HUCK HARPER PITCHES STELLAR GAME SUNDAY

Huck Harper, pitcher for the Springfield baseball team, added another feather to his cap last Sunday when he played for the Pleasant Hill team. He pitched a game in which he scored 21 strikeouts.

Springfield twirlers are planning another game on Sunday of this week. Just who the opponent will be had not been decided this morning, according to William Vasby, manager.

Managers of the twilight league teams have been slow in drawing up a schedule, Mr. Vasby said. He urges that all managers get busy in order that the games may start.

NEW STUDIO OPENED IN EUGENE BY SEATTLE MEN

A new studio, specializing in portrait work, was opened in Eugene this week by Edwin Thomas and E. J. Batton of the Seattle firm of Thomas-Batton.

The studio is located in rooms 203-205 in the old Rigeister building at the corner of Broadway and Oak. The rooms in the suite have been completely remodeled especially for the studio and are being equipped this week.

As a means of introduction, the studio is offering to make a free picture of each baby taken there this week.
