

Community News

By Special Correspondents

THURSTON

Frank Campbell, Fred and Hubert Gray and Raymond George motored to Landax a few days ago for a deer hunt. They succeeded in killing one.

A. W. Weaver and nephew Bert Weaver from Portland motored to the upper McKenzie a few days ago for a deer hunt.

Dale Phetteplace is ill at the home of his father, Homer Phetteplace.

Lafe Moore left Wednesday morning for the coast. He expects to bring back some salmon.

Dave Enhoff has purchased a new Ford car. John Travis bought the one Mr. Enhoff had previously.

Wayne Endicott underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils last Friday.

Bert Weaver drove to Albany last Wednesday and Mrs. Weaver spent the night in Eugene with relatives.

Cecil Jeans is preparing to move his family from the King ranch to his home place near Deerhorn and William Weeks from Eugene is planning to move on the King place.

William Rennie and sons, Roy and Harold attended the state fair in Salem.

Miss Agnes Brightman held a class of sewing for the ladies of Thurston at the home of Mrs. John Price last Monday. She will give another demonstration on Monday October, 22, at Mrs. Roy Edmiston's.

Mrs. William Rennie is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Blanton, from Salem.

There was preaching at the church last Sunday, the first since the summer vacation. Rev. Ard Hoven the pastor spent the summer in eastern Oregon.

PERRY PRICE MANAGER
O. A. C. FORESTRY CLUB

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 10—Perry Price of Springfield was elected manager of the Forestry club at a meeting on the campus this week. Other members elected were Ralph Crawford, president; Theodore Herzog, secretary; Daniel Janzen, treasurer; Glen Voorhies, auditor, and E. G. Mason, professor of forestry, club critic.

The Forestry club is one of the 22 clubs and associations in the various technical schools and departments. Its object is the advancement of interest and information in the field of forestry.

Registration of freshmen in this school exceeds that in agriculture, and is an increase of 50 per cent over that of last year. In 18 years, membership in the Forestry club has increased from 17 to 181 men.

CALL AND SEE Dr. N. W. Emerson on prices on plates and other work.

UPPER WILLAMETTE

Bruce and Jed Wheeler of Pleasant Hill exhibited 20 of their fine Barred Rock chickens at the state fair at Salem last week and brought home six blue ribbons, besides a number of seconds and thirds. C. B. Wheeler won first on cockerels in the dark class, it being the largest class in the whole show. One hundred and thirty birds of this breed were entered at the fair and those of the Wheeler brothers were counted as being among the finest there.

Donald Bolin the 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bolin of Bear Creek who was accidentally shot by Robert Deikens while out hunting last Saturday was buried at Pleasant Hill Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were held at the Pleasant Hill Christian church, interment was in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Two clubs, a sewing and a cooking club, have been organized at the Pleasant Hill public school this year.

The pupils of the Pleasant Hill public school are practicing for a Halloween program.

Mrs. Dora Harden, and E. B. Tinker are harvesting their walnut crops. The trees are loaded with nuts this year and the blight is not as bad as former years.

Howard Merriam and E. B. Tinker have finished picking their apple crops and are now busy sorting selling apples.

The Christian Endeavor society of Pleasant Hill plan to give a social in the near future. The Fairmount Endeavor visited the Pleasant Hill endeavor last Sunday bringing with them pennants which Pleasant Hill is to have the remainder of the year.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned S. M. Stiers, executor of the last will and testament of John V. Crall, deceased has rendered and filed with the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane his final account and that said Court has fixed and appointed, Saturday the 10th day of October, 1928 at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, at the County Court room in the Court House in the city of Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, as the day, time and place of hearing objections to said final account. All objections must be in writing and filed with the Clerk of said Court on or before said day and time.

S. M. STIERS, Executor,
FRANK A. DePUE, Attorney for the estate.

O. 11-18-25; N. 1-8;

Property Change Made

D. L. Barber last week purchased a residence in West Springfield from John Gates. The deal was made through the W. W. Walker real estate office. Realtors here report activity in their line has been slack during the past several weeks.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

R. G. Johnson Jr. of Wasco county has been appointed county agent of Grant county.

Walnuts are beginning to drop and fibberts are coming in. Price is a little lower this year on account of a large foreign crop.

A total of 1,224,958 pounds of milk and 54,442 pounds of butterfat was produced in August by the herds tested in Tillamook county.

There are said to be nearly 10,000 head of cattle in Klamath county in prime condition for market, and heavy shipments are anticipated in the near future.

Governor Patterson has issued a proclamation urging the citizens of Oregon to join in the observance of national fire prevention week, October 7 to 13.

The apple crop in the Milton-Free-water district this year will break all records and it is estimated that more than 1000 cars will be shipped from that section.

Lane county Four-H club boys and girls won 16 first places and 85 ribbons on their work at the state fair, according to Arnold D. Collier, county club agent.

The first timber wolf killed in Jackson county in many years was bagged recently by Willie Pruitt of Medford, who with a party was hunting deer on the Umpqua divide.

Henry W. Collins of Bendleton has purchased from the Fox Film company for $27,000 the standing grain on 450 acres near Thornhollow used in the filming of "Our Daily Bread."

Adelaide Clarissa Clarke O'Brien, the first white girl to settle in Klamath county, passed away last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Flaekus, in Dairy, aged 68 years.

High school is dismissed at Cove, in Union county, that the pupils may assist the packers in preparing the large crop of prunes for market. Shippers are paying $20 a ton for prunes.

Two carloads of machinery and equipment for the development of the cinnabar properties east of Sutherlin have been ordered and the plant will be in operation in a few weeks.

September export lumber shipments at Marshfield topped the 1928 business on Coos Bay, with a clearance of 15,115,533 feet. Nine steamers carried the shipments, valued at $422,931.

The state's general fund is in the red approximately $600,000 and the deficit can be expected to grow until the next tax funds begin to arrive in November, according to State Treasurer Kay.

At a city caucus held in Newberg, Mayor Nixon was nominated by the people for a third time. C. F. Hinchshaw was renominated for city recorder and W. H. Woodworth for city treasurer.

A three-prong snow-white buck deer was shot recently by Tom Stevenson, near Cedar butte, on the Wilson river in Tillamook county, according to reports coming from that section of the state.

Between 10,000 and 12,000 turkeys will be shipped out of Umatilla county this year for the Thanksgiving and Christmas trade. There are more than 40 turkey raisers in the Hermiston district.

New buildings in La Grande passed the $250,000 mark for the year of 1928 last week with the issuing of a permit in the amount of $14,000 to Julius Roesch for the erection of a garage building.

A cream pool with 550 cows to draw from was organized by Hermiston dairymen at a meeting held in that city last week. The Hermiston Creamery company will handle all cream of the pool.

Playground apparatus is being installed in the block which was recently donated to the city of McMinnville by Mrs. W. B. Smith. It is to be a memorial to her husband, the late W. B. Smith.

The drill team of the Corvallis fire department was the winner of the silver cup trophy in a competitive contest at the Pacific coast fire chiefs' convention at Sacramento recently, according to a telegram received from Clare A. Lee, state fire marshal.

Misses Barbara Ricker and Pearl Coss, well-known nurses of Medford, left last Sunday on a 2500-mile hiking trip to New Orleans. They plan to make the entire journey afoot except for a train ride across the desert country of Arizona and Texas.

Last Friday marked the three-quarter century mark of Oregon residence for S. B. Cathcart, who lives at Marshfield. He is one of the old pioneers of the state, and a surveyor who laid out many of the official surveys of roads of southern and central Oregon.

Another step toward the construction of the final link of the Lakeview-Klamath Falls highway from Dairy to Lorens Mill has been taken by the Klamath county court in securing the rights of way.

The new hop warehouse of the Oregon Electric railroad at Donald is completed. The first day after its completion over 2500 bales of hops were deposited. This has been a banner year for hops.

Louis Rorden, 74, The Dalles merchant of pre-railroad days, died there recently after a brief illness. He was at his place of business until the day before his death, when he left on advice of a physician.

Heppner is planning a new 600,000 gallon reservoir for the city water system. A survey has been made. It is understood that one of the present reservoirs will be abandoned when the new one is completed.

The official program for Frances E. Willard day, October 26, has been completed by C. A. Howard, state superintendent of public instruction, and copies have been sent to all school superintendents in Oregon.

C. M. Nelson, dairyman of Coos river, has a record-making herd of cows which have averaged him 367 pounds of butterfat in nine months of 1928. In July Mr. Nelson's cows were second in the state returns.

A proposal to vote bonds for $110,000 to complete the Umpqua highway between Drain and Scottsburg will be placed before the voters of the Umpqua highway improvement district at the coming November election, according to a resolution adopted by the trustees.

A third crop of blossoms is appearing on a pear tree on the place of E. T. Templeman at Oakridge and he has already gathered two crops of ripe fruit from the tree, he said. Branches from the tree showing ripe pears and blossoms side by side were brought to Eugene and exhibited.

First carload of potatoes sold by the newly organized General Oregon Potato Growers' association will be shipped out of Redmond to Portland within a few days, M. G. Coe, association manager, announced. One hundred carloads of potatoes have been contracted by the association this year.

A total of 3300 carloads of pears have been shipped from Medford this season with indications that there will be at least two weeks more of heavy activity. To date 200 cars of apples have been shipped. There will be at least 500 cars sent from the Rogue river valley by the end of the harvest.

After being forwarded here and there over a period of 11 years, a letter written by Mrs. Lena Scharif in St. Paul, Minn., August 25, 1917, was returned to its author in Salem last week. The letter originally was addressed to Yokohama, Japan. Mrs. Scharif has lived in Salem for seven years.

The offer by Mrs. Ellen Baldwin, Wasco county pioneer, of 150 acres of timbered land in the Mount Hood foothills to Boy Scouts of Wasco and adjacent counties for camp use was accepted recently by members of the Mid-Columbia-Deschutes area council of the Scouts in quarterly session at Redmond.

The onion harvest has been in progress at Lake Labish, between Brooks and Salem, where over 500 carloads are being made ready for shipment by a big crowd of employes in trimming, drying, sacking, etc. It has been a good season for onions in that section, says Seymour Jones, state market agent.

J. Peterson, rancher of the Shaw district, has appealed to the Marion county court to appoint a county agent to tell Salem business men how to conduct their business. The application was filed by Mr. Peterson after a number of business men and bankers had gone on record favoring a county agent to direct the farmers.

Hearing a noise in his garden recently, Carl Hansen, who lives at the north edge of Seaside, turned his dog loose to frighten the marauder. A moment later the dog rushed into the house with a large bull elk in full pursuit. Hansen found the bull elk with two cows had broken his fence and were eating corn in the garden.

Quinn S. Butler of Ashland was elected president of the Southern Oregon Pioneer association at Jacksonville last week. Mrs. A. E. Kenney of Jacksonville was named vice president and Mrs. M. J. Nelson permanent secretary. Two of the oldest members, Mary Vining, 92, of Ashland, and Mrs. Elizabeth Paine, 94, of Ashland, were present.

Sixty-six head of sheep killed by dogs near Bend cost Deschutes county $437. The warrant paying Con F. Doody of Summer Lake for the sheep was drawn on the dog license fund as is provided by the Oregon laws.

A reunion reminiscent of the celebration two years ago when Chief Joseph's bones were removed from near Wallawa and interred at the foot of Wallawa lake will be held during the fall of 1929, it was decided at a special meeting of Joseph commercial club.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Hi-Y Club Has Dinner

The Hi-Y club of this school had a dinner Tuesday evening in the basement of the high school. The purpose of this dinner was to bring all members together and start the new year off well. Four members of the Hi-Y prepared the dinner. They were Thayer McMurray, Read Hemenway, Laverne Lawson, and Lawrence Roof. The club re-elected Oscar Gladdish for the club advisor last Tuesday at a special meeting.

Joint Party Vetoed

At the last meeting of the Sophomore class, President Ruth Carlton brought up, for votes, the suggestion that the annual party of the Sopomores and Freshmen be merged into one this year. The idea met with almost unanimous disapproval.

Ruth Carlton, president, will announce the date of the sophomore party sometime soon.

Club Reorganizes

The Dramatic club of the S. H. S. will be reorganized. The first meeting was called Thursday the fifth period and the officers were elected for the coming year. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution for the club.

Literary Club Formed

The freshmen English classes have organized a Literary club. Tuesday, the classes appointed temporary chairmen which are Lella Squires, second period class, and Ethel Briggs, third period class. These officers appointed a committee to work under them. They have a good size organization as there are seventy pupils in the two classes.

Typing Content

The beginning typing classes under direction of Miss Wagner are going to have contests for the next six weeks. Each class has elected a captain. The first period class captain is Ralph Hughes, 2nd period, Nellie Wright, 3rd period, Vernice Hawke.

Much interest is being shown by the classes. The grades are also to be considered as well as a party given by the losing team to the two winning classes.

Mrs. Page Returns—Mrs. L. K. Page who has been spending the past month and a half visiting relatives in Los Angeles. During her absence she was elected secretary of the Springfield Parent-Teacher association. She was for 22 years a teacher in the schools here and this is her first year not to teach since she first accepted a faculty position.

Stormizing adds 2000 miles to the life of your car

WE CAN recondition your car and it will give you as good service as any new car at a small cost—also re-line your brakes—align your wheels to prevent tire wear.

Pembroke & Moritz
Automotive Machinists
824 Pearl St. Eugene, Ore.
Phone 843

Now Located in Miner Building

Don't blame your children for backwardness in their studies. In nearly every instance proper glasses will place them ahead of the class.

Make Appointments Whenever Possible

Dr. Sherman W. Moody
OPTOMETRIST-EYESIGHT SPECIALIST
SUITE 651 SUMNER BLDG. PHONE 361
EAST BROADWAY
EUGENE-ORE.

Perfect Steaks

You may search the world for a better word to describe our steaks and then you will come back to "perfect." They are just fat enough, as tender as butter, juicy and full flavored. Better order one for dinner today.

INDEPENDENT MEAT CO.

4th and Main Sts. Phone 63
E. C. STUART PRATT HOLVERSON

BELL THEATRE

SPRINGFIELD

FRIDAY — SATURDAY — OCTOBER 12 - 13

CHARLES RAY IN "THE COUNT OF TEN"

Packing famous Egg-crate wallop COMEDY AND NEWS

USE MERCHANT TICKETS FRIDAY NIGHTS

SUNDAY — OCTOBER 14

WALLACE BEERY and RAYMOND HATTON
NOW WE'RE IN THE AIR
A Paramount Picture

A Comedy Riot COMEDY AND NEWS ATTEND SUNDAY MATINEE 2:30

TUESDAY — OCTOBER 16 KARL DANE AND GEO. K. ARTHUR IN

"DETECTIVES"

Another Hilarious Comedy—Also Many Short Subjects

USE MERCHANT TICKETS TUESDAY NIGHTS

GET MERCHANT CO-OPERATIVE TICKETS AT FOLLOWING PLACES:

- Save 25c on each admission on Tuesdays and Fridays
- INDEPENDENT MEAT CO. CHIC'S FEED STORE
- DANNER MOTOR CO. SPRINGFIELD TAXI
- SPRINGFIELD GARAGE DROP-IN CAFE
- FLANERY'S DRUG STORE IDEAL GROCERY
- LARSON'S SERVICE STATION

Take Advantage of SPECIAL Car Greasing price of 50c
J. M. Larson Service Station
Corner 2nd and Main

J.C. PENNEY CO.

"where savings are greatest" 942 Willamette St., Eugene, Oregon.

PARTNERS — your Purse and a J. C. Penney Co. Ad.

Fifty years ago Mrs. Homemaker scrubbed and spun and "sewed a fine seam" from daylight until dark. Today she has a partner to help out on the job—a J. C. Penney Store.

She has learned to read our advertisements regularly and saves many a dollar for the Family Purse while sitting quietly at home. She knows she can depend on our advertising—that it is honest, and free from exaggeration.

It will pay every Housewife to read our advertising regularly. Often she will find that some small luxury she never thought she could afford, is well within her means.