
10,000 ft. 5/8x6 Rustic, Stained	17.50
3,000 ft. 5%x3 Ceiling	15.00
1,500 ft. B. N. Base and Casing	25.00
3,000 ft. 5/8x4 Com. Bev. Rustic	12.50
2,000 ft. 5/8x6 V. Rustic	17.50
10.000 ft. 1x4 F. G. Flooring K. D	22.00
30,000 ft. 1x4 and 1x6 Rustic	22.00
30,000 ft. 5% and 3% Clg.	18.00
1,500 ft. 1x3 F. G. Flg. Old Std.	15.00
2,000 ft. 11/4 x4 V. G. Fig. Old Std.	15.00
20,000 L. ft. Short O. G. Battens	.40
20,000 Stained Lath	2.00
5,000 ft. 4x4, 4x6 and 6x6 Cedar	15.00
10,000 ft. 4x4 Fir S4S	12.00
5,000 ft. 2x4, 2x6 and 2x8 4 ft.	5.00
5,000 ft. 1x8-4. 6 and 8' Com. S1S	9.00
3,000 ft. Short Flg., Clg and Rrst.	7.50
and other items in smaller lots at proportionate prices	n. here

These are all real bargains, many of them below cost and all at a big reduction from our regular retail prices,

Come and see what we have to offer. If you cannot get all you need from our bargain list we can fit you out from our very complete stock of OLD GROWTH DURABLE DOUGLAS FIR LUMBER which we are selling at very low prices.

If you haven't the cash it will pay you to borrow since this opportunity comes but once a year.

Prices are for cash at our Springfield mill. Sale will continue for two weeks.

THE BOOTH-KELLY LUMBER COMPANY By Manager, Retail Dept.