

Community News

By Special Correspondents

UPPER WILLAMETTE

The pupils of the Dexter public school under the direction of their superintendent Ross Mathews gave a program and basket social last Saturday. About $37 was taken in. This sum is to go toward a play shed. One of the baskets sold for over five dollars.

The interclass games in basket ball have started at the Pleasant Hill high school. The Junior girls with Nina Dilley as captain have won the championship of the girls. The Senior boys have beaten the Juniors, the sophomores have beaten the freshmen. The championship will be decided this week.

Fifty seats arrived at the Pleasant Hill high school last Thursday and were placed in the large east class room and the laboratory. The students brought the seats from Goshen in their cars.

The Juniors and seniors of the Pleasant Hill high school are studying newspaper work including leads, headings, editorials. Plans are under way to publish a school paper by use of the mimeograph machine. Malcolm Epley of the University of Oregon, reporter for the Springfield News talked to the students of the high school last week on journalism. He told how news is gathered both locally and in other places and how it is written and prepared for the printers.

The young folks of the Pleasant Hill Endeavor held a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jed Wheeler Saturday, October 28.

The ladies of the Pleasant Hill Christian church met at the home of Mrs. C. L. Williams last week.

The Junior Endeavor of the Pleasant Hill Christian church held an election last Friday, October 28 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick and chose the following officers: President, Evelyn Phelps; vice-president, Lucetta Boughman; Secretary, Mildred Monson; Treasurer, Thais Brooks; Pianist, Mildred Swift; Coarister, Florence Jordan. It was decided to hold Endeavor at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon instead of 5. The leader for last Sunday October 30, was Evelyn Phelps.

FOR SALE

Winter Apples 50c per box. Bring your boxes. T. J. Maxwell 1 1/4 miles west of Springfield on North side of river. N 3

Dad Likes Music

—always has. And now with a good radio set in the home, he feasts on good music to his heart's content, hearing famed song birds of the nation without having to give up the comforts of his pipe and easy slippers.

Every home should have a radio. It keeps the whole family abreast of all that is going on in the world—so diversified are the programs every fifteen hours of the day.

ATWATER KENT, ZENITH, CROSLY

Radio sets. Standard parts at lowest prices—if you wish to build your own set.

Step in—Listen in.

Springfield Garage

Phone 11-J 414 Main St.

THURSTON

Leland Hastings, who has spent some time visiting relatives here, returned to his home in Eugene last Saturday.

The high school gave a Halloween party at the school house last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edmiston entertained their friends in their new home last Friday evening about 65 were present. The evening was spent in visiting and card games. Herbert Wells installed his radio and furnished entertainment, also after a pleasant evening refreshments of grape juice, sandwiches, cake and pie were served.

The Farmers Union are giving a sewing demonstration at the home of Mrs. Ira Gray on Wednesday.

The high school students are giving a play on November 11. "The Elopement of Ellen," at the high school building.

Mrs. William Rennie, who underwent a major operation at Pacific Christian hospital some time ago has recovered sufficiently to be removed last Thursday to the home of her son, Ennis, who lives in Eugene.

The Sunday school rally was held here last Sunday. The aim was for 80 percent. Just at the close of Sunday school the eightieth one entered amid much applause. Professor Landies, who has organized an orchestra here, gave several numbers on the program with the orchestra, also a quartet from E. B. U. gave a number which was greatly appreciated. A short address by Rev. Haven on "Preparation for the Great Rally Day," was given followed by a basket dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weaver drove to Junction City last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. McKim and Mr. and Mrs. Madison from Springfield attended the party at Roy Edmiston's last Friday evening.

GARDEN WAY

Mr. and Mrs. Mevig of Eugene were Sunday guests of the O. H. Haugann family.

The J. R. Fish family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ashton of Albany.

C. E. Bailey left for Cheshire Friday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. L. W. Zumalt and baby of Clear Lake, accompanied by Miss Miram Frink of Connecticut were guests at the A. C. Travis home Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Bailey was hostess to her seventh grade M. E. Sunday school class. Ten boys participated in a bonfire, out door games, and a wicker roast in an ideal place on the river bank. Those who enjoyed the pleasant event were George and Gerald Andrus, Ralph Gillette, Harold and Melvin Foss, Arlon Shantok, Robert Roberts, Mark Smith, Bruce Squires, Lloyd Schipley and the hostess.

Ross Manning and family have moved into the Wylie house for the winter.

W. M. Curry of The Dalles is spending the week with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Bailey.

J. R. Fish shot a large dusky horned owl which measured 34 inches from tip to tip.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR LANE COUNTY.

In the Matter of the Estate of Charles E. Clark, Deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County administratrix of the estate of Charles E. Clark, deceased and having qualified, notice is hereby given to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against said deceased, to present them, as required by law, within six months after the first publication of this notice to the said Nellie J. Clark at 434 Miner Building, Eugene, Oregon. Date of first publication hereof, the 3rd day of November, 1927.

NELLIE J. CLARK, Administratrix of the Estate of Charles E. Clark, deceased.

SMITH & EVANS, Attorneys for Administratrix, 434-5-6 Miner Bldg., Eugene, Oregon.

N. 3, 10, 17, 24:

NOTICE OF ROAD DISTRICT MEETING

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the legal voters being resident taxpayers and owners of real property in Road District No. 19, in Lane County, Oregon, will be held at the hour of 1:30 P. M. on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1927, at the Oakridge High School Building in said Road District, to determine whether said road district shall levy a special tax of $10, 25¢, 50¢ upon all the taxable property in said district for the purpose of providing funds for maintenance of existing roads and construction of new roads.

C. P. BARNARD, County Judge.

CLINTON HURD, County Commissioner.

M. H. ANDERSON, County Commissioner.

N 3-10-17

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

The seventh annual apple show of the Milton-Freewater district was held last week.

Lane county last week received $106,460.88 as its share of the 1926 tax on Oregon-California grant lands.

The annual run of silverside salmon is now on in the Coquille river and good catches are reported daily.

The total value of taxable property in Jackson county, including public service corporations, is $33,149,464.93.

Announcement was made recently that the new six-story $250,000 La Grande hotel will be formally opened on November 15.

Quarantine for infantile paralysis was lifted in Grants Pass last Friday. Only two cases have been reported the past two weeks.

The first issue of the "Slakyou," Southern Oregon Normal school publication, is just off the press. The paper will be issued every two weeks.

Budget for the Forest Grove school district has a 3 per cent increase over the budget of last year. The total is $65,580, requiring a levy of 19 mills.

To Medford's more than 20 miles of paved streets will be added next year five more modern streets and 11 more will be graded and graveled at a cost of $83,000.

G. H. Neals' walnut drier near Chase Gardens, northeast of Eugene, was destroyed by fire last week. Mr. Neals' entire crop, valued at $1500, was burned.

The open season in Oregon for angling for trout more than six inches long will close November 30 this year instead of October 31, as previously announced.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed property in a block at Oakridge and seriously endangered the entire town. The damage was estimated to be more than $25,000.

Rocks and sticks were used by Minnie Suiste, 16, of Butter creek, near Pendleton, in slaying two bobcats which attacked sheep she was herding near her home.

Damage estimated at $60,048.85 was caused by 26 fires in the city of Portland during September, according to the monthly report of Edward Grenfell, fire marshal.

Light rains the past few days have delayed threshing operations in the North Powder district. Most of the grain has been placed in the stack, awaiting threshing.

Elroy Haynes, 22, of Dayton, was wounded in the face last Sunday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a revolver. The bullet entered his chin, destroying his left eye.

Medford started work last week in accord with a decision of the chamber of commerce directors to improve the local air port to meet the outlined requirements of the government.

Because they were considered exorbitant, the Klamath county court has rejected all bids for the construction of an isolation hospital. The lowest bid was $4000 over the court's estimate.

The national barred Plymouth Rock egg-laying record was returned to Oregon Agricultural college experiment station at Corvallis last week when hen No. 1596 laid her 334th egg in 363 days.

Hearing of the application of the Union Railroad of Oregon to acquire and operate a line of railroad extending from Union to Union Junction, in eastern Oregon, will be held at Union November 29.

Vernon Worsted, 13, son of L. G. Worsted, a merchant of Yoder, accidentally shot and fatally wounded his twin brother George last Sunday, with a shotgun. The boys had found the gun in a warehouse and loaded it.

Determination to secure authorization and adoption of the Umatilla Rapids project at the next session of congress was voted at the annual meeting of the Umatilla Rapids association in Pendleton last Thursday.

A huge slide of rocks and earth covered the Roosevelt highway and the Southern Pacific track at Barview, between Garibaldi and Rockaway, last week, and traffic on both highway and rail line was tied up for several days.

Petro Morin, fisherman at Winchester bay, has caught eight so-called man eating sharks in his nets. The sharks, although of small size, are ferocious and did considerable damage to the nets before they were captured and killed.

James Whitford, beloved resident of the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Cottage Grove, celebrated his 100th birthday last Saturday. A cake measuring five and one-half feet across held the candles representing an even century.

Workmen grading the street at Winchester bay have unearthed the skeletons of three Indians and an elk head. Despite a material increase in the cost of supplies and that an additional $17,000 has been appropriated for teachers' salaries, the budget of the Salem public school will be kept within the figures of last year, plus 6 per cent allowed by constitutional amendment.

There were 20 fewer divorce proceedings filed in Oregon during the period October 1, 1926, to September 30, 1927, than during the period October 1, 1925, to September 30, 1926. This was disclosed in a report prepared by the state treasurer in Salem last week.

Seeding of 1200 acres of logged-off land was commenced last week by Harold Adams of Myrtle Point in a Travelair plane for the Coquille Valley Sheep & Wool company. Five tons of Kentucky bluegrass, orchard grass, alsike, rye and white clover will be sown on the 1200 acres.

Mrs. Austin E. Herrick, widow of the engineer who ran the engine and train carrying Abraham Lincoln to his inauguration, died at the home of Mrs. Lydia Bailey, her daughter, near North Plains, last week. Mr. Herrick was a friend of President Lincoln and knew him well in Illinois.

Salem has the largest farmer telephone system of any city of its size on the Pacific coast, according to C. Aller, district manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company. On October 1 there were 6954 stations with a daily aggregate of 32,000 calls, or 56,000 users of the telephone.

Walnut growers of Polk county are harvesting their crops this week and unless there are some heavy frosts the work of gathering the nuts will drag along for at least ten days more. According to reports this year's crop of walnuts is lighter than that of last season, but the quality and size are uniformly better.

Articles of incorporation of one of Coos county's pioneer organizations were filed with the county clerk, Robert Watson, recently. The articles were of the Arago lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., formed almost exactly 50 years ago at Empire City, now known as Empire. The organization date was September 4, 1877.

State conventions held biennially instead of annually, with district conventions taking place in alternate years, will be put into effect by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, according to action taken at the closing session of the 22d annual state convention held in La Grande last week.

The 1927 cranberry crop on the Pacific coast is estimated at 56,000 bushels according to figures issued by the Pacific Cranberry exchange, co-operative of Astoria. The exchange has announced its opening price as $15 a barrel or $5 a box. This is believed to be the highest opening price for late berries on record.

Herbert Parker, rancher of the Buell district, northwest of Dallas, was killed accidentally with his shotgun last week. He was driving along a country road in a rock wagon, with a repeating shot-gun between his knees, probably looking for birds. The wagon struck a chuckhole and the gun bounded out, the hammer striking on the wagon tongue.

The bureau of public roads and the highway department have almost completed grading the right of way on Mount Hood from Government Camp east for a distance of approximately half a mile, for the parking of some 1200 cars, which, it is estimated, will be needed to take care of the winter sports enthusiasts, amateurs and on-lookers, who will take part in the activities on the mountain.

A check signed by George Washington, authorizing payment of $70 to Dr. James Craik, has been entrusted to the care of a Salem bank by Mrs. T. Gronke of that city. The check was drawn on the United States Federal bank, and was in payment for medical services. The bank on which the check was drawn was owned by Alexander Hamilton and was one of the famous early day financial institutions.

Use of flares similar to those used by railroads is being advocated by Edward Ostrander, public service commissioner, in connection with the operation of for hire busses in this state. Mr. Ostrander said the use of flares would reduce materially the accident hazard at night, and at the same time improve the service of the bus lines. Under Mr. Ostrander's proposal these flares would be set out when busses are detained at any point along the highways.

The Pacific Cooperative, Wool Growers have just sent out checks totaling nearly $250,000 to members of the association. More than 1000 growers participated in the distribution, which covers the sale of nearly 650,000 pounds of wool.

The state board of vocational education has confirmed the appointment of C. D. Adams as state director of vocational education and supervisor of trades and industries. He succeeds E. E. Elliott, who resigned recently because of ill health.

SUMMONS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, IN AND FOR LANE COUNTY.

Cofra Campbell, Plaintiff, vs. Horace W. Campbell, Defendant.
To Horace W. Campbell, Defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed herein against you in the above entitled suit and Court within four weeks of the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear, for want thereof the plaintiff will take judgment against you as prayed for in plaintiff's Complaint, to-wit: for a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony and granting to plaintiff an absolute divorce from the defendant, for the care and custody of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication by virtue of an order of the Hon. G. F. Skipworth, Judge of said Court, dated and filed Nov. 2, 1927, directing this Summons be served upon you by publication of the same once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Springfield News, Date of first publication, Nov. 2, 1927.

WELLS & WELLS, Attorneys for Plaintiff, Residence and Post Office Address, Eugene, Oregon.
N. 3, 10, 17, 24: D. 1:

WE ARE EVER STRIVING TO PLEASE

Our success depends upon pleasing our patrons. We keep constantly before us the thought for better service and more satisfied customers. We sell only the best meats handled under the most sanitary conditions.

The health of growing children is a matter of utmost interest to the parents. Meats of prime quality as obtained from this market are rich in food elements growing children need.

INDEPENDENT MEAT CO.

4th and Main Sts. Phone 83

E. C. STUART

PRATT HOLVERSON

Listings Wanted

I have quit the paint business and have gone into real estate exclusively. So bring in your listing if you have anything to sell or trade and we will give it our full time. Our office will be open from 8 until 6 o'clock at 312 Main street, next to the Archway Pool hall.

FREE

People making the first ten listings of property with us will receive free a toilet article wall rack.

We want a name for our real estate office. The one submitting the best name by November 10 will receive a beautiful oil painting of the Three Sisters peaks; size 36 inches long by 12 inches wide.

WILLIAM VASBY, Real Estate

312 Main Street

Springfield, Oregon

J.C. PENNEY Co.

942 Willamette St., Eugene, Oregon.

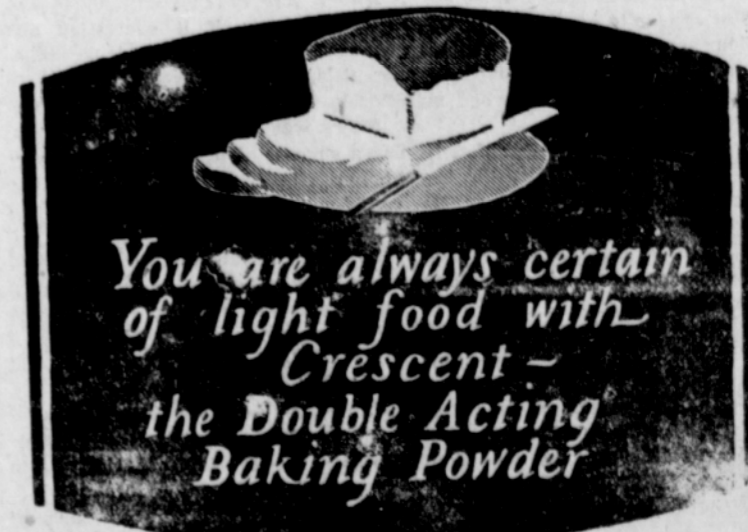

25th Anniversary

You'll Have Money Left To Put In Your New Handbag If You Buy It Here!

And you'll be sure, too, of a bag that is modish and convenient. A score of stunning models of plain and novelty leathers assures you satisfactory selection. The colors will match your fall costume!

98c to 4.98

You are always certain of light food with Crescent - the Double Acting Baking Powder