GOVERNMENT IN BUSINESS

There were 1,250,000,000 post cards carrying a one cent stamp going through the postoffice yearly. Congress reasoned that if a two cent stamp was required the government would get twice the money. So it was done. When the count was made at the end of a year the postoffice had $8,000,000 less revenue from this source than the year previous and $18,000,000 less than congress figured that it would have. Furthermore there was no appreciable increase in the number of government postal cards used. As a result of the government order, post card manufacturers went out of business everywhere putting many people out of work. Business is not a mathematical problem. The law of diminishing returns works ahead of any man made laws and congress had not found this out.

ABOUT THE WEATHER

We in Oregon are prone to complain a great deal about the weather especially during times of heavy rains and spring floods. When we feel that way we should give a thought to the St. Louis tornado disaster and other similar ones. The middle west is due for several of these storms every year that destroys much life and property. Here practically all the damage done by weather is to the crops, there seldom being any loss of other property or life. Let's be thankful for our weather.

If a city builds or buys an electric power plant it takes from the tax rolls that much taxable property as it would be taxed under private ownership. Farmers of California are attempting to have these municipal plants taxed since in escaping taxation they claim that they are compelled to pay more taxes for the benefit of people in the cities. Some of the larger cities have spent millions of dollars for lighting plants located in the country and if taxed would make a considerable difference in the assessed valuation of the communities in which they are located. In our effort to create equal taxation city, state and country properties can well be taken into consideration in Oregon.

France now is putting a higher tariff on American goods than those of Germany, her war time enemy. It seems that every time Uncle Sam starts out to be the good Samaritan, some European country takes advantage of him. After all a hard boiled foreign policy such as Roosevelt exercised is probably better for all concerned.

One condition French women say they cannot understand in America. American women seem so independent of the men in their conduct while they are so dependent on them for money. In France the condition is reversed.

Sampson lost his power when he got his hair cut. So did Aimee after she had a boyish bob.

Missourians are erecting a monument, through popular subscriptions, to the memory of Jesse James. Here is a chance for Tex Richard, World series magnates and landlords to contribute to "inspiration."

The Post Office Department has decided to curtail mailorder houses from shipping unsolicited merchandise, in their effort to foist undesirable goods on the public. We like the selection and use of that word—"Cur-tail."

The Department of Commerce announces that marriages in Illinois increased during 1926. Evidently the citizens are going on the theory that, "in union there is strength"—and safety. Organizing to gang the gangsters, eh?

The wisdom of Benjamin Franklin becomes more apparent every day. When he flew his kite, 134 years ago—he had the idea that flying should be controlled.

German scientists have improved three new anaesthetics. Which should be most interesting news to our coal barons who are getting ready to boost prices.

Looking at some of the April pampered gardens on the way to the office this October morn, we agree with scientists who claim plants suffer. Many not only suffer—but die.

Grandfather use to graciously ask for a girl's hand—but his offspring today will be satisfied with nothing less than a neck.

Al from Albany will no doubt attempt to lead the democratic mule out of the desert to a more moist climate.

The Folks That Live in Small Towns
(Nations Business)

"What good," asked a momentarily despondent advertising man, "is there in inciting people to buy things which perhaps they don't want? Half the folks that buy the things I help to sell would be just as well off without them. What good is a radio except to bring into houses more noise, more jazz?"

And then he went back to his desk and found a copy of a letter to the maker of the radios which he advertised:

I am a little girl without sight. However, that does not keep me from enjoying life.

After leaving school, I spent three years at the Toronto Conservatory of Music. While there I heard most of the world's greatest artists. Then we came to C—

There are no musicians here. Living in a small town seemed absolutely hopeless, but now that I have a radio I don't mind it at all. I look forward to your programs from one week to the next. It means so much to me. The great artists thrill me through and through. I am so very grateful to you. Thank you a thousand times for making me so happy.

And in sending the letter to the man to whom he had voiced the complaint the advertising man added:

"Not a typical case? No. Few of us are blind? Yes. But many of us live in C—"

Anything Wrong?

"May, I'm surprised! Your dress barely covers your body."
"Well, what's the matter with my body?"

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION IN FORECLOSURE

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale in foreclosure issued out of the Circuit Court of Lane County, Oregon, on the 9th day of September, 1927, in a suit wherein on the 8th day of September, 1927, in said court Thaker Dev Sharrman, recovered judgment against the defendants John D. Bagley and Mary Bagley for the sum of $1585.98 together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from July 1, 1926, and the further sum of $35.00 attorneys fees, together with costs and disbursements herein in the sum of $1640, which judgment was entered and docketed in the Clerk's office of said County on the 8th day of September, 1927, and said execution to me directed, commanding me in the name of the State of Oregon, in order to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit and accruing costs to sell the following described real property, to-wit:

All of the lot numbered 36 in College Crest Addition to Eugene, being about five and five-eighths acres, situated in Lane County, Oregon.

Now, therefore in the name of the State of Oregon, in compliance with said execution and order of sale and in order to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorneys fees, costs of suit and accruing costs, I will on Saturday the 15th day of October, 1927, at the hour of one o'clock, in the afternoon of said day, at the Southwest front doors of the County Court House in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, offer for sale and sell for cash, at public auction, subject to redemption as provided by law, all of the right, title and interest of said defendants, John D. Bagley and Mary Bagley, and of persons claiming by, through or under them or any or either of them in and to said premises.

FRANK E. TAYLOR, Sheriff of Lane County, Oregon.

Which is Best?

When you come here for Ice Cream or Candy the only difficulty you experience is in selecting the kind you like best—they're all so good. But right there is where our service comes in. There's nothing we would rather do than explain the merits of our goods. We make 'em ourselves and know all about 'em. No guessing with us.

Camel

Climbing to new heights of popularity

Government figures show that more Camels are being smoked today than ever before. One after another Camels passed them all.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
