In Confidence

Readers desiring a personal reply can address Miss Flo, in care of this newspaper.

A TARDY CORRESPONDENT

Dear Miss Flo:

I am a boy in my senior year in high school. I like a girl very much. Each time I write her she waits three or four weeks to answer, giving some foolish excuse. What could you advise me to do? Do you think she cares very much for me? I do not love her enough ever to marry her.

Dear A. M., you seem to be quite puzzled, but can't you stop to realize ing his own signature. Signing of the paper would mean acceptance of candidacy for mayor.

Cox Issues Statement

Mr. Cox this morning issued the following statements:

"About two months ago I was solicited to run for mayor. I informed my friends that I was no politician, consequently I will not spend any money or time in the campaign for election to this office, but I would consent to run provided a nominating petition carried, in my judgment, a sufficient number of signers.

"While this petition has not as yet been presented for my perusal or acceptance, I understand it is being circulated and now carries between 50 and 100 signers.

"I also am informed that Charles Wilson has been asked by a number of his friends to make the race for mayor and I also understand that he is reticent about accepting nomination. Personally, I know that Mr. Wilson is an honorable and very capable man, and I am certain that Springfield would be fortunate in having him at the head of its government.

Prefers Council Job

"With that thought in mind it would please me very much to drop out in favor of Mr. Wilson and in order to keep my promise with my friends and supporters I would be more than willing to accept nomination for councilman and support Mr. Wilson in his administration if we should be elected."

No property qualifications are provided in the state law or the city charter affecting candidates for either a councilman or mayor. City Attorney Peterson stated this morning. Any legal voter is eligible for any city office, he said.

that many people always delay answering letters, and that this does not necessarily mean anything. Some people answer letters as soon as they get them, others keep putting off answering.

There is nothing about her delay in writing that should make you think she does not write because she does not care for you; on the other hand, if you do not love the girl enough ever to marry her, and are positive of this, why be so concerned?

As long as you and she are just good friends, there is no reason why you cannot pardon a little tardiness in answering your letters.
