HAL HOSS APPOINTED TO SUCCEED KOZER AS SECRETARY OF STATE

Hal E. Hoss, of Oregon City, will be appointed by Governor I. L. Patterson shortly to serve as secretary of state, filling the unexpired term of Sam A. Kozer, who is resigning to take over new duties as director of the state budget. The change in state officials is set for Monday, September 24th and Mr. Hoss will serve by appointment of the Governor until January 7, 1929, the end of the term for which Mr. Kozer had been elected.

Mr. Hoss is the republican nominee for the office of secretary of state winning in the primaries by a wide margin over H. H. Grey and Tom B. Handley. Prior to entering the race for election as secretary of state, Mr. Hoss served as private secretary to Governor Patterson and before that was manager of the Morning Enterprise, published at Oregon City. He has been active in newspaper organization work, and has held a number of offices in publishers associations.

Mrs. Kozer, who is nearing the end of his second term as secretary of state, was selected by Governor Patterson to direct the state budget because of his many marked qualifications. There is perhaps no one in the state more familiar with the operative and fiscal affairs of the commonwealth than Mr. Kozer, due to his long contact with all its various departments. As director of the budget, working directly under the governor whom the 1927 legislature designated as state budget officer, Mr. Kozer will give Oregon taxpayers the advantage of his vast fund of knowledge about public business, and will fill an important place in the administration's official family.

There will be no drastic changes in the personnel of the office of secretary of State, according to Mr. Hoss, who has let it be known that he intends to conduct affairs as efficiently as possible, without regard to professional job-hunters and political hangers-on. The Hoss family has moved to Salem and taken up residence in the Fairmont hill district.

OUTDOOR CLUB WILL VOTE ON NAME CHANGE

Annual meeting of the Eugene Outdoor club, when the board of directors will be elected, will be held in the McMoran and Washburne building on October 2, it was announced this week by officers of the club. The directors elect the executive officers and appoint all committees.

H. E. Maxey of Springfield is among the list of 18 who have been nominated for the board of directors. Nine are to be elected.

Change in the name of the organization from the Outdoor club to Obsidian will be up for a vote at the meeting. Pictures taken of the recent climb of the North Sister will be shown at the meeting.

SCOUTS BEGIN MAKING AIRPLANES FOR CONTEST

Several Springfield Boy Scouts are expected to start this week to make model airplanes to be entered in the contest which began here last week, according to C. R. Aldrich and Kenneth Dillard, scoutmasters of the two troops.

Just as soon as the planes are completed they will be placed in the display windows at the Ketels' drug store. J. F. Ketels, the proprietor, is donating the prizes for the contest. Scouts are to use their own ideas in constructing the planes which are to be made to look like real airplanes, although they will not be built to fly.

MANY PHEASANTS SEEN ALONG MCKENZIE ROUTE

When pheasant season opens on October 15, there will be plenty of birds within a short distance of Springfield, believes C. E. Wheaton, who with Mrs. Wheaton made a trip up the McKenzie highway Sunday.

"We saw several flocks of Chinas on the trip," Mr. Wheaton said. "They were all fine looking birds and tempting to look at." Mr. Wheaton said he never saw so much traffic on the highway as he did Sunday.
