OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

The Wasco County Pioneer associa tion will hold their seventh annual reunion in The Dalles Thursday

The state board of control obtained deeds to approximately 20 acres of land which will be made a part of Champoeg park. Voters of Hood River on April 20 will be asked to approve a bond issue of $850,000 for construction of a gravity water system.

William McVay, Coos county ranch er, suffered two broken arms Sunday while attempting to save cattle from a barn destroyed in a storm.

Salem's annual blossom day has been set for April 15, according to announcement made by King Bing Qui senberry of the Salem Cherrians.

A new postoffice for Klamath Falls to cost not more than $225,000 is rec ommended in the final report to congress of the budget bureau, last week.

School directors and clerks of Columbia county will meet April 14 at St. Helens in the new high school auditorium and perfect an organization.

Forest rangers report three feet of snow at Toll Gate in the Blue mountains. New snow has augmented the depth slightly since the report was made. Post office receipts at Portland in March aggregated $266,000, the post office department announced recently, increasing 2.04 per cent over March of last year. The government forest service has appropriated about $30,000 to be used on a new road into the forest above Estacada. This road will connect with the Garfield road. A check for $34,247.52, representing the county's share of receipts from sales of government timber during 1927, has been received by the treas urer of Klamath county. S. A. Blakely, logging superintendent of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company of Bend, was elected president of the Deschutes-Jefferson Forest Protective association. The train on the Sumpter Valley railroad was derailed Saturday. The engine left the track three times and finally rolled down an embankment, but no one was seriously injured. C. E. Linton. president of the Ore gon Beaches Roosevelt Highway association, has set April 14 as the date on which that association will hold its semi-annual meeting in Waldport. While Ike Dunford, Jackson county failer, was eating his breakfast Sunday morning, a thief entered the of tice in the basement of the courthouse and took $200 from the jailer's desk. Automobile thieves stole Patrolman John Skelly's car in front of the police station at The Dalles. Telephone calls to adjoining towns failed to reveal any trace of the automobile.

Henry William Hagemann, prominent farmer and prunegrower of Logan, in Clackamas county, was killed instantly last week. His neck was broken when he fell from a load of straw.

A total of 2500 baby chicks have been presented to the Children's Farm Home of Corvallis by friends of the institution. This is the beginning of the poultry industry for the Farm The 35th session of the Willamette Valley chautauqua at Gladstone park near Oregon City will be held from July 10 to 22. New features and revival of some of former years are The O-W. R. & N. unit of the Union Pacific system spent in Portland last year an average of $34,360 for every business day of the year, according to annual reports just compiled by the company. The 2,300,000 young silverside salmon reared at the Klaskanine river hatchery for the past 16 months were given their freedom last week, when they were released into the stream by L. W. Hickey, superintendent.

Three and a half miles of logging road, to tap a big stand of virgin timber, is to be built from Coquille to beyond the Al Powers operations on Yellow creek. Engineering forces are on hand, and the road is to be completed by August, it is said.

One hundred feet from shore and safety two Garibaldi mill hands released their hold on their capsized skiff, attempted swim in and were drowned in the storm-tossed waters of Tillamook bay off Garibaldi last week. Members of three Bend civic organizations last week voted to place on the ballot, probably for the primary election, the question of changing from the present common council form of city government to the managerial system.
