UPPER WILLAMETTE

About one inch of snow fell at Pleasant Hill Friday night and Saturday morning. This was followed by rain that froze as it fell covering telephone wires, fence wire, the limbs of trees and the ground with a solid coating of ice. The roads became very slippery and dangerous, several cars skidded into the ditch at the Moore Hill and one was thrown over the bank at the Williams' ranch. Sunday a crowd of young folks took their sleds and coasted down Cooper Butte until the warm rain drove them in pretty well soaked. Two parties were called off Saturday night because the condition of the roads was not safe for travel.

Professor Douglas Cooper teacher in the Pleasant Hill high school was receiving congratulations from the students Tuesday. Professor Cooper was married during the holidays to Miss Beryl Brown of Bend, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray John, who were married Wednesday December 28, returned from their honeymoon trip Sunday. Mr. John will continue his teaching at Tiernan and his wife, who was formerly Miss Mildred Morningstar, will finish her year's teaching at Goshen. They plan to attend Normal next winter.

Clarence Holmes has entered the Pleasant Hill high school. He is living with his mother in the house called the "old cheese factory" at Pleasant Hill.

Now that Christmas is over and a new year started thoughts of the poultry raisers are turning to baby chicks. Several poultry raisers have gone into the breeding business and are raising eggs for hatching, among them are R. P. Laird, Ernest Schrenk, J. E. Morningstar, who have the White Leghorn; W. L. Bristow and Mr. Brabham who have Rhode Island Reds and E. B. Tinker who is specializing in Black Jersey Giants.

Twenty ladies gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jordan Wednesday and finished one quilt and started to piece another one for Mrs. O. M. Williams whose house burned recently. Those who were present were as follows: Mesdames Dora Harden, Caruthers, Swifts, Baker, Stewart, Baughman, Miller Linton, Barnum, Schrenk, John, F. Smith, Morton Bristow, W. L. Bristow, Kabler, Higgins, Mary Harden, Esther Miller, Cora John. Mrs. Williams is the recipient of 10 quilts since the fire.

C. E. Jordan is working in Eugene this week taking inventory at Farmers Union warehouse.

County Home Demonstration Work Reported For Period

September 1 to December 1

CLOTHING PROJECT

1. Clothing Renovation: Twenty-nine meetings were held in 12 different communities on clothing renovation. Work in renovation of silk and woolen materials, alteration of commercial patterns, tailored finishes and practical suggestions on choice of style and color for the individual are included in this series of meetings. A series of three meetings for each community is generally necessary to complete the work, these meetings are scheduled in three successive weeks on a day convenient for the women of the community and the agent. A total of 120 makeover dresses were completed at an average cost of $1.08 per dress, and 37 dresses were planned at the meetings to be completed at home. Fourteen coats were constructed of used materials—three of which were women's coats, the remaining children's coats.

2. Dress Forms: Three dress form demonstrations were held resulting in the completion of 26 dress forms. These forms were made by the women of the class for each other—all members cooperating in the construction. The material is purchased from the demonstration agent at a considerable saving.

3. Millinery: One class in fall millinery was held, with a large attendance record. Twenty-one hats were completed at an average cost of $4.40 realizing a saving of $2.70 per hat. Used materials were renovated and made up into acceptable models, felt materials were also used with success; soft draped hats were the general style selected. In addition work on renovation of hat materials, points on selection of suitable hats for the individual were given by the agent.

NUTRITION

Two communities were given the work in nutrition, comprising a study of foods and their relation to health, formation of correct health habits in children and balanced meal planning. A representative luncheon was prepared at each meeting and served by those attending. Each member was weighed and condition checked for normalcy; individual problems in diet were taken care of in round table discussion. The response in these communities has been very good.
