Fears Tiger Tread

Dr. M. Carey Thomas, president emerita of Bryn Mawr College, has cabled from Europe that she will vote for Hoover to "make doubly sure the United States will never suffer the utter humiliation of hearing the furtive tread of the Tammany tiger in the corridors of the White House and in the vaults of the treasury."

CARE OF VETERANS PROMISED BY HOOVER

WASHINGTON.—Addressing a delegation of veterans representing the various war service organizations of the District of Columbia, Herbert Hoover declared against reduction of expenditures for the care of veterans. He approved the policy of Republican administrations during the last seven years in showing ex-service men the utmost liberality.

Mr. Hoover's remarks to the delegation were as follows: "I believe all of America recognizes our national obligation to our veterans. The country today is providing pensions and compensation to 835,292 men and women, with insurance and adjusted compensation to over four million more. The total expenditures of the government in this direction now exceed $576,943,000 annually, and represent the one important division of the government where the policy has been justifiably to increase rather than to reduce expenditures. This has also been the one important division of the government where the drive for reduction of expenditures has been applied only for economy in its administration—not against the veterans. It is the one division where large measure of increased expenditure of the government has taken place during the past seven years. This is as it should be. This government must not be extravagant but it must be just."

Col. Lindbergh Flies to St. Louis To Register for Hoover Vote, He Telegraphs the Candidate

MR. HOOVER AND COL. LINDBERGH

CALLING the election of Herbert Hoover of supreme importance to the nation, Charles A. Lindbergh wired the Republican candidate as follows:

"I have recently flown to Saint Louis to register. The more I see of this campaign the more strongly I feel that your election is of supreme importance to the country. Your qualities as a man and what you stand for regardless of party make me feel that the problems which will come before our country during the next four years will be best solved under your leadership."

To this telegram Mr. Hoover replied: "I wish to express my deep appreciation of your message. The confidence of men of your character brings both encouragement and inspiration to me."

There was a little girl
And she had a little curl
Right in the middle of her forehead.
When she was good
She was very, very good,
And when she was bad she was—
Quite a jolly companion, don't you know.

The Wife: "Hubby, what kept you out so late last night?"
Hubby (intoxicated): "I—hic—been out with a chiffonier."
The Wife: "Chiffonier? Why you don't even know what you're talking about. A chiffonier is a swell little dresser."
Hubby: "Yes, that's her."

way commission in this regard were in vain. We did succeed in securing an additional span on the east end of the bridge.

"It seems now that the commission has reached a place where it does not know what to do and I believe present members are putting the matter off until a new personnel is named next spring.

"I fail to understand why we could not have had a fine bridge—beautiful and useful—one that would have been a pride to this part of the state and one that would have been permanent."
