UPPER WILLAMETTE

Honoring her 17th birthday, Mrs. Mitchell gave her daughter a pleasant surprise party Saturday night, October 15. Games were played throughout the evening until refreshments were served at midnight. Those present were Isabel and Jenny Lee Green of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Holstington of Pleasant Hill, Mr. and Mrs. McPeck and two daughters, Thelma and Nina, Opal Moore, Frank Moore, Floyd Lord, Alvin, Emma, and Belle Olson, Carl Linton, Donald Kabler and Peggy McDaniels.

At the Pleasant Hill Christian church last Sunday Mrs. Madden spoke on missionary work in Japan.

Mrs. T. F. Kabler, who was recently chosen superintendent of the Pleasant Hill Sunday school, has started a cradle roll and Mrs. C. P. Williams chairman of that department has been busy registering the babies of the district.

The annual freshman reception promises to be a very amusing and entertaining evening next Friday, October 21. The party will be a masquerade and already the young folks are planning their costumes.

The pupils of the Pleasant Hill public school are busy planning a Halloween program and supper. This will be the one money making program of the year, the proceeds to go toward play equipment.

The Pleasant Hill public school board have greatly improved the play shed by flooring it and boarding the south side a third of the distance from the ground. Now the youngsters can swing, play basketball or skate without being in clouds of dust.

The ladies of Pleasant Hill met at the home of Opal Moore for an all day quilting bee last week. Dinner was served at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Chenery Bartlett recently of Philadelphia, visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wangellin last week. Mr. Bartlett has just installed an oil refinery at Spokane and was on his way to Los Angeles.

Miss Jaunita Lombard of Springfield is helping at the Tinker ranch during apple season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Curtis and three children motored to Portland Sunday to see their daughter, Vadette, who is in the hospital there. They were met in Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Curtis of Idaho, and Mrs. Titsworth, mother of Mrs. Curtis. Mrs. Titsworth returned to Pleasant Hill with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Curtis and children of Idaho are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Curtis of Pleasant Hill.

The farmers were very busy during the last few warm days. Tractors were heard running late into the night. After the rains of September the ground was in splendid condition for fall planting of grain.

Hunting season being on it is a common sight to see men with guns and dogs tramping across the fields. Pheasants are more plentiful this year than last year.

Veneta Woman Here—Mrs. Floyd Taylor of Veneta was a visitor here Wednesday.

GARDEN WAY

Miss Gertrude Haugann who is attending the university went to Portland over the week-end to attend the Oregon-California football game.

Mrs. Margaret Pengra accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harlow to Portland Saturday where they will be the guests of their sister, Mrs. J. H. Zimmer. Mrs. Pengra will probably remain in Portland a week. The Harlows who have been visiting relatives and friends here for the past several weeks will return to their home in Farmington, Washington.

Warren Collingwood was united in marriage to Margaret Chapman of Santa Clara at the home of the bride's parents, Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Sykes of Springfield in the presence of about fifty friends and relatives. After the ceremony a dinner was served. Mr. Collingwood came here from Nebraska two years ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Collingwood. The young couple left in the afternoon for Portland. On their return they will make their home on the Harlow ranch (formerly owned by R. McCornack) where the young man has been employed. Those attending the wedding from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Collingwood, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Collingwood and family, and L. W. Collingwood of Bailey Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fisher of Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stolsig and children of Lorane spent Sunday at the S. O. Cogswell home.

Miss Angeline Seaverson of Springfield spent Friday night with Alma Fish.

Mrs. J. H. Fish has received word from her brother, Earl Bailey of Schuyler, Nebraska, that they are leaving for Oregon where they intend to make their home.

Grace Maxwell attended the football game in Portland last Saturday.

Forest Anderson, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, underwent a major operation at the Pacific Christian hospital Monday morning. Dr. Rebhan of Springfield has charge of the case. Forest is reported today as getting on satisfactorily.

Miss Mariam Male who teaches in the Vaughn district is home, her school having been closed on account of a death in that neighborhood from infantile paralysis. A young man, Alvin Rude, aged 20 was the victim. He died at the home of his uncle, Ed Dahlin, who formerly resided in this vicinity.

Miss Bessie Williams county health nurse, Dr. Stannard and Dr. Waller of Eugene are holding a clinic in the school house today. Thirty-six children will be given a general physical examination. Those assisting are: The teachers (Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington), Mrs. Chas. Cole, Mrs. Ralph Cole, Mrs. W. R. Hardie, Mrs. R. Honey, Mrs. Marvin Chase, Mrs. J. H. Holton, Mrs. Harry Chase, Mrs. J. R. Fish, Mrs. Dewey Ray, Mrs. Ira Pengra, Miss Edna Pattison and Mrs. Clarence Chase.

WOODCRAFT INVEST MONEY IN OREGON

Portland, October 20:—Schools, highways, parks, water, sewer, electric light and other projects in nine western states are benefiting from the investment of state and municipal securities of a grand total of $3,575,518.90 of funds of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, according to a bulletin just issued by Mrs. Minnie Hiner, as grand guardian, the supreme official of the order, which has its headquarters here. The bulletin registers the distribution as follows:

Idaho—$1,199,327 in highways, school districts, funding, water works and street improvements.

Oregon—$900,181.83 in paving, funding, water and sewer work, school districts, improvement, municipal, electrical light, general obligation, refunding levee, and street and park improvement.

Wyoming—$278,332.75 in school districts, water, sewer and refunding.

Utah—$258,487.35 in school districts, roads, water.

Montana—$236,555.65 in refunding, funding, school districts and water.

Colorado—$219,040.39 in water works, sewer, irrigation.

Nevada—$214,316.33 in high schools, school districts, sewer, park improvement, water.

Washington—$138,746.10 in irrigation, water, water revenue, electric light and power.

California—$64,501.59 in union high school, improvement, water and road improvement. Riverside, California, is the location of the $300,000 home of the order on a 65 acre tract of valuable land.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft have just launched a campaign to increase the membership of the order from approximately 75,000 to 100,000, coincidental with completion of plans to immediately erect a magnificent administration building in this city.

CITY RETIRES $2000 IN BANCROFT BONDS

Two Bancroft bonds of $1000 each were retired this week by the Town of Springfield, assessments having been paid in sufficient to make the action possible.

General financial condition of the city is satisfactory, according to Recorder I. M. Peterson. General obligation bonds will not come due now until 1930.

OLSON PLANS PROGRAM FOR MEETING NOV. 11

Oswald Olson has been placed in charge of plans for the program at the foreign war veterans get-together scheduled for November 11, according to John Will, American Legion commander.

The affair, he said, is for the Legion, the Auxiliary, and all veterans of foreign wars living in Springfield. He urged that as many as possible make plans for reserving the date in their schedule, promising a good time.

Sweet cream rather than sour is now generally used for Oregon butter-making, reports the dairy specialists of the experiment station, whereas a few years ago nearly all butter was churned from sour cream. This change calls for delivery of sweet cream by the dairies, an easy task if the right directions are followed. "Once you get the habit of delivering sweet cream you will find it as easy as the old sour cream habit," says the report.

GIRLS LEARN HOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL— BUT

Something new in the way of a lecture was given at the Springfield high school yesterday by Leonard Mayfield, athletic coach.

He told girls how to play football. Not that local gridiron fans are to have the pleasure of witnessing feminine exponents of the spinners play or the forward pass or the line back in action. No such luck.

The girls merely wanted to know more about the game so they could enjoy watching the boys, team play.

A Path to Your Door

It may be true that if you can do something better than anyone else, the people will beat a path to your door, even though you live in a wilderness.

But we offer the suggestion that they must first KNOW that you can do it. That's where ADVERTISING comes in. It gives the public the necessary information. That's why this Bank believes in advertising. We do it to tell the people the advantages of this old, reliable Bank. You will be interested in reading our announcements every week.
